A week from Sunday is the date for the Ca-Bo-Gi Club Mass Rally to be held in Swansea, near Kirkland Lake. At their meeting on Tuesday night the club members made further plans for their trip down and it is expected that there will be about three bus loads attending.

The members have been busily training for the rally which will include members of the Ca-Bo-Gi in the North, and during the afternoon boys and girls will participate in games, races, softball and other field day events. Appropriate prizes go to the winners, and a cup to the winning ball team.

Bright Pink Fur Coat

BY PRUNELLA WOOD

MARY'S famous little lamb is an ordinary, woolly white creature to have got so much publicity. You should see the new sheared and extra-supple lambs wools of 1946, called bonmouton, to appreciate the difference. They are dyed as gently as Easter eggs, or seed catalogues, and offer a bright, new accent to the casual wardrobe. (Warm as well as bright.) The coat which Dana wears with smart black slacks and pullover, above, is dyed a giddy hunting pink, and it has real fashion value.

DOUBLE WEDDING WEDNESDAY MORNING

Notre Dame de Lourdes Church was the scene of a pretty double wedding yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, when Yvette Marie Lavoie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lavoie, became the bride of Ivan Stark, of Hespeler, and Yolande Duclauve, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Duclauve, became the bride of Alme Lavoie, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lavoie. Rev. Father Perron officiated against a background of summer flowers, and appropriate wedding music was played by Mrs. Piche.

Yvette, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown fashioned with satin bodice and net skirt. Her finger-tip veil was held by a crown headdress, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Yolande was given in marriage by her brother Alexander, and she wore a gown of white net, and her long net veil fell from a heart-shaped headdress.

Ushers were Hector Magnan and Daniel Lemery.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner and supper were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lavoie, Windsor Ave., and later a reception was held at the Hollinger Hall, with Mrs. Lavoie receiving in a black dress with corsage of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Stark will take up residence in Hespeler, while Mr. and Mrs. Lavoie will reside on Maine Ave.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. S. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Leroux, and Mr. Proulx, all of Limoges.

WHO... IS CANADA'S No. 1 CITIZEN?

IT IS YOU... OR SHOULD BE.

If you are a No. 1 citizen, you will be doing your share to ward off the menace of inflation facing Canada today.

How? . . . By conservation in your personal finances . . . Here are five ways you can fight inflation:

- Hold on to your Victory Bonds
- Buy only those goods which are in fair supply and save your money for the day when goods now in short supply will be readily available
- Avoid black market purchases
- Keep up your insurance
- Build up your savings account

This is conservation—the first requisite for personal security—the first attribute of good citizenship. If we all help in all five ways, the threat of inflation—rampant in some other countries and now menacing us—can be beaten and stamped out.

Let us all be No. 1 citizens. Remember, if you are a No. 1 citizen, you will look after No. 1 . . . Save for yourself and you save for Canada.

* Inflation, to the citizen, means simply less and less value for his dollar . . . his living costs soar as free and careless spending drives up the price of goods still in short supply. Inflation is no respecter of persons . . . like the rain, its evil falls on the just and the unjust alike. Thus, Canada's fight against the menace of inflation is your fight . . . the fight of each of our citizens —12,000,000 strong.
