COVER GIRL

Chosen by Filippo de Giudice, British film producer, for junior fashion councillors across Canada, tall brunette, 16-year-old Joy Hardy, of Toronto, Ont., is taking her fame in her youthful stride. She hopes some day to be a model, but this year back-to-school comes first.

LOOKING FORWARD—This olive green short evening dress is draped in the soft lines that will show up this autumn. Betty Bennett, of NBC's "Reveille Roundup," wears it and holds out the double strands of material that form a sort of necklace on the surplice front. The sleeves have deep armholes. Contrasting to the olive green of the dress are the flesh pink flowers in her hair. The dress is designed by Adrian.

News From SOUTH PORCUPINE

Newly Ordained Minister Visits

Rev. Father Matthew T. Mulcahy, who was recently ordained in St. Basil's Church, Toronto, was a visitor in South Porcupine over the week-end.

He was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Rapsey of Main St., and assisted Rev. Father LaSalle at celebration of High Mass on Sunday morning. While in town he visited several of his old friends.

He was accompanied by two of his sisters, Misses Susan and Jacqueline Mulcahy, and left on Monday for the parental home in Orillia.

Penelope Luxton Is Guest of Honor

Miss Penelope Luxton, who becomes a bride on Sept. 18 in South Porcupine United Church, was guest of honor on Friday night at the home of Mrs. Haggerty at the Pamour Mine.

The hostess at the party was Miss Anne Belbec and a number of girl friends presented the guest with lovely gifts for her future home.

They were daintily wrapped, and prettily arranged in a decorated basket, and the bride-to-be was delighted to receive them and suitably thanked the donors.

Court whist was the entertainment provided, prizes being won by Miss Pat. Uren and Miss Rita Costello.

The hostess served a delightful lunch.

Those present included Miss V. Dillon, Miss P. Uren, Miss Beulah Rayner, Mrs. K. Scott, Mrs. A. Haggerty, Mrs. H. Smith, Miss Rita Costello, Miss Betty Cumming, Mrs. M. Londry, Mrs. A. Bell, Miss Luxton and Miss Belbec. Unable to attend but sending gifts were Miss Joyce Wilson and Miss V. Morley.

Dr. Joseph Stern To Go To England
