IROQUOIS FALLS WEDDING OF NOTE

Iroquois Falls United Church was the setting for a pretty wedding on Tuesday at 3 p.m., when Grace Margaret Fraser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fraser became the bride of Norman Thomas Brennand, only son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Brennand, of Toronto. Rev. Addison officiated at the ceremony against a background of honeysuckle, peonies and fern. Organist was Mrs. A. Elliott, and soloist was Kenneth Elliott.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white net over satin, fashioned with a satin bodice. Her finger-tip veil was caught with a spray of white gardenias on either side, and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and baby's breath.

Miss Iona Fraser, sister of the bride. was the maid of honor, wearing a gown of pink net over taffeta with matching headdress. Miss Majorie Allen, of Timmins, was bridesmaid, wearing a gown of turquoise net with matching headdress.

Best man was James Fraser, and ushers were Graham Elliott and Bruce Cameron.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home, Mrs. Fraser, receiving in a dress of colonial blue, with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Brennand also received wearing a dress of romance blue, with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

For their wedding trip to Muskeka, the bride chose a red gabardine suit with navy accessories and a corsage of white gardenias, for travelling.

The couple will reside in Toronto. Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. T. Brennand, of Toronto, Mrs. A. Waldriff, of Engle-
