Land Is Going To Waste, Selective Immigration Needed, Kiwanians Told

District Lieutenant Governor Makes Stirring Appeal For Post-War Activity

Monday's luncheon of the Timmins Kiwanis club was an especially interesting and inspiring event. It was the occasion of the visit to the Club of the Kiwanis District Lieut.-Governor also of the formal induction of three new members into the club. The address of the Lieutenant-Governor was a very timely one, and his stirring words were loudly applauded by the members.

The formal induction of the three new members — Kiwanians Art Moran, Nick Basiano and Larry Marriott — was impressively conducted by the Lieutenant-Governor. Their Kiwanis buttons were pinned on the new members by their sponsors — Kiwanians J. E. Sullivan, W. H. Wilson and F. A. Woodbury.

Lieut.-Governor Victor Haft also presented the Kiwanians International certificates to Past President Frank Bailey for his faithful work and leadership as president of the Timmins club in 1946.

Kiwanian Frank McDowell called for volunteer motorists to bring back to town the 45 or 50 girls at the Kiwanis Camp. The cars would have to be used between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., on Wednesday. The necessary volunteers gave their names in short order.

President Geo. N. Ross announced that the Lieutenant-Governor would be at the South Porcupine club on his official visit there that evening, and that as many as possible of the Timmins club should attend. At eight o'clock there would be a meeting of the executives of the two clubs at the Buffalo Ankerite Lodge to confer with the Lieutenant-Governor.

Community singing was led by Kiwanian E. H. King, with Jack Reid at the piano.

Visitors for the day, introduced by Kiwanian F. A. Woodbury, were: Reeve V. H. Evans, president of the South Porcupine Kiwanis; Geo. Hayes, Moose Jaw, Sask.; W. Herb. Langdon, Timmins; and Vincent Woodbury, San Antonio, Texas.

Past Lieut.-Governor W. O. Langdon introduced the guest speaker for the day, Lieut.-Governor Victor Haft.

The Lieutenant-Governor chose as the title of his address, "The Post-War Challenge to Kiwanis." He praised the great work accomplished by the Kiwanis during the strenuous days of the war. In these days of peace, there might be a natural tendency to relax, but he pointed out that there never was a time when there was greater or more urgent need for service than at the present time. While all must hope that permanent peace had come to the world, there were pressing problems before the nations and every effort must be bent to make this world a better place for all.

One lesson taught by the war, the speaker said, was that man could not live alone. Neighbours were no longer those next door, nor in the next state, nor even the next continent. Soon, it would be a practical fact that there would be no place on earth more than forty hours from Timmins.

Lieut.-Governor Haft used incidents in the war to illustrate the fact that "combined operations" were necessary in this modern world.

"We must fight side by side with our allies," he said, adding the suggestion that there must be no discrimination of races or creed or color, but that all must work together for good as brothers.

The speaker referred to the many lines of service in which the Kiwanis must do their part. He mentioned child welfare, safety campaigns, public health agriculture, education in democracy, co-operation, cultivation of friendship between different classes and divisions and nations. "We must work for better schools, better teachers, better playgrounds," he urged, while another objective he favored was the assurance of medical care for all, whether they could pay for it direct or not.

In the matter of reconversion and rehabilitation, he pointed out that the field was almost limitless. There were so many problems in connection with the re-establishment of returned men that it needed the thought and help of all, individuals as well as clubs.

"Land in Canada is going to waste," he said, and he felt that effort should be made to have honest, industrious and worthy men from overseas lands come here to help in the use and development of Canada's great resources and opportunities. He did not favor indiscriminate immigration, but he believed that carefully selected new citizens would add to the benefit of Canada and the advantage of the world.

Concluding with a quotation from Ruskin on "building," the Lieutenant-Governor pointed out that the service of a Kiwanis club today was only limited by the club's abilities, energy, talent, and the spirit of getting to work in worthy causes.

Long and continued applause greeted the Lieutenant-Governor at the conclusion of his inspirational address. Past president Frank Bailey voiced the thanks and appreciation of the club for the stirring address.

Beer Room Hours Are Changed Again

After a short one day in force the revised beverage room hours, which called for one and a half hours less on the sale of beer, were changed for Timmins through the efforts of the Hotel Association of the District of Cochrane, to pacify the dispositions of the miners in Timmins.

The hours as now changed call for the opening of beverage rooms from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.; 3 p.m. to 6 p.m.; and 8 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. For Saturdays, the hours have been changed for opening at 11:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.

T. Tremblay of the Algoma Hotel, acting for the association here, was responsible for contacting Toronto yesterday and having the hours revised after a meeting of hotel owners in Timmins.

"We knew it would be no good to enforce those hours here," Mr. Tremblay stated, adding that the miners had taken the new rulings badly when they came off shift Tuesday afternoon and found the hotels closed.

Another hotel keeper stated "those rules were made for Southern Ontario and Northern Ontario was forgotten so we just thought we'd remind them we were still here."

And the miners? They are happy indeed.
