Kohtala-Disher Wedding Solemnized In St. Paul's Anglican Church

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Friday afternoon at four o'clock in St. Paul's Anglican Church by Rev. John Ford, when Ellen Beatrice, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamar Disher of South Porcupine, became the bride of Henry William Kohtala, son of Mrs. E. Kohtala and the late Mr. Kohtala of Pottsville.

The church was beautified with baskets of pink and white asters and gladioli, and Mr. Walter Honer played wedding music before and after the ceremony. Mrs. A. E. Stanlake gave two beautiful solos, "The Garden of My Heart", before the service, and "Because" during the signing of the register.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very sweet in a long bridal gown of fine white lace over taffeta, with a long veil of embroidered net. The dress had a sweetheart neckline, a very full skirt with short peplum and long sleeves which came to a point over the bride's hands; her long veil was caught to the head with a halo of lace. Her cascade bouquet was of American beauty roses and fern.

She was attended by her sister Irene (Mrs. Sam Roach) as matron of honor, who was attired in a lovely gown of mauve colored saconne crepe, cut long and full with a corded peplum giving a hoop-skirt effect. She wore a tiny calot of the same material and long maize-colored gloves and carried a bouquet of tallisman roses.

The bride's sister Evelyn (Mrs. Kayo Iola) was the second attendant, and wore a long gown of turquoise taffeta, line and cap sleeves, a calot of turquoise and a bouquet of yellow roses.

Little Marietta Kohtala, sister of the groom, made a charming picture as junior bridesmaid. She wore a long white frock trimmed with white and pink roses, and a band of pink and white flowers on her hair. She carried a Victorian nosegay of Pincocchio roses.

Mr. Ed Harjula acted as best-man.

A wedding dinner was later served to the intimate friends and relatives at the home of Mrs. Sam Roach.

Later on the party held a festive social and reception at the Legion Hall, which was attended by a very large number of friends of both parties.

Receiving at the hall were the bridegroom's mother, who wore a powder blue ensemble with black accessories and corsage of roses, and Mrs. B. Anthony, the bride's mother, who wore black with white accessories and rose corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Kohtala later left by car for a honeymoon in Southern Ontario, and on their return will reside in Pottsville.

Best of luck and all good wishes for future happiness are extended by their numerous friends.

THROUGH THE YEARS

TEN YEARS AGO

Settlers Appeal to Town Regarding Roads. -- "Annexation Asked For by Farmers of Mountjoy." -- these were the headlines in The Advance, ten years ago. Farmers in Mountjoy had become so discouraged in trying to get the government to do a little work on the roads, that they wanted to become a part of Timmins, George Vartnikuk told the town council.

Samuel J. Morgan was the chief speaker for the C.C.F. unit. Their aims were being misrepresented in the press, he said.

Council thought they should have word direct from the Red Cross Society. "Is the C.C.F. a charitable organization?" it was asked. Permission was given to hold a tag day for the Red Cross, by the C.C.F.

Humane Society Started

With 25 interested Timmins folk present at the organization meeting in the town hall, the Timmins and District Humane Society got off to an enthusiastic start.
