

MRS. P. LARMER IS SHOWER HOSTESS

A most charmingly arranged miscellaneous shower was held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. P. Larmer, 58 Cherry St., in honor of Mrs. G. Crawley, a recent bride.

The evening was spent in a happy social get-together — music and bingo providing the entertainment.

During the evening a basket, attractively decorated in green and gold and filled with a host of practical and lovely gifts, was presented to the guest of honor.

Prize winners for bingo were: Mrs. D. Reynolds, Mrs. L. Watters, Mrs. T. Villemare, Miss K. O'Gorman, Miss Lois McAllinden, Mrs. E. O'Gorman, Mrs. B. McCoy, Miss Margaret Singleton, Miss Joan Clarke, Miss A. Douteite, and Mrs. J. Burgoyne. Other guests were: Mrs. J. Malloy, Mrs. D. Fox, Miss Carmel Fox, Mrs. M. Quinn, Miss G. Cuddihay, Mrs. G. Carr, Mrs. C. Gummings, Miss G. Lechart.

Unable to attend but sending appropriate gifts were: Mrs. C. Robertson, Misses Mary McLean, M. Isaac, N. O'Connor, Jean Sweeney, Agnes Evans, K. O'Brien, Rita Prest.

During the evening the hostess served a most delicious lunch and was assisted by Mrs. Malloy, Mrs. O'Gorman and Mrs. Villemare.

W.I. ENTERTAINS AT TEA & BAKE SALE

The gold Star Branch of the Women's Institute held a Tea and Bake Sale in the Hollinger Hall Wednesday afternoon. A good turn-out was received and Mrs. Mary McIntosh and Mrs. W. H. Doughty report the afternoon a financial success.

Conveners of the various tables were: Bake table, Mrs. M. Veinotte and Mrs. O. McCann; Touch and Take table, Mrs. J. McClesney; Fancy-work table, Mrs. A. McCharles and Mrs. T. A. Marriott. Serving on the tea tables were: Mrs. N. Young; Mrs. C. Surman; Mrs. J. Holson, Miss A. McCharles; Mrs. J. Kinsey; Mrs. W. Crispin; Mrs. G. Sanderson and Mrs. B. McClesney. Mrs. D. Ellis, Mrs. C. DeLong and Mrs. A. Welln assisted Mrs. G. Ross in the kitchen.

Mrs. C. Surman rendered a number of beautiful vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. C. Wilkins, who also entertained the ladies with piano solos.

Mrs. C. Briggs, president of the Women's Institute, received the ladies at the door and was assisted by Mrs. W. H. Johnson, past-president. These ladies have asked that anyone competing in the art contest previously announced have their entries in at T. A. Marriott's, 18 Pine St. South by Monday, Nov. 4 at 6 p.m.

JOE RETZEL ELECTED CABOGI PRESIDENT

Sunday evening at 8:30 p.m. the Timmins Cabogi Club held their annual elections in the Municipal Building in the court room. The meeting was very well attended, with only five of the 91 members absent.

The retiring president, Pat Larmer, Jr., opened the meeting with Jean Sweeney, secretary, recording minutes. After a short business meeting Mr. Larmer turned the chair over to the spiritual leader, Rev. Father Callaghan, who ran the elections. Scrutineers appointed were Joe Lucciantonio and Pat Larmer.

The nomination slate included: president, Pat Connelly and Joe Retzel; Vice-President, Al Callaghan and Mervyn Villemare; Secretary, Rita Prest and Jean Sweeney; Treasurer, Jean Sweet, Evelyn Anderchek and Charlotte Richards; and recording secretary, Agnes Evans and Armendina Romauldi.

Those finally elected for office were: president, Joe Retzel; vice-president, Mervyn Villemare (pro tem); secretary, Rita Prest (pro tem); treasurer, Jean Sweet; and recording secretary, Agnes Evans. Father Callaghan swore in the new officers and turned the chair over to the new president, Joe Retzel. Mr. Retzel thanked the members on behalf of the newly elected executive for their support, and promised them an active club year.

A Halloween Masquerade was announced for Tuesday evening to be held in the McIntyre Community Building.

Club and Church Activities

AAL PASSI HEADS NORTHERN LIGHTS

The Northern Lights Club held their annual elections in the club room, the Harmony Hall, Monday evening. Aale Passi presiding at the meeting.

During the business period the members were informed that their president, Aale Passi, had been elected as vice-president of the Timmins Junior Youth Welfare Council at the recent elections in the Municipal Building. It was announced also that the Northern Lights Club had been awarded the highest number of points achieved in Youth Welfare Council Trophy for the recent Track and Field Meet held in the Hollinger Park. Mr. Ken Wagner was presented with the trophy.

Plans for the Christmas season were made, with the holding of two concerts discussed, one in English and one in Finnish. Tentative dates set are December 14th and 15th. Numbers suggested for the concerts were: Finnish play, musical solos, folk dances, vocal quartet, gymnastics, comedy skit, novelty musical numbers by the club orchestra and recitations.

Elections for the coming year were held, with the following finally being elected: president, Aale Passi; vice-president, Ken Wagner; secretary, Hilja Ryhanen; Treasurer, Saara Rauha. Following the business meeting a social evening was held, with dancing and refreshments were served. Winners of the spot dance were Anne Jamieson and Matti Luhtanen; of the elimination dance were Helvi Lehto and Henry Joki, and of the novelty dance Jytte Hansen and Don Collins.

Members present were: The Misses Lois Eckford, Jytte Hansen, Laila Kojonen, Anne Jamieson, Helvi Lehto, Jeannine Morin, Maire Harjunpaa, Elvi Lamsa, Alde Niinimaki, Hilkka Saarinen, Helen Korri, Hilja Ryhanen, Saara Rauha and Maritta Forsberg. LIONS HOLD FATHER AND SON BANQUET

Ninety-five Lions and their guests made the "Father and Son" banquet a huge success on Monday evening and certainly gave a real boost to the attendance.

Among the out-of-town guests were Lion Fred Davidson, Schumacher; Lion Barney Hings, Kirkland Lake; and Ed. Lacey of Timmins.

Featured on the program of the evening was a violin solo by Sam Trolone accompanied by Earl Simard. Outstanding personality of the affair was pretty Susan Chenier, who accompanied her father, Gil Chenier who, incidentally is proud as punch these days, still handing out cigars — Susan's young brother was born on Sunday.

The guest speaker of the evening was Lion Gilmour Smith, who gave a very interesting talk on an early Canadian artist and his travels across Canada, painting and sketching the life of Canadian Indians.

Y'S MEN HEAR OF WORK IN SUBURBY

The Timmins Y's Men's Club held their regular weekly meeting in the Grand Hotel dining room Monday evening. President Earl Hawkins presided at the meeting.

The induction ceremony of the International Y's Men's Club was held and the following new members were formally initiated into the club: Don Moore, Gordon Moon, Frank Sullivan, Mac Doner, Graham Dunlop, and Eugene Merikieho.

Guests for the meeting were Mr. Cochrane Cunningham and Mr. Jack Hamilton.

Plans were drawn up for a Ladies Night to be held Monday, Nov. 4.

Mr. Hawkins informed the meeting that he had had the privilege of inspecting the Y. M. C. A. building in Sudbury recently, which was built through the efforts of the Sudbury Y's Men's Club. He reported that the building was definitely a hive of activity, with several youth clubs holding meetings, swimming being enjoyed in the "Y" Pool, and dozens of other youths enjoying the facilities of the gymnasium in the building.

MRS. GORDON CONANT IS GUIDERS' GUEST

"Sunday, wound up a very active Girl Guide weekend. Beginning Oct. 25 the Porcupine Camp was scene of the Girl Guide Conference. Special training sessions were conducted during the three days for Brownies, Guides, Leaders, Local Associations and Commissioners.

Captain Bailey, district captain for the Porcupine, welcomed the visitors on Thursday evening at her home on 112 Maple St. South.

Those present for the Conference included Guiders from Toronto, Troquois Falls, Smooth Rock, Kirkland Lake, Virginia Town, and Kapuskasing. A dinner was held in honor of Mrs. Gordon Conant, Provincial Commissioner, in the lounge of the McIntyre Saturday. Mrs. Conant gave a very interesting talk of her trip, by airplane to the continent. She spoke of her visit with Lady Baden-Powell in England, of Camp at Gilwell and Foxlease.

In Switzerland Mrs. Conant attended a special training course at the Chalet, here she met delegates from 23 countries. She also visited the Peace Camp, and later the World Conference for Guiders at Avignon in France. In all she said, Mrs. Conant stressed how very thankful we should be here in Canada, with food to eat and clothes to wear. She had seen so much misery and sorrow.

Those present at the dinner included: Mrs. Conant, guest of honor, Mrs. Malloy, Miss Taylor, Mrs. Curleau, Mrs. G. Brown, Mrs. Durham, Mrs. Stark, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Cutler, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Langdon, Mrs. Quinn, Miss Bailey, Miss McDonald, Mrs. Drummond, Mrs. R. McRoberts, Miss Wilson, Mrs. J. Richard, Miss Lochance, Miss T. Roy, Miss Desjardins, Miss G. Gledhill, Mrs.

COLLEAGUES HONOR CLARA LINDROSS

The staff and agents of the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada held a banquet in the Grand Hotel dining room recently in honor of Mrs. Mauno Niemi, who was the former Clara Lindross. Elsewhere in this issue are the details of the wedding, which took place on Tuesday at the McKay Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Niemi has been an employee of the Mutual Life branch office staff for the past four years.

A special guest for the occasion was Mr. J. D. Brunke of the head office staff at Waterloo, Ont., who was visiting the Timmins office on business. Mr. Brunke gave a short address on the policy of the company and mentioned that several agencies outside of Canada have expressed the desire to represent the company, but that the officials prefer to keep the business confined to the Canadian people. He said the moral stability and general character of Canadians make them the ideal type of people, the type any company would like to underwrite.

Mr. Brunke congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Niemi, saying that he was sure he could well speak for everyone present in wishing them the best of luck in their new venture.

Mr. Ellet Smith, manager of the Timmins branch office, extended his hearty congratulations to Mrs. Niemi, saying that she would be missed not only for her pleasant disposition, but for the artistic work she had contributed to the bulletins. Mr. Martin McHugh was master of ceremonies for the evening.

Mr. Don Moore, branch cashier, made the group gift presentation of a sterling carving set and extended his congratulations on behalf of the office staff. He mentioned that the company's loss would not be complete in losing the former Miss Lindross, as Mr. Niemi has taken out an agent's license with the company. Mr. Niemi is situated in the Cochrane district.

Miss Barbara May and Mr. Don Moore led a sing-song. Mr. Ron Jones entertained the gathering with several beautiful vocal renditions. Miss Anne Ostrosky danced Brahms's Hungarian Dance No. 5 and Jealousy Tango. She wore a very colorful Ukrainian costume, decorated with sparkling sequins.

Those attending were the guest of honor Mrs. Mauno Niemi, Mauno Niemi, Jack Brunke, Mr. and Mrs. Martin McHugh, Don Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Beauchamp, Barbara May, Isabel Piche, Doris Smith, Hilkka Diteh, Bernice Kosobuski, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. "Bang" Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Fern Beauchamp, Anne Ostrosky, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wrenshall, Mr. and Mrs. Ellet Smith and Ron Jones.

Allan, Mrs. McCann, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Dougherty, Mrs. Cooper, Miss Langman, Mrs. Hindson, Mrs. Morgan, Miss Morris, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Crosby, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Besette, Mrs. Dye, Mrs. Johns, Mrs. Sharp, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Curnow, Mrs. Kinkel, Mrs. Knox, Mrs. Renner, Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. M. Richardson, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Culhane, Miss P. Gedge, Miss C. Clatworthy, Miss D. Read, Mrs. D. Blair, Mrs. Mackie, Mrs. Monkman, Miss N. Spinks, Miss J. Roy, Miss E. Hansen, Miss D. Bryan, Miss Kay Lawrence, Miss C. Guenette, Miss D. Pleece, and many others. Miss Clatworthy thanked Mrs. Conant for coming to visit the north on behalf of the many present.
