

Ruth Steeves
Funeral To Be Held
Friday At Tisdale

The death of Ruth Steeves, aged 18, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Steeves of Bloor Ave., resulted from a car accident near Toronto on Friday evening. Much sympathy has been extended to the grief-stricken family.

Ruth was burned to death when the car in which she was riding, — driven by Harold Hartley, of Sault Ste. Marie, — crashed into another car and burst into flames after turning over.

The driver was extricated suffering from burns, and with his clothing on fire. His rescuer succeeded in putting out the flames and in rushing him to hospital where his chances of recovery are good.

He will face charges of manslaughter later in connection with the death of the young girl.

The remains, in an sealed casket was sent to South Porcupine where it rested in Hunkin's Funeral Parlors until Wednesday evening. Then it was taken to her home on Bloor Ave.

Service will be at 3 p.m. Friday, in the United Church, conducted by Revd. R. J. Scott. Interment will be made in Tisdale Cemetery.

Ruth was educated in South Porcupine. After leaving school she clerked in Uly's Store and Adamson's Drug Store, where she was a very popular girl, as well as very pretty one, her auburn hair and lovely skin making her most attractive.

She left South Porcupine last spring to take a position near Toronto.

Her tragic death and its reaction on her family and friends is sincerely regretted by the citizens of this community who knew and liked her very much.

She came to South Porcupine with her parents eleven years ago. In the last three years she was most helpful in work with the brownies. The Guide Commission sent her (in the summer of 44) to Havergal College Toronto to take a special course in this work.

She leaves her parents, one sister (Hazel), Mrs. S. Fawcett of Preston East Dome; and two half-brothers — Wilfred Moore, pilot with the Texas Airways, and Norman Moore of town.

Rustler's Roundup Cartier Feature

When Kirby Grant, a singing cowboy, rides into the frontier settlement of Rawhide, he's thinking only of hanging up his guns and settling down to a peaceful existence. The desperadoes of the town, however, cause a change in his plans, and thus a Western adventure of no mean proportions follows.

The film is replete with everything to please Western regulars, saloon brawls, runaway stagecoaches, skullduggery, fistfights and murder.

Kirby gets a marshal's badge pinned to his chest, and with the aid of Fuzzy Knight, cleans up the town, run by a trio of brothers. Picking up clues, the pair trace murders and rustling directly to the brothers. Then comes an arrest, a jailbreak, a recapture, and finally the just deserts for the culprits.

Mrs. F. M. Springfield received on behalf of her daughter the University of Western Ontario Entrance Award Scholarship, and also the Dominion Provincial Scholarship.

The Misses Alice Pilgrim and Muriel Melville were also awarded Dominion Provincial Scholarships.

Mr. Ronald Briggs was valedictorian for the graduating class, and presented a colorful summary of their years spent at the school. He extended the appreciation of their parents.
