IN MEMORIAM

MSFADEN - In loving memory of a dear husband and father, James McFadden, who passed away July 16, 1940.

Just a token of love and remembrance To one we will never forget. Ever remembered by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear Mother, Lydia Allen, who passed away, July 21st, 1932:

Our Mother's spirit is ever with us, Through every passing day; Sharing our joys and our troubles, Helping to lighten the way; Making us know that tomorrow, The sun will shine again. Always with us in laughter, Ever with us in our tears; Though death may seem to take her, We know that she never goes far; Always up there with our Maker, To brighten our way like a star. And will the morn, that angel face will smile, Which we have loved and lost for just a little while.

Dearly loved and missed by her loving children, Beatrice, Evelyn, Hetty Thinz, and son Willie, Dome Mines.

Wellknown Speakers To Address Firemen At Convention Here

An interesting program has been prepared by the executive committee of the Dominion Fire Chief's Association for those members of the Association who plan to attend the 38th annual convention, to be held in Timmins, Aug. 27-30.

Headquarters for the convention will be at the Empire Hotel, and the business sessions will be held in the municipal building.

Speakers at the convention include Col. C. E. Reynolds, chairman of the Ontario Northland Railway; R. B. Woolley, of "Fire Engineering," New York; E. L. Longmore, manager, Hollinger Consolidated Gold Mines, D. B. Tierney, secretary of the International Assn. of Fire Chiefs.

An interesting feature of the program is a barbecue in the Buffalo Ankerite park, arranged by fire departments in the Porcupine area. At this event, competitions in hose-laying and ladder races will be held. The Ladies Auxiliary, in co-operation with local officials, has arranged many events for the wives of members attending.

Fire Chief William Stanley is making up a list of those who can provide a room or a car, to help in taking care of any overflow of those attending the convention. Those having accommodation available are urged to get in touch with him.

The farmer doesn't have to go to work. When he wakes up in the morning he is surrounded by it.

Funeral Services For Duncan McPhail Held Yesterday

Widely Known Mining Man Had Long Career

Last respectful tribute was paid to the late Duncan McPhail at the first United Church in Timmins on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. McPhail, a veteran mining man, died here suddenly on Saturday, aged 67.

Mr. McPhail was a former manager of the West Dome Mines in Timmins and of the Hudson Bay Mine in Cobalt. He resided at 4 James Ave., Timmins.

Mr. McPhail had suffered a heart attack about a month ago but had rallied sufficiently to go down town. Last Monday he suffered a second attack, followed by a third one on Saturday evening, from which he failed to recover.

He is well known to many pioneers of the Cobalt, Kirkland Lake and Porcupine Camps, having been in this part of the province since 1906.

Mr. McPhail held his first job in the Northern mining camp at the University Mine at Cobalt, where he was engaged in shaft sinking in 1906. His work at that time entailed 10 hours labor for $17.5. Previous to this he had been in British Columbia and Western Butte, Montana.

In time Mr. McPhail began a long association with the Temiskaming and Hudson Bay Mining interests which company had its origin with a number of New Liskeard citizens and with whom Mr. McPhail went to a small property in Painkiller Lake district near Matheson as a starter.

Following this he was at the parent property in Cobalt, and later still at Dome Lake, aside from excursions into other mining areas for the same company.

He first came to Timmins in 1910, engaged in various mining interests and then came here to reside permanently in 1922.

The Old West Dome, of which he was a former manager, is now the Paymaster Mine. In recent years most of Mr. McPhail's interest was applied to property of his own in Larder Lake. At one time he was manager of the Martin Bird Mine in Larder Lake.

Born at River Denys, Cape Breton, N.S., on Nov. 13, 1879, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Roderick McPhail. Mr. McPhail lived in Cape Breton until 17, at which time he went to the United States. His marriage to the former Katherine Ross, who survives, took place in 1910.

Mr. McPhail was an adherent of the United Church.

Surviving besides his widow, at present living in Timmins, are two daughters and two sons: Mrs. Philip Arnold (Margaret) of Danvers Mass.; Mrs. Harry Trot (Ann) of Toronto, Ross of 4 James Ave., and Sgt. Roderick McPhail of Camp Borden.

There are six grandchildren and a brother, Daniel, residing at River Denys, Cape Breton, N.S.

Palbearers were Charles McInnis, Gus McManus, Walter Cliff, William Johns, Dayton Ostrasser and Harry Heine.

Rev. E. Gilmour Smith officiated at the service.

Funeral arrangements were by Walker's Funeral Home.

Mrs. Edward Stevens Was Buried Monday

Mrs. Edward Stevens, aged 22, 163 Charles St., Timmins, died Sunday afternoon in St. Mary's Hospital. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home, with Rev. A. R. Chidwick of St. Matthew's Anglican Church officiating.

A life-long resident of Timmins, Mrs. Stevens was well known here.

The late Mrs. Stevens (Lillian Janson), attended Mattagami Public School and Timmins High and Vocational School and from 1941 to 1944 she was employed as cashier at the Consumer's Co-operative store.

Her marriage to Edward Stevens, who survives, took place on October 10, 1942 at the First United Church Manse. Mr. Stevens is an employee of the Aunor Mine.

Mrs. Stevens was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Janson, 456 Algonquin Blvd. Her father is a timber boss at the Hollinger Gold Mines.

Surviving besides her husband and infant daughter, Lillian Marie, are two sisters and one brother, Ellen, Ella and Edward, all students of Mattagami public school.

Palbearers were Bill Stevens, Douglas Stevens, Johnny Fortais, Barney Manhiem, Veikko Niemi and Mr. Korri.

Burial was in Timmins Cemetery. Kalker's Funeral Home had charge of funeral arrangements.

Mrs. David Laing Is Buried In Ottawa

Regret was expressed when word was received of the death of Mrs. David Laing, Second Ave. Suffering ill health for almost four years, Mrs. Laing passed away suddenly Sunday evening at the age of 68 years.

Mr. Laing is a holstman at the Hollinger Gold Mines.

Born in the United States, Mrs. Laing's maiden name was Katherine Humphrey. She was a member of St. Matthew's Anglican Church.

Surviving besides her husband is one son Stanley of Ottawa, who with his wife and two children were visiting the Laing home at the time of the death. A brother, E. J. Humphrey also survives.

Two Youngsters Caught Stealing By Home-Owner

Caught in the act of stealing, when the owner of a home returned, two young boys, 13 and 9 years of age, were taken by Timmins police at about 10 o'clock on Tuesday night.

Police state the boys were in a home on Lincoln Ave., when the home owner returned to surprise them.

Glasses, Wallet Included In Lost And Found Dept.

Two articles were added to the Timmins Police lost and found department over the weekend and their owners can have same by applying to the police station. Turned in on July 13 were a pair of glasses with thick lenses, and a black leather billfold.

Both articles were found at the Gillies Lake Beach.
