CRUISE LINE — Here's something in a neutral gabardine coat dress that would be just peachy for that cruise to the Bahamas you've been baring about recently. The dress has Dolman type sleeves and the pocket flaps, which are repeated in back, are new style notes, it says here. Its modeled by Mary Meade, singer on NBC's "Duffy's Tavern" program, although these new style notes are hard to hear, on some radio sets.

REBEKAH TEA HAS CHRISTMAS TOUCH

The Gold Nugget Rebekah Lodge held a highly successful afternoon tea, bake and fancy work sale recently in the I. O. O. F. Hall.

Past president Mrs. James Keene and Mrs. K. Rowland, Noble Grand, were co-hostesses for the afternoon, and greeted the bustling crowd that attended.

Mrs. M. Sears and Mrs. G. Masters poured tea. The main table was laid out in a Yuletide theme, with a delicate glass centerpiece surrounded with red and green poinsettias. On each side were red candles set in appropriate holders. The smaller tables also featured the Christmas motif, and the complete picture presented was very gay.

Mrs. I. Hocking, Miss Hazel Lavin, Mrs. Easterbrook, Mrs. W. J. Stephens and Mrs. J. Langman served the guests. The eye-catching apron table was convened by Mrs. L. Brownlee, Mrs. W. McLaren and Mrs. D. Webster. A great variety of aprons were on view, with fancy tea aprons and sturdy household ones rivaling each other.

The bake table was laden with appetizing cakes, cookies and pies, and was convened by Mrs. J. Dean and Mrs. J. Webb. Mrs. N. Buck and Mrs. M. Lutz were in charge of the white elephant table, which offered many various incidentals of interest.

Mrs. E. Sauder entertained the ladies with a number of beautiful piano selections.

CA-BO-GI CLUB ATTENDS HIGH MASS

The Timmins Cabogi Club attended High Mass at the Church of the Nativity on Sunday in a body, and held their monthly Communion. Following the service, club members attended a well-arranged Communion Breakfast in the basement of the church.

Long tables were arranged on an angle on either side of the head table, and were gaily set with red checkered cloths and burning candles.

Miss Rita Prest was in charge of the kitchen, with the Misses Florence Murphy, Lois McAlendin, Jean Sweeney, Teresa Killeen, Mae Blais, Cora Craig, Ann D'Alessandri, Armandina Romualdi and Irene Merla assisting. The girls served a very enjoyable meal, beginning with tomato juice, followed by a main course of roast veal, buttered green beans, mashed potatoes, and a variety of cakes.

Those attending the Communion Breakfast were spiritual leader Father J. Callaghan and Cabogians Joe Reszel, Agnes Evans, Benny Ward, Pat Larmer, Jr., Jean Sweet, Agnes Doucet, John Garvey, Aurora Toffanello, Velma See, Joe Luccantonio, Helen Reszel, Bob Hannigan, Sylvana Gisp, Angus Chapman, Ry Lejoie, Jordon Cauley, Frances Bisson.

Bill Branigan, Armandina Romualdi, Fred McLellan, Irene Merla, Don Duggan, Geraldine Leblanc, Bob Svelnis, Denise Brodeur, Joe McLellan, Marcella Hedican, Gino DeMarchi, Charlotte Richards, Jerry Larmer, Leona Richards, Ron Morris, Jean Sweeney, Al Callaghan, Merle Morris, John Amadio, Aline Arbie, Ambrose Killeen, Teresa Killeen, Pat Killeen, Amelia Chopp, John Parker, Lalle Morris, Cora Craig, Carmel Fox, Nick Basciano, Mae Blais, Ann D'Alessandri, Leo Finchen, Eileen Joyce, Gerry Corrigan, Lola Corrigan, Lorna Schiratti, Rose Philipino, Teresa Dittullo, Bernice Kosobuski, Rita Prest, Lois McAlendin, Florence Murphy, Phil Rowan, Helen Frawley, Arnold Quinn, Gladys Carr, Rita O'Callaghan, Marg Singleton and Jean Clarke.

President Joe Reszel thanked the club members who prepared the meal, and stated that it seemed much more satisfactory using the church basement for the Communion Breakfasts than going to a local restaurant, and that in future they would be held in the church.

PLAN FOR CONCERTS NEARS COMPLETION

About a hundred members, representing team captains, executive committee and representatives of practically every organization in the Porcupine Camp attended a social get-together at the McIntyre auditorium on Monday evening, in connection with the plans of the Porcupine Community Concert organization.

The meeting was held to permit working members to discuss and plan the current membership drive and future drives, as well as to talk about the prospective choice of artists to appear in the concerts this winter.

Mrs. Lauritzen, the New York organizer of the concert series, stated that her visit here was unique and an education in itself. She said that never in all her experience had she found a town in which the campaign had been virtually completed in so short a time.

She also spoke of the artists available for the local concerts, and those who would be available for the next season when booking were made next spring.

She pointed out that because of the time of the year, a number of the more popular artists would not be available due to previous bookings, but that many artists who were just as accomplished, but who had not received as much publicity, would be available now.

Mr. Phil Kinkel thanked Mrs. Lauritzen for her talk and gave a brief sketch of the organization of the community concert series to date.

The sale of tickets for membership in the concert group was opened on Tuesday evening, the greater number of them already subscribed for.

CAROL ANN HAS FOURTH BIRTHDAY

Little Carol Ann Enright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Enright, celebrated her fourth birthday recently. A group of her friends gathered at her home for a jolly party. Mrs. Enright was hostess for the celebration.

Many games provided merriment for the youngsters. During the afternoon Mrs. Enright served the wee tots a delicious lunch. A large birthday cake with white frosting, garlanded with pink, and holding four glowing candles claimed the centre of attention.

The guest of honor received a host of lovely and useful gifts from her friends and parents.
