

JUST Between OURSELVES

By Bernice Kaye

The Timmins Cabog Club played host to the Kirkland Lake Club on Sun. Nov. 17. The Kirkland Lakers arrived by bus at one o'clock and were met by a welcoming committee.

A bowling tournament was held in the afternoon with the Kirkland Lake Cabogians claiming the bowling trophy for another year.

Buses took the two clubs to Schumacher, where the members attended a banquet in the McIntyre Community Building. The presentation of the bowling trophy was made at the banquet, and Mr. Frank Dawson was presented by the Timmins Cabog Club with a pen and pencil set for his direction of the club plays. The club president, Mr. Joe Reszel, made the presentation, saying with feeling, "We present you with this humble token of the Cabog Club's appreciation for your labors on our behalf."

Mr. Joe Reszel addressed a welcome to the Kirkland Lake Cabog members to which Mr. Bill Copps, president of the Kirkland Lake club, made an acknowledging address.

A lively sing-song was held by the some 150 Cabogians at the banquet. They proceeded to the Church of the Nativity for Benediction.

Following Benediction, the Cabogians retired to the church basement, where a very enjoyable evening of entertainment was held, with the two club's participating.

A riotous skit was put on called "Sipping Cider Through a Straw". Eight Timmins girls stood in the background singing "cute" lyrics. Miss Irene Merla was seated at a soda fountain "sipping cider through a straw" and Mr. Joe Reszel showered attention on her. Termination of the affair was that a true-to-form mother-in-law appeared, portrayed by Miss Rita Prest. Mr. John Amadio provided the piano accompaniment.

Beautiful piano renditions of "Stardust" and "Jealousy Tango" were given by Miss Alice Giovannelli. Miss Charlotte Richards, who can always be relied upon for an amusing performance, recited Henry Drummond's French Canadian poem "Johnny Corbeau". She was typically garbed in blue denim outfit with beaver hat and bright scarves. From somewhere in the background came the strains of a rip-roaring square dance.

Talented Gino Demarchi on the violin and Elio Moretti with his guitar played several selections, "Sharp Shooters", "Rag-Time Annie", "My Little Girl", and "The Gardener". Mr. Moretti sang the last two pieces in a clear tenor.

A quartet composed of both clubs, with John Amadio, accordion; Elio Moretti, guitar; Gino Demarchi, violin, and Tony DeJoseph, violin, played several numbers.

The Kirkland Lake Cabog Club took over and presented Tony DeJoseph with his violin and Domenic D'Andrea on the accordion, who played very harmoniously a number of selections, including "Sentimental Journey".

Emcee for the Kirkland group was Reg Boisvert, who with his brother Basil charmed the audience with their humorous songs. A "Lost and Found Quartet", arranged on the spur of the moment, sang Irish medleys, swinging and swaying with the music in true-blue quartet fashion.

A young lady who is commonly known as the "Nightingale of Kirkland Lake", Miss Mabel Bettli, sang in her deep, throaty contralto "Five Minutes More" and "It Had to Be You".

Miss Adella Pellizzari of the Timmins club who is well-known locally for her singing talent, rendered "Ich Liebedich" by Grieg in German and an excerpt from Verdi's opera "Rigoletto", "La Donna e Mobile". A good criterion of appreciation by the younger set of good music could be taken from the rapt faces of the 200 or so young men and women as they listened to Adella. The applause was deafening, to put it mildly.

Mr. Bill Copp of the Kirkland Cabog Club thanked the Timmins club for their hospitality, and Mr. Joe Reszel assured the Kirklanders that the next time their club competed for the bowling trophy that they would be given very stiff competition.

We think it bears mentioning that Miss Adella Pellizzari has just returned from Toronto where she was auditioned for the "Singing Stars of Tomorrow" program. She tells us that everyone was very kind to her there. In the near future Adella expects to receive notification to appear on the program.

The latest news from the Canadian Figure Skating Association is that Miss Barbara Ann Scott, with whom this district is well acquainted, has been chosen to represent Canada at the world's figure skating champion ships, which are to be held in Stockholm, Sweden, early in 1947.

Miss Scott hails from our own Ottawa and was recently chosen the North American figure skating champion. For the past two summer seasons she has attended the Porcupine Skating Club, during which time most of us took advantage of the excellent opportunity and witnessed the many fine skating stars, and became acquainted with the brilliant 18-year old skating champion. Besides excelling in figure skating, Miss Scott files and swims with professional ease.

The 21st anniversary services of the Trinity United Church in Schumacher were held on Sunday at 11 a.m. and at 7 p.m. Services also commemorated the 34th year since the inauguration of that church in Schumacher. Rev. John R. Leng, M. C., B. A., D. D., of Toronto, assistant secretary to the Board of Home Missions, was guest speaker at the services. "Master Builders Today" and "The Kingdom That Lasts" were chosen as his texts.

Mrs. Clifford Armitage and Mr. Ron Jones were guest vocal soloists at the occasion. The church choir sang beautiful hymns in keeping with the memorable event.

The Porcupine Hydro Electric Club started off with a bang on Friday evening, when they held their first annual dance at the Riverside Pavilion. A very merry group of dancers crowded the floor.

Several spot dances were held. We got close enough to one presentation made by Mayor J. Emile Brunette to Mrs. J. A. Caveney of Sandy Falls and "Chuck" Hudson of Wawa.

Henry Kelneck and his orchestra gave with the music, with Miss Helen Synos, featured vocalist.

Dress for the occasion was optional, and we spied mainly lovely gowns and a host of attractive street-length dresses. Miss Constance Joannis wore a beautiful creation of white tulle over taffeta, with a high round neckline, trimmed with light blue, four-inch ribbon circling the entire gown. Connie tells us that she made it herself, and we certainly compliment her on cleverness. Mrs. Del Baker was very prominent in a chic yellow taffeta gown, cut on the very latest lines, with cap sleeves, draped skirt and wing pockets, in which were inserted mauve feathers to match the nosegay in her hair. Long mauve mittens added to the smart array.

Miss Lois Eckford was very chic in a sweetheart rose shuttle wool frock with the new bell push-up sleeves, touched off with a wide black suede belt. A very smart turquoise dress with front peplum was worn by Miss Anne Ansara. The large keyhole neckline was heavily bordered with black sequins. Miss Helen Korri was striking in a black crepe dress with cap sleeves and net yoke. Ingenious trimming with colorful sequins across the shoulders set the dress off to advantage.

Dedications during the evening were many. "Sweet and Lovely" was played for Miss Beryl MacQuarrie, who was married yesterday to Mr. Dave Robertson. Mr. and Mrs. St. Germaine, celebrating their first wedding anniversary, were honored with "The Anniversary Waltz", and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Charette were congratulated on their ninth wedding anniversary.

Buckles Ape the Jeweler

By Prunella Wood

These two smashing gilt buckles, clinching throat and waist lines are not precious hunks of the goldsmith's art, but plastic beauties dreamed up by a gifted button designer. They don't weigh any more than a string of pearl beads, and they shine like gold. Attach the buckles to lengths of ribbon for choker and belt.
