

Combines Swat Out 3-1 Win Over Hollinger In Last Night's Game

Get Into Lead And Into Arguments In Fourth Interference Claimed

In a hotly played ball game interspersed with two heated arguments the Porcupine Combines managed a 3-1 victory over the Hollinger nine at the Hollinger Ball Park last night.

Starting out slowly the ball game went into a winning ascent for Combines and a slump for starting Hollinger hurler "Lefty" O'Donnell who was tagged for three walks and a base when Scarlett was hit by the ball in the fourth.

Scarlett made second on Teikinen's bunt, then Romualdi made second, advancing Scarlett to third, on an error by Frank Chase with Tennant, Babando and Donlevy walking to force in two runs. Scarlett and Romualdi coming home.

Chunky Mike Cherevaty went to the mound to relieve O'Donnell with the pinch on in the awful fourth, fanned Morgan and forced Bussiere to fly out, retiring the side.

Retaliating in the last half of the fourth the Hollinger squad not only had Levensoski romp home on Dunn's double but came in for two verbal melees to boot.

The first came when Levensoski attempted to move around to third, ran into difficulties, and claimed Morgan had interfered. Dunn then stole second and the heat was on again only this time the Combine mentor Shultz and short stop Louis Romualdi of the back row nine aired the arguments.

The final Combine run came in the eighth with Louis Romualdi bringing home the run after a walking start. With two men going down in between, Romualdi was brought home by Barliko's single while Donlevy went down at third.

Hollinger tried hard for the equalizer in the ninth with Levensoski going down at third after being boosted to the sack by Delmonte's single.

Hollinger coach Vince Barton went to the plate for Lawton as last man to go, going out on a ground swat to end the ball game.

"Lefty" O'Donnell was taken out of the game without hits or strikeouts but with six walks. Cherevaty marked the rest of his playing table with two walks and two strike outs with Bussiere finishing his card with four walks and five strike outs.

Hollinger Pitchers Fail To Halt Lake Hitters, Lose 13-8

The Kirkland Lake baseball nine went back to the top of the T.B.L. standings on Friday night after putting the Hollinger Bombers away on the small end of a 13-8 final score in the Hollinger Ball Park here.

In one of the best hitting displays of the season both teams evenly divided two home runs, and eight doubles. Kirkland's Cam Jelly took the first homer in the initial frame to bring in three runners and Frank Chase belted out the Hollinger homer in the fifth when he went to the plate as first batter up.

Hollinger used three pitchers for the session with the Lakeites making use of two.

McIntyre, C. S. Y. F. Win Sunday Games

McIntyre moved into the runner-up spot behind the Aunorites in the Porcupine District Softball Association's first section with a 6-2 win at the Hollinger Ball Park on Sunday night in a clash with Moneta, who up until their loss were tied with the Macmen for second place in the standing.

C. S. Y. F., topped the Gamble team for a 21-14 win in the nightcap, thus moving into third place and sending the Gamble machine to the basement.

Dick Anderson, moundsman for the McIntyre squad, held the Moneta boys to five scattered hits while striking out six and walking two. On the other side of the fence, McIntyre took seven hits from Lino Bozzer, four men getting walks.

Moneta opened the scoring in the first with Dutchy Delmonte singling and romping home on three passes. The Moneta squad were silent then until the seventh when Ralph Orlando came in for the second run on a passed ball after walking to the first sack and being advanced to third.

Baker, Portin, Blint, Prentice, Jake and Lister were the score engenders for the Macmen.

C.S.Y.F. had a field day on 14 hits and 10 walks from two Gamble moundsmen in the nightcap and amassed 21 runs while the Gamble machine took 13 hits and seven walks off Paul Ketko for 14 runs.

Boxing Makes Successful Debut Before 2000 Fans In Timmins Arena

Boxing made a grand return to the sport circles on Thursday night when over 2000 people filed into the Timmins arena to witness the first fight card presented by the Timmins Boxing Association since their inception a scant two months before.

Eight bouts were presented during the evening with Art Leonard and Young Corbett as referees.

In the final bout Joe Sunega took a decision over Ernie Sasseville after five rounds of flatfooted slugging. In the crowd-pleasing duel Sasseville and Sunega, both polished fighters, went after each other all out, without let-up, for the entire time.

Suega made good use of both of his pile driver mitts as Sasseville brought the fight to the opposition, but with less strength than the powerful Joe.

In the semi-final, fight fans witnessed the only T.K.O. of the evening when Cliff Varin opened up Leslie Rickard after the latter had led the roost with his first round showing. Varin came out strong in the second and battered Rickard into the four corners of the ring until Rickard's seconds heaved in the towel to spare their man further punishment. Varin had draped Rickard over the ropes on three occasions previous to the entry of the towel.

The final preliminary died before it's proper opening as bad luck stopped Murdock McPhail, entering against George Hamelin. A flying start resulted in McPhail pulling his knee out in an evasive movement from Hamelin. Chris Joyce outpointed Pee-Wee Chartier in a three round go, although he was blood be-smeared from Chartier's pummelings.

Joyce played stubborn man to his aggressor for the three frames, boring in to make his punches count even though they were not over strong.

Real Lavigne bounced, weaved and hit with style to outpoint Roger Lauzon in three fixtures in a snappy fracas, as did Donald O'Donnell, who took the decision over Louis Tambau in a hard-hitting and fast-moving preliminary.

The only decision which fans disliked came when Maurice Gamier took his tangle with pint sized Guy Lamarche on points after Lamarche had put up a plucky, stubborn battle against his taller opponent.

Lamarche was stopped with lefts from his longer-reached opponent on every attack but only long enough to gain distance to walk in again.

Bobby Ritz went down to a loss on decision in a 95-pound bout with Roger Meunier in the opening scrap.

The pint-sized gladiators put on one of the scrappiest shows of the evening with lessons to spare for their older brothers.

On Tuesday night the Aube Freres bolstered their lead in the Porcupine Softball Association's second section standings putting Delnite to a third rung by a 14-5 defeat at the Hollinger Park.

Seven errors by Delnite and 11 hits off two Delnite arm men all went towards the ringing up of the one-sided score card.

Bob Dumont went off the mound in the fourth after awarding seven hits and walking three men. Norm Vollick, as relief pitcher, was taken for four more hits in the remaining frames.

Vollick fanned three, walked one, and Dumont struck out two. Proulx, hurling for the Freres was tagged for seven hits, fanned six and walked seven. In the error department the Freres were credited with two.

Ninth Inning Gives Combines 3-2 Win In Sunday Game

Playing in a light drizzling rain that ended shortly before the conclusion of the game, the Combine baseball nine moved over the Hollinger squad at Hollinger Park on Sunday afternoon for a 3-2 win. Two runs by the Combines in the ninth inning cinched their win over the Bartonites.

Combines stayed in front on a one-run lead until entering the sixth, when the Hollinger Bombers collected two runs via Frank Chase, bringing Norm Hann home on a double. Frank Chase came home on Joe Levensoski's hit that put him on first by virtue of an error.

The back road boys clinched the ball game when Tennent sent out a double to bring Louis Romualdi home and Pete Babando supplied the single for the winning run.

The initial Combine tour was the affair of Jerry Beland who singled and was brought home by Gunnar Teikinen's one bag drive.

Combine pitcher Alex Kosiek was credited with seven hits in the last five innings after holding off the Hollinger nine for the first half of the game. Crunky Mike Cherevaty, hurling for Hollinger, bowed to five hits and two walks for the entire session.

Three errors were divided between Romualdi and Tennant for the Combines and Frank Chase for Hollinger.

Visitors Share Wins With Miners' Club In Exhibition Here

For the second time in 17 starts in the softball season the Stanley Cup winning Montreal Canadiens dropped to defeat here before the Miners' Club mullball squad in the opening game of a double-header played here at Hollinger Park on Saturday evening.

The score in the opening game was 3-1 for Timmins and in the night cap session the N.H.L. leaders nearly slid to a second defeat but nosed out to win on an umpire's decision in the fifth and scored twice. Another tour in the seventh inning split up a tie, giving them the game 3-2.

Previous to this loss in the first game the N.H.L. champions had dropped one game in Montreal.

Oscar Cloutier starred for the local squad when he relieved Hank Burman in the final frame of the first inning with three men on base and none down. Pitching stellar ball, the imported moundsman put two men away on strike-outs and forced the third to pop fly to the infield.

Norm Hann brought in the first run for the locals in the opening game after being walked by Leo Lameureux, performing on the visitors' mound until relieved by Bill Durman in the fifth.

Hann went on to second as Ted Lister was thrown out at first and came home on Louis Romualdi's single. Hann also brought in the Miner's second run in the fifth when he singled to get on base.

Ted Lister also came through in the fifth inning with a two-run homer which gave the miner's a three-run lead over the scoreless Canadiens.

In the nightcap tangle, the visitors went through four scoreless cantos and then scored two runs in the fifth as Glen Tarmon scored on a wild pitch to home and Jimmy Peters romped home on a single by Frank Eddies.

Toe Blake drove out a double in the seventh and came home on a long fly swatted out by Eddies.

The first run for the locals was brought in by Oscar Cloutier in the sixth after a smash to right field got him started on the tour. Norm Hann brought him home. Chunky Louis Romualdi, starting on a single, came home in the ninth on Joe Levensoski's hit.
