ARBUTUS CHAPTER HOLDS TEA AND SALE

The ladies of Arbutus Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, held a very successful tea and sale of work in the Masonic Hall on Saturday.

Mrs. Nora Nixon, Worthy Matron of the Chapter extended a cordial welcome to the guests on their arrival.

The novelty table which was in charge of Mrs. Lena Paterson, Mrs. Dorothy Bennett and Mrs. Celia Easton was invitingly arrayed with a large quantity of sewn and knitted goods. Gaily printed cotton giraffes sat perkily among lovely linen handkerchiefs which folded into paper dollies to look like old English posies. Covered coat hangers, embroidered towels, crocheted necklaces and bracelets, cosy woolen booties, handy clothes pin bags, linen tea towels and a host of attractive articles were on display but were soon purchased by eager buyers who had an eye on the calendar.

Mrs. Colin Sellar and Mrs. J. Goodman were in charge of the bake table but their wares changed hands so quickly that there was no chance to display the delicious cakes and cookies which had been donated.

Presiding at the apron booth were Mrs. T. Coulson, Mrs. W. Jardine and Mrs. S. Wheeler. Here was a gay assortment of aprons in all sizes, shapes and colours. Little girls' dresses in pretty patterned prints and brightly figured sun suits were also on sale and found many eager buyers.

The small tea tables were attractively covered with white linen cloths and the ladies served jellied fruit salads on lettuce leaves, with tempting fresh tea biscuits and there were small plates of mixed cookies and of course a goodly supply of piping hot tea.

Mrs. Service was convener of the luncheon and her capable assistants were Mrs. J. Whaley, Mrs. Rega Borland, Mrs. D. Maxwell, Mrs. M. McCulloch, Mrs. J. Hunt, Mrs. H. Lake, and Mrs. Wm. Stanley.

Judging by the broad smiles of satisfaction on the faces of the various conveners when they counted the cash on hand at the close of the afternoon affair their time and efforts had been well awarded financially.

IMPORTANT PEOPLE

A young woman was extremely vain of the honors conferred upon two distant male relatives. She talked on the subject to all and sundry: "I have two relatives in the House of Lords. Have you any?"

"No," replied one of her acquaintances, "but I have three maiden aunts in the Kingdom of Heaven."

CAMPBELL-GROOM NUPTIALS AT ST. MATTHEW'S

The wedding of a well-known Timmins couple, Anne Catherine Simone Groom and Archie Keith Campbell, B. Sc., was solemnized yesterday by Rev. A. R. Chidwick at St. Matthews Anglican Church at two o'clock. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Groom, 18 Patricia Blvd., and the groom is the son of Brigadier and Mrs. Colin A. Campbell of Woodbridge.

Golden 'mums decorated the altar and white 'mums and fern set in crystal provided a charming background for the ceremony, throughout which soft organ music was played by Miss Lois Skelly.

Given in marriage by her father, the golden-haired bride was radiant in a white satin gown featuring a basque bodice, full, flowing skirt, sweetheart neckline and shirred, short sleeves. Her long gloves and slippers were of white kid. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and fern with a centre of white gardenias. The bride's fingertip veil was held by a wreath of calla lilies and orange blossoms woven together by silver leaves. The bride wore the groom's gift of a lovely strand of pearls.

The maid of honor, Miss Dorothy Wilson, was attired in a flowing gown of ice pink jersey, with sweetheart neckline and cap sleeves. Her head-dress of ostrich feathers and gloves were of matching color. She carried a bouquet of bronze 'mums.

The Misses Lois Phillips and Marguerita Groom, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaids, wearing teal-blue taffeta gowns with frilled pelpums, sweetheart necklines, and cap sleeves. Ostrich feather headresses and matching gloves completed their ensembles. They both carried bouquets of bronze 'mums.

Miss Helen Groom, sister of the bride, looked very sweet in a blue-teal gown similar to those of the bridesmaids and carried white 'mums, which matched her headress.

Mr. Mervin Pritchard acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Mervin Ralph and Mr. Alfred Groom, brother of the bride.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the McIntyre Lounge, with about 125 guests attending. Mrs. Alfred Groom, the bride's mother, charmingly attired in an aqua jersey dress with black accessories and orchid corsage received the guests, along with the mother of the groom, Mrs. Colin A. Campbell, who chose a stunning dress of gray crepe with mauve accessories and matching orchid corsage. The wedding dinner was served in a backdrop of white 'mums.

Pouring tea was Mrs. William Teilver, while Mrs. Anton Anderson poured coffee. Throughout the reception Mr. Raymond Teilver played appropriate piano selections. Mrs. Alfred Groom, the mother of the bride, sang a favourite of her daughter, "Always" and "Little Gray Home in the West". During the dinner Mr. Wilson Lang proposed a toast to the bride and groom.

The young couple left by train, accompanied by the groom's parents and his younger brother, Donald Campbell. Their honeymoon will be spent in Toronto and Montreal. On their return they will reside at 3 Murdoch Ave.

For travelling the bride was charmingly dressed in a soft gray suit, topped by a gray Bombay Lamb coat, with black accessories and a corsage of white gardenias.

Gifts to the maid of honor bridesmaids and flower girl were flowered china broaches, and to the best man and ushers were cigarette cases.

Prior to her wedding, the bride was entertained by Miss Lois Phillips with a miscellaneous shower.

Out-of-town guests included the groom's parents, Brigadier and Mrs. Colin A. Campbell and son Donald Campbell, Woodbridge, Mrs. George Groom, Kirkland Lake, and Mrs. Mary Ringler, the groom's aunt of Larder Lake.

MR. BOYCE TALKS TO CENTRAL H. & S.

The first meeting of the Central Home and School Association was held at the Central School, Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. with Mrs. S. B. Hansuld, President, in the chair. After a few brief remarks by the President, Henry Kelneck with Ron Jones at the piano led the gathering in a lively sing-song; after which the new business of the Association was attended to.

We then had a very lovely vocal solo "My Dream" by Ron Jones who was in fine voice for the occasion. Fred Southam then gave a few brief remarks on the School Fair and ways in which it might be improved. We were then favoured by Henry Kelneck with a trumpet solo "The Last Chord" by Sullivan.

Mr. H. Eastman, Principal of the Central Public School, introduced the speaker for the evening, Mr. Percy Boyce, Principal of the Schumacher Public School, who spoke on citizenship and the Home and School.

Those who were privileged to hear Mr. Boyce speak were given plenty of food for thoughts on the way in which we should teach a child to be a good citizen. Obeying the laws of one's country is not enough for "as we sow, so shall we reap" said Mr. Boyce, and the children are good imitations. Do not put too much stress on the academic part of their training, but a bit more on the social side of their training because if we train them to become good citizens, they will naturally be good students.

The meeting was closed with the singing of The King; after which refreshments were served.

Canada's Forests will help rebuild the world

IN 1871 when Confederation Life Association was founded, lumbering was in its infancy, though some lumber even then was exported. It was carried in "windjammers"; few people in those days dreamed that their grandchildren would see the output of Canada's forests and lumber mills relied upon to help repair the devastation of two world wars.

But now—the peoples of Britain and Europe are relying upon Canada's lumber industry to help rebuild devastated homes, factories, stores and warehouses. And Canada's lumber industry won't fail them. The resources of the New World are going to relieve the distress of the Old.

In this, its Seventy-Fifth Anniversary Year, Confederation Life happily recalls its long association with men in Canada's lumber industry. For many years it has provided a complete Group Insurance Service for thousands of people engaged in the industry.
