Mrs. John Ford Is Honored At Tea

Mrs. John Ford, wife of the rector of St. Paul's Anglican Church, was guest of honor on Tuesday afternoon at a tea given by the ladies of the Sewing Circle of the church.

During the afternoon Mrs. Ford was presented with a lovely plastic bag as a parting gift, Mrs. W. Blakeman, president of the Sewing Circle, making the presentation.

Mrs. Blakeman spoke of the regret felt by the circle at the impending departure of Mrs. Ford to Cochrane in the near future, and the affection which Mrs. Ford's gentle and helpful nature had aroused among the ladies for her. She finished by wishing her all the success and happiness possible in her future life.

Mrs. Ford replied feelingly to the address and thanked the ladies for their good wishes.

A very delightful lunch was served, Mrs. Lily Robinson pouring tea.

Those present included Mrs. W. Blakeman, Mrs. Stanley Jay, Mrs. Lily Robinson, Mrs. J. McDonnell, Mrs. A. Nitche, Mrs. B. Anthony, Mrs. E. Dupont, and Mrs. R. Connelly.

Jimmy Rushton Leaves For Markham

The Airport hotel was the scene of a wonderful farewell party on Friday night given to honor "Jimmy" (R. J.) Rushton who has been employed as a mechanic at the South End Garage for the last fifteen years.

Jimmy left on Sunday for Markham, Ont., where he plans to open a garage and service station.

Mr. Mike Cybulski and Mr. Ben Tomchick, owners of the South End Garage, presented the guest of honor with a silver tray in recognition of his services to the firm during the years of his employment with them.

Another gift, a pressure cooker, was presented to him by Rene Quesnel, a group gift from a number of his friends in town.

In making the presentation of the tray, Mr. Cybulski said that Mr. Rushton came to the garage as an apprentice mechanic, and had risen to be head mechanic prior to his departure.

Frank Rodyers entertained at the piano for dancing and singing, and Len Pacione sang "The Desert Song" and "One Alone."

A delicious buffet lunch was served and enjoyed by all.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Mike Cybulski, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tomchick, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Quesnel, Mr. and Mrs. Len Pacione, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hermant, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Pasich, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. D. Church Observes 34th Anniversary

A very delightful anniversary supper was held on Monday in the United Church by the W. A. in conjunction with the Evening Auxiliary which was well attended and enjoyed by over three hundred people. President of W. A. Mrs. Carl Carruthers is to be congratulated on the excellence of the menu and the wonderful co-operation of all her helpers.

Anniversary services (thirty fourth anniversary) were held on Sunday with special music rendered in the morning by the junior choir, and in the evening by the senior choir, with Mrs. A. E. Stanlake as soloist.

Rev. McLeod of Larder Lake officiated at both services and preached to a large congregation at both. Rev. McLeod is a veteran of both world wars, having served in the last as Chaplain in the R. C. A. F., and before this as a missionary in Asia.

Hospital Auxiliary Plans Tea, Nov. 7

The home of Mrs. Ralph Ellis on 32 Powell Ave. is to be the setting next Thursday, Nov. 7, of a fruit, vegetable and canned food shower for the benefit of the Porcupine General Hospital.

This will be sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the hospital, and is an annual affair.

Tea will be served from 2 to 5 p.m., and the ladies hope that as in the past the ladies of the town will be as generous as possible. Fruit, vegetables, fresh and canned, pickles, and all contributions of a like nature will be gratefully received.

Farewell Party For Kirby Coombes

On Tuesday evening a farewell party was staged at the Edgewater Beach Pavilion in Golden City for Kirby Coombes, former mill superintendent at the Hallnor Mine, who is leaving this month to be the mine manager at the Golden Arrow mine near Ramore.

The party was sponsored by the millmen and surface men at the Hallnor to honor a man who was well liked and who has been home at Hallnor since 1939.

A shot gun was presented as a group gift from those at the party. Mrs. Coombes and three children will be moving also to the Golden Arrow in the near future.

Death Follows Fall From Balcony

Arturo Scaini, aged 74, died on Saturday after falling from a balcony at the Belvidere building. His death was due not so much to injuries received in the fall, as to shock to a man of his age.

He lived on Railroad St. with another old-timer (Angelo) and was well known to most people having been around the camp for the past twenty years.

Born in Italy, he had been a resident in Canada most of his life, but had only one relative, a niece, living in Schumacher.

His funeral took place on Tuesday morning at 8 from St. Joachim's R.C. Church, Father LaSalle officiating. Interment was in Tisdale cemetery.

W. M. S. Hallowe'en Night Features Music and Games

The W. M. S. of Trinity United Church held a Hallowe'en night on Tuesday evening in the church hall. Members of the congregation and their friends, also the ladies of the Porcupine United Church Women's Association attended.

The hall was nicely decorated with Hallowe'en motifs and a grand program was arranged. The Rev. J. A. Breckenridge was chairman for the evening. Mrs. H. Waddell, president of the W. M. S. and Mrs. Dan Fraser were in charge of the program. Little Linda Urquhart and Elen MacMillan, dressed in orange and black costumes, opened the program with a Hallowe'en song. Shirley Kyle gave a violin solo and Mrs. Tom Leck accompanied at the piano.

Mrs. R. M. Dunn, Timmins, sang three lovely solos. Mrs. Randolph accompanied at the piano. Mrs. Tom Leck sang two lovely solos, playing her own accompaniment. Shirley Monaghan and Shirley Moran gave a piano duet, and Neil Pooley played a solo on his flute. Mrs. Leck accompanied at the piano; Jimmy Fraser gave a cornet solo; Mrs. Fraser gave a story and Mrs. Waddell read a poem. After the musical part of the program, games were enjoyed.

Ducking the apple contest was won by Mr. W. K. Wylie and Bill Lafferty. The clothes pin contest was won by Mrs. Woodrow and Mrs. Lett of Porcupine. The nut competition was won by 1st, Mr. M. Urquhart and Jimmy Fraser; 2nd, Mr. Dave Killens and Bill Lafferty. The biscuit and whistling competition was won by Mr. Bert Waite. The feeding competition was won by Shirley Moran, Jessie MacKenzie, Shirley Monaghan and Kathleen Hill.

Rev. J. A. Breckenridge thanked all who had contributed to the program and made the party so successful.

A delicious lunch of sandwiches, doughnuts and pumpkin tarts and coffee were served.
