Adult Education Group Calls Meeting For Friday

A short time ago a few interested people met to discuss the possibilities of educational facilities for adults in South Porcupine. The outcome of that meeting was the formation of an executive for an "Association for Adult Education" consisting of Mr. V. H. Evans, Mr. R. L. Ship, Mr. Aarne Manner, Mrs. Harry Crick and Mrs. Shaefter.

This executive was asked to draw up a constitution for further discussion, and to call a meeting of interested people when such was completed.

This has been done, and a meeting is now called for Friday of this week at 8 p.m. in the Council Chambers.

All persons interested in any branch of education for adults; any person with ideas; any person who wishes particularly to follow any course of study is asked to be present.

This study need not necessarily be academic. Hobbies may be discussed, sewing and library clubs, or horticultural interests.

The Association welcomes all who would like to improve their education in various ways. It will then be the aim of the organization to find suitable supervisors for such improvements.

All that is necessary, is enough towns people to be sufficiently interested to further this project, and with the great number of new families and young men and women recently added to the population of South Porcupine the executive feels that this should not be difficult.

All are welcome to attend this meeting.

RETAILERS make constant use of banking services. In some cases these are simple but essential; the bank takes cash receipts on deposit, makes change, operates current accounts, and accepts and records used ration coupons. Other retail accounts involve considerable handling of drafts, and—a very important service—the making of loans to enable retailers to take advantage of trade discounts. All this entails Banking in Action.

The Canadian Bank of Commerce has among its customers many retail houses, from the small corner store to the large chain and department store. Strict attention to their particular needs is given to all the Bank's customers.
