DROPPED Between STITCHES

by Phyllis McCoy

What with hard-earned vacations and summer holidays being the prime thought in nearly everyone's mind these days, social activities are becoming mightly scarce. But tomorrow night will give many of us a chance to take in a gay social evening, complete with dencing and favors, as July 19 is the date for the tenth annual Intercollegiate DanceFor years now the university students who work in the district for the summer months, have staged an intercollegiate dance, with each and all of them working especially hard to ensure it's success. So far, they have been, with numerous folk, both young and old, attending and having a grand time Proceeds this year are going to our local Y.M.C.A... Dress is optional, but it will give the girls a chance to wear a nice cool summer evening dress if they are so inclined. And speaking of evening dresses, we noticed a very nice display of them in Bucovetsky's window with each model holding streams of school colors in her hand. Forming a background for the display too, were various cheers and hails for the good old Alma Maters.... The dance tomorrow night, takes place at the Riverside Pavilion, with Henry Kelneck's Orchestra in attendance.

We must now extend our congratulations to Mrs. H. Burton of the Dome, who was a most fortunate person indeed this week. Mrs. Burton had sent in a Lyons Tea label, complete with her name and address, to the "Money Makers" Radio Show, and as "luck" would have it, her name was drawn, and she received the tidy sum of $250 for her efforts, along with a dictionary All that Mrs. Burton has to do now to receive an additional $750 is to choose a word from the 100,000 words in the dictionary, which will stump the speller on the program However, that isn't quite as easy as it sounds, as said speller is quite a connoisseur of words, and as spelling is his business, he is somewhat hard to catch..... However, we certainly hope that Mrs. Burton's choice is successful, and that on their next program, which will be in August as it is off the air for the summer months, she will be awarded the grand Hearing so much about teen-agers, youth movements and such these days, we took special notice of something we saw the other afternoon down at the Gift and Book Nook ... They were special greeting cards for teen-agers, and were certainly, if we might be so venturesome as to say, "out of this world" The cards are attractively colored and feature the same amusing figures as the BobbySox cartoon..... The Advertising caption goes something like this "Joes and Jills, look what's new, greeting cards made just for you", and the cards express birthday wishes, sorry you're sick, make with the writin', Delightin', and use short and snappy verse to say "Hello", thus saving purchaser the trouble of wielding a pen......We read over several of the lines and verses a lot of them being witty, and most of them definitely amusing, coming upon the following, for "missin' you, but def":

Do I ever think aboutcha Do I miss va? Golly gee Do I wish that I wuz with ya, Can'tcha guess? Indood I dee!

After which we left.

A Popularity Contest usually arouses a lot of interest among young ladies, and especially so when the prizes are worth competing for In Timmins, Radio Station Station CKGB has sponsored one of these contests each year for the past five years, with the lucky winners being presented with valuable prizes Votes are cast when merchandise is purchased at certain stores, and anyone is eligible for entering. The contest which began this month carries on until Aug. 17, when the winner will be awarded $100 and the two runners up will receive a wrist watch, and an Elizabeth Arden make-up kit respectively. Leading the contest at present is Miss Evelyn Nord, and following in second and third place are Beatrice Demarco and Georgette Menard

Tonight, Mrs. J. Byrom, and Mrs. F. Roberts will be co-hostesses at a social evening at the home of Mrs. A. R. Tyrrell, 125 Cherry St.... As both of the hostesses are war brides, they are planning to entertain a number of other war brides, this evening, so besides being a pleasant social, the event will be another grand opportunity for recalling old times.

The Shirtmakers Raincoat

By PRUNELLA WOOD

Sure, it's summer time, but as the sponsors of the Sunday night sing-songs have learned, it can rain any time in Timmins! The designers of a new breed of raincoats have decided such a garment is welcome in July as in April. Instead of cleaving to the color line of biege and drab raincoat fabrics, they have burst forth with a series which apes blossom hues.

This shiny fabric raincoat, cut like a shirtmaker frock, with convertible neckline, buttons, pockets, belt, etc., is made in various flower hughes which light up a misty, moisty gray day.

MY BANK

HIS is not selfishness, but the realization that a community is no better, no sounder than its citizens. The welfare of our community-Canada-depends not alone on those charged with the government of the country, but er each of its citizens-12,000,000

Today, that welfare is menaced by the danger of inflation. Already, millions in lands devastated by war suffer misery because of it.

Inflation, to the citizen, means simply less and less value for his dollar . . . his living costs soar as free and careless spending drives up the price of goods still in short supply.

War always brings the threat of inflation in its wake ... only the prudence of the people can keep it in check.

How? Mainly, by conservation . . . by buying only those goods which are in fair supply, and by saving money for the day when goods now in short supply will be readily available.

This helps to keep prices steady-to keep your dollar at its real worth.

This means that, if you are a No. 1 citizen, you will rigidly avoid black market purchases and you will save money by · building up your savings account;

· keeping up your insurance;

· buying Government bonds and War Savings

Certificates; · holding whatever of these securities you have

This is conservation-the first requisite for personal security-the first attribute of good citizenship.
