

Joel McCrea Coming In "The Virginian"

With Joel McCrea, Brian Donlevy, Sonny Tufts and Barbara Britton in the principal roles, and with Technicolor performing the magic which works with such special effectiveness on outdoor subjects, Owen Wister's memorable "Virginian" is seen in the best of its many screen presentations at the Cartier Monday and Tuesday.

Joel McCrea has the title role in the script prepared by those eminent screenwriters, Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett, and he plays it with a fine appreciation of the value of understatement. This is not an exceptional statement to be making about McCrea, whose Western heroes are perhaps the most credible of all, but there is an exceptional statement to be made about Sonny Tufts, who plays the hero's friend who goes wrong.

It is McCrea and Donlevy who stalk each other through the streets of the cow town at sundown, shooting it out finally in a remarkably well staged version of this familiar finale, and this is but one of three or four sequences wherein the picture achieves extraordinary tension.

It's a fine Western for the generation grown up since the property was last filmed, or for any other generation fond of the more substantial and authentic variety of Western melodrama.

Cartier Western Packs Wallop

In "Oregon Trail," which plays at the Cartier on Friday and Saturday, western fans will find that nothing can stop Sunset Carson when he sets out to establish law and order.

A bullet in the back, which might deter a frailer man, lays Sunset low for less than three minutes' running time. After that, he rounds up the renegades with his customary vim and vigor. There's plenty of pistol-packing action while he does it, too.

At the start of the story, Sunset posing as an outlaw, eliminates a robber who attempts to hold up a stagecoach. Later he takes on the job of sheriff of the town of Gunsight, exposes the crooks who plan to take over the town, and sends them where they belong to the territorial prison.

Completing the program is "Boogie Woogie," a musical parade in technicolor, and Episode No. 12 of "The Monster and the Ape."

"Doing What Comes Naturally" Is Tops

Insofar as their popularity with Timmins residents is concerned the present hit tunes are "Doing What Comes Naturally," "You're The Cause Of It All," from the Danny Kaye picture "Kid From Brooklyn," "One More Tomorrow" and "I'd Be Lost Without You."

But though the records can be got and sold, the dealers in music and musical supplies are experiencing a shortage of the necessary parts for musical instruments and the musical instruments themselves.

Henry Kelneck, owner of the Music Box, stated this week that the above mentioned articles were becoming more and more difficult to obtain and the demand was increasing.

Jos. Chapp Cleared On Dangerous Driving Charge

Joseph Chapp of 1 James Ave., Timmins, was dismissed on a charge of dangerous driving in police court here on Tuesday.

The charge was laid against Chapp following an accident on the evening of July 19 in which a six-year-old girl was slightly injured.

Acting Magistrate S. C. Platus stated that from the evidence presented there seemed very little Chapp could have done to avoid hitting the girl.

The little girl had run across an intersection opposite 131 Algonquin Blvd., in order to join her elder sister. About twelve children had been playing on the road when he approached, Mr. Chapp stated.

He sounded his horn and the children went to either side of the street and then the accident victim had started across the street, hesitated and gone on.

He had swerved instead of using his brakes, Chapp said, as he would have struck the other children.

One More Tomorrow Now At Palace

Smart dialogue and sophisticated comedy sound the keynote for "One More Tomorrow," Warner Bros.' sparkling new motion picture now playing at the Palace Theatre.

Co-starring five of Hollywood's top-notch stars, Ann Sheridan, Denis Morgan, Jane Wyman, Jack Carson and Alexis Smith — and featuring an important company of supporting players, the film depicts the struggles of a handful of talented young people whose business and romantic entanglements would doubtless discourage any generation other than today's.

Based on a play by Phillip Barry, "One More Tomorrow" has a lot of the original music and will provide a welcome evening's entertainment for those who like their films on the bright side.

Assault Charge Is Reduced; Fined $10

Paul Belisle of Timmins was assessed $10 and costs in police court here on Friday when a charge of assaulting Miss Florence Lafreniere was reduced to common assault as a result of the evidence in the case.

Miss Lafreniere testified that Belisle had attacked her twice during a wedding reception attempting to choke her both times and tearing the blouse of her dress to excess.

She could offer no other explanation for the action other than Belisle had lost a bottle of liquor which he had left in her room. Aside from the attack on her he had been fighting with one of his brothers and had also attacked her sister.

One of Belisle's brothers corroborated her story as did one of the complainant's sisters.

An elder brother, with whom Belisle had been fighting, stated Paul had not touched Miss Lafreniere or her sister but that he and Paul had fought and the guests had tried to stop them.

Belisle's sister told the same story stating that a missing bottle of liquor had been the cause of the reception concluding in a brotherly row.

Nine-Months' Hard Labor For Illegally Having Gold

John Fartais Sentenced; Charges Against Thomas Venette Withdrawn

Entering a plea of guilty to charges of illegal possession of gold ore, John Fartais of 163 1/2 Charles St., Timmins, was sentenced to nine months' hard labor in police court here on Tuesday by Acting Magistrate S. C. Platus.

Fartais was arrested at the McIntyre Mines at 12.30 a.m. on July 21 after he had come up from underground in an hour early accompanied by Thomas Venette of Schumacher.

Sgt. A. Brandy of the Provincial Police detachment in Timmins stated that at first Fartais, in whose lunch pail the ore was carried, had said Venette was in confidence as well, but later retracted this statement.

The ore, weighing 69.50 ounces, was carried in a sample bag wrapped in newspaper. Valued at $39.58 a pound, the estimated total value of the ore was set at $188.35.

Charges against Venette were withdrawn.

Bonded For Theft Of Three Coats

Orvel Doherty of South Porcupine, last week found guilty of the theft of three coats from the Riverside Pavilion, was placed on a bond of $200 to keep the peace for six months by acting Magistrate S. C. Platus in police court here on Tuesday.

Doherty was remanded for sentence last week pending the arrival of his record which showed he had run afoul of the law on two previous instances over eight years ago.

Alec Labelle of 11 Cedar St., North was assessed $100 and costs or three months as a result of a charge of illegal possession of liquor arising from a police raid on 11 Cedar St., North in the early hours of July 21.

Mr. Labelle's wife and two other women were dismissed on the charge, the case being settled out of court.

John Lucciantonio and Louis Roy of Timmins were assessed $15 and costs in police court on Tuesday on charges of speeding. A similar charge against Eddie Robert Richardson netted him a fine of $10 and costs.

Gino Campagnola of the Dome Mines was dismissed on a charge of careless driving which resulted from a traffic tie up at the Hollinger Park and Victor Ditulio of Timmins was fined $10 and costs on a similar charge.

Fifteen fines of $1 and costs were levied during the court session with five of these fines resulting from cyclists riding at night without the use of lights.

Six persons charged with drunkenness were assessed the usual $10 and costs.

Seek Claimant For Missing Wallet

Timmins police are at present seeking the solution to a miniature mystery involving a lady's wallet, and its owner, and a young girl who found the wallet on the Gillies Lake Beach between July 17 and 18.

The wallet contains over ten dollars and is of the zipper type of small purse.

No one has complained of the loss of the wallet to date but police request the person having lost the wallet to contact them immediately.

Solicitor: "I suppose your wife was very annoyed?"

Husband: "I can't say that she was annoyed. But she threw a clock, ten plates and a number of cups and saucers at me."

Solicitor: "What does she do when she's roused?"

Child Hurt On Road; Chief Warns Parents

Send Children To Play-Grounds, Is Advice Sports, Midway, Skating

Two-year-old Robert Duff of 16 Tidale Ave., was shaken up, but fortunately escaped injury, when struck by a car driven by Gladys Needham of the Dinit Mine at about 4 p.m. on Friday afternoon.

The car was going west on Pine St., South when the young boy ran out across the street and into the right front fender of the car.

The accident occurred opposite 217 Pine St., South. The driver of the car immediately took the lad to his home and phoned the police and Dr. E. Anderson. There were no visible cuts or bruises on the boy and witnesses stated that the car had not been travelling at a fast rate of speed.

No charges were laid by police.

In view of the number of accidents involving young children, Acting Police Chief Albert Lepic this week requested that parents exercise extra caution when sending children out to play.

As an added safety measure the police chief suggested that parents send their youngsters to any of the municipal play grounds where they would be able to play under the supervision of play ground supervisors.

Competition Is Keen For 18th Northern Ontario Golf Title

Three former Northern Ontario amateur champions, Bob Lee, of North Bay, Johnny Poupore, of Idylwyld, and Art Riley, of Sudbury, are expected to compete in the 18th staging of this event, to be held this year at the Idylwyld Golf and Country Club, Sudbury, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 1, 2, and 3.

Bob Lee, with victories to his credit in 1927, 1931, 1933, 1935 and 1938 — the only player to win the title five times — will be trying for his sixth crown.

Now that he has regained his health triumph. Poupore, the present titleholder, by virtue of his win at North Bay last year in the first revival of the classic after three years of cessation due to the war, will be striving for his fourth title and the chance to break the tie he now holds with Howard Teskey, of North Bay.

Teskey won this laurel in the first year of the championship, 1926, and then repeated in 1928 and 1929, the first time a player proved a winner twice in a row.

Poupore also had three crowns to his credit for he won twice in succession, 1936 and 1937, and then triumphed again in 1945. If Johnny could win again this year he would be the first player to win the title twice in a row on two occasions.

Riley's triumph came in 1940 but last year at North Bay he gave Poupore one of his toughest matches en route to the championship. Moreover, Riley is playing as well as ever these days as was recently shown in the Sudbury-Idylwyld inter-club matches against Ron Silver, the long hitting Idylwyld star.

Two former ex-umpires, Bob Tomlinson, of Sudbury, 1945 runner-up and 1932 titlist, and Bob Barringer, of Timmins, 1939 champion, will not be among the competitors as they have graduated to the paid ranks. Tomlinson is now professional at the Sudbury Golf Club and is tutor at the North Bay Golf Club. As far as is known Teskey and Cliff Olivier, of Iroquois Falls, the 1930 champion, have retired from active competition. Thus, the field in the 1946 Northern Ontario amateur classic will hold peculiar interest in relation to the success of this trio of former champions. What their fate will be only time will tell but it is safe to assume that they will be among the most formidable contenders in the battle of niblicks and putters.

KEEP THEM

A man went to a mental specialist. "What seems to be the trouble?" asked the doctor. The patient responded by vigorously brushing imaginary things off his arm, explaining: "See, I have dragons on my sleeve." The specialist, backing away, screamed: "Well, you don't have to brush them off on me!"

Sir Frederick Grant Banting - A Tribute. By W. E. Robinson.

An Achievement - and an Inspiration

MAY 16TH, 1921, he stood in a small, dingy room in the Medical Building of the University of Toronto, a self-appointed seeker, untitled, unpaid, but sustained by a conviction that he was on the track of a great discovery.

His name was Frederick Grant Banting, Canadian Surgeon, and he had sold his office furniture and instruments to provide funds for his living costs.

He believed he had the key to the dread riddle of diabetes, a disease that had baffled medical science since the dawn of history. Medical opinion was skeptical, but physiologists and biochemists added their efforts and soon the rumour was whispered in hospitals and stricken homes "Banting of Toronto has discovered a treatment for diabetes".

From all over the continent, haggard, doomed diabetics came to Toronto, hoping against hope, their very lives at stake in Banting's grim race to perfect Insulin in time.

The rest is history, as is the fact that Sir Frederick Grant Banting died as he had lived — in the service of his country and of humanity. Today, 25 years after his discovery, his work has saved uncounted thousands of lives, and the story of his achievements has become a glowing example and an inspiration to all Canadians . . . giving us an assurance of an ever-increasing measure of health and prosperity in the Canada Unlimited of the future.
