

hectic days, marbles was the game. Well, Art claims he was Champion of Cornwall in those days, he also claimed he tossed a Bool two hundred yards, and that tossing, but Bill, he goes one better, he beat him by 50 yards, to crown the argument, young Teddy, claims, in a rousing game his opponent tossed a Bool and broke his ankle in three places. I wonder what our present day school boy would think of that, I have a good idea, and that is, its shooting the Bool alright. (Ball to you) Bool is Scotch for Marble if you didn't know.

The special meeting of the Porcupine Veterans Hall Ltd. was well attended on Thursday evening, Oct. 17th. The plans for the new hall were discussed and comrade Gordon Brown showed and explained them in detail. They were accepted by the members so the green light was given to go ahead.

Comrade Mrs. W. Doran occupied the chair, and Comrade Williamson congratulated her on the able way in which she conducted the meeting. Now that the Branch has approved of the plans, it is left to the executive to get the specifications and tenders if required, and get the ball rolling for an early start next spring.

The Legion opened their Bingo games last Wednesday evening and had a fair start. They will hold them every second Wednesday, the next being Oct. 30 so get around and give them all your support, it is for a good cause, the Legion Memorial Hall. Those members wishing to give assistance give their names to W. Greaves or G. Carswell at the Legion Hall.

I overheard quite a novel argument the other day. The members concerned were away back in their school days, when they played marbles. In those new comer has come on the scene now, Whit Mason is now well ahead for the championship, but as far I hear Nick should be tying for that position, as he conceded two games, rather than finish them, we suppose that he doesn't wish to take it away from Will.

Some would like to know who that member was who listened to the hockey game on Saturday night in comfort and really enjoyed the game, but the round table gang didn't, they don't like music, let alone hockey.

White Cross still lead in the Dart league with the two Legion teams tying for second place, Kay-Bee's and Legion, one point behind the White Cross and four teams in line for third place, so it is anybody's game yet. The Legion and White Cross meet in Friday's games, so what ever happens there will tell a tale.

Don't forget the general meeting next Wednesday, Oct. 30. All members have been notified by letter. Those who haven't received that letter will know the Secretary hasn't had his proper address. Many have been returned, so rectify it as soon as you can.

To our sick members in Hospital and at home, we send our usual weekly greetings for a speedy recovery back to health.

And to our friends and comrades still serving overseas we send our best wishes.

Volunteers are wanted to act as guards, 15 from Branch 88 and 15 from Southend Branch, for the Re-Union Dance at the McIntyre, those who wish to volunteer hand in their names to the Sergeant at Arms, George Nippers, or at the Hall.

We are glad to see Comrade Prec

Somers back on his legs again even although he has two wooden ones to help him along.

Use your Legion Club when you can, smoke Legion Cigarettes when you can, it all helps.

Till next week; J. Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scullion, Gerrard St. E. Toronto, former residents of Schumacher, entertained last week at a nicely arranged party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. Brough, First Ave., Schumacher, who spent a few days visiting them in Toronto.

Mrs. Brough is a war bride from Dundee, Scotland, and at the party met several guests from her own home town.

Most of the guests were former residents of Schumacher, so there was a grand reunion and talks of old times in Schumacher. The evening was a real Scotch night, all the lovely old Scotch songs were sung and the Scotch reels were danced.

During the evening a delicious supper was served.

The following old timers attended:

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brough, Mr. and Mrs. Scullion, and Mr. and Mrs. John Scullion.
 Hugh Gaw, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gawn.
 Mr. and Mrs. James McInnis, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Bill Davis, Mr. Johnny

Cow juice costs three cents more, but the bull is still free—and plentiful.
