W.M.S. SUPPLY TEA SET FOR MARCH 1ST

On Thursday evening, Jan. 16, the W. M. S. of the First United Church held its first meeting of the new year. The president, Mrs. W. A. Mustard, opened the meeting with a new year message of encouragement and hope. She extended a hearty welcome to members and visitors present.

During the business meeting it was decided that the Society would serve dinner Monday, Feb. 3, to the teachers and officers of the Sunday School at their annual meeting.

Plans were made for the W.M.S. Annual Supply Tea. The date of the tea was set for Sat., March 1. Members volunteered to work on the various committees.

Mrs. P. Carson and Mrs. A. Jackson will be conveners for the tea tables. The decorating committee consists of Mrs. H. Travers and Mrs. W. Blair. The serving committee will be convened by Mrs. S. Hansuld. Mrs. J. Harnden with the help of her group will look after the bake table. The novelty table will be arranged by Mrs. T. Charlton, assisted by her group. Mrs. M. Craig, Mrs. Ross, Miss Louise Myowna and Mrs. Ellis will be in charge of the kitchen committee. Mrs. S. Hansuld and Mrs. L. Leigh will serve on the advertising committee, and the treasurer will be Mrs. W. Bull.

Annual reports were submitted by the secretaries of the various departments. This included reports from the secretary, Mrs. S. Ireland; treasurer, Mrs. H. Travers; finance Mrs. J. Harnden; associate helper, Mrs. T. Charlton; literature, Mrs. A. A. Rose; secretary, Mrs. G. Golden; and press secretary, Mrs. J. P. Teeple.

The community friendship secretary, Mrs. A. Jackson, reported on the very large number of hospital visits and visits to homes made by Mrs. R. Wynne and other members. The phrase of W. M. S. work is considered of prime importance, and their kindness and thoughtfulness to the sick and needy is worthy of respect.

Mr. A. Gillies, member of Session, outlined the proposed campaign for the Board of Managers.

During the worship service a solo by Mrs. Eric Ormston was enjoyed. Mrs. P. Carson accompanied at the piano.

The installation service was conducted by Rev. W. A. Mustard. During the impressive service Rev. Mustard emphasized the progressive phases of Christian living.

At the close of the business meeting a social period was shared. Tea was served by Mrs. A. Harnden, assisted by Mrs. M. Craig, Miss Kay McLeod, Mrs. W. Bennetts, Mrs. N. Curry and Mrs. G. Read.

SR. Y.P.S. BAPTIST CHURCH HOLD MEET

The Senior Young People of the First Baptist Church met Friday evening at 8 p.m. for their regular weekly meeting. Bob Hallam, the leader, was in charge.

25TH ANNIVERSARY OF MR. & MRS. I. K. PIERCE

Mr. and Mrs. I. K. Pierce, 61 Birch St. South, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Sunday in the McIntyre Auditorium.

The serving of a delicious dinner got festivities under way. A beautifully decorated four-tiered bridal cake and an exquisite sterling silver rose bowl, brimming with pink roses, formed a lovely centerpiece for the main table. Miss Vivian Pierce, one of their daughters, presented the cake and rose bowl to her parents on the happy occasion. A reception followed, with dancing supplied by Henry Kelneck and his orchestra. The auditorium was charmingly decorated with many baskets of flowers.

Mrs. Pierce received the guests, beautifully attired in a white crepe remaine gown, styled on classical lines, with a white moire taffeta bow and a large orchid corsage, which was the gift of daughter Vivian and godson Gordon Eyre.

Miss Vivian Pierce was elegant in a magnificent "Champaigne Gown" in shimmering grey, which was cut on draped lines, with a low V-neckline. A spray of orchids graced her dark hair.

Miss Trilby Pierce, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, was pretty as a picture in a gown of pale blue taffeta, which featured a fitted bodice, intricate silk roses on the rounded neckline and a full skirt. A single strand of pearls and a bracelet set off the smart ensemble.

Mrs. Karl Eyre presented to the honored couple a pair of silver candelabra, a group gift from many of their friends. Many other lovely gifts were presented to them. Mrs. Eyre also read many congratulatory messages to the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce have been highly regarded residents of Timmins for a great many years. They were married 25 years ago in Montreal, and have two daughters, Vivian and Trilby. Mrs. Pierce was the former Miss Irene Carswell.

SLEIGH RIDE ENJOYED BY HERMAN'S STAFF

The employees of Herman's Dry Cleaning firm enjoyed a gay sleigh ride over the week-end.

Following several jolly hours on the sleighs, the gay crowd gathered at the Daffodil Restaurant in Schumacher for a hot lunch and an evening's dancing.

The merry-makers included Sylvana Giop, Mel Herman, Rhael Fournier, Henry Rumpel, Jack Tomlin, Louis Girard, Eda Pantin, Rene Poulin, Enes Bozzer, Americo, Narduzzi, Amy Loam, Jimmy Fraser, Edna Russenstrom, Felix Berezowski, Betty Hocking, Jerry Clatworthy, Louise Charron, Tommy Moran, Alice Sheridan, Mr. and Mrs. Len McNeill, and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Aylett.

A. Y. P. A. CONCERT VERY ENTERTAINING

A capacity audience filled the St. Matthews Church hall last evening when the A.Y.P.A. presented a variety concert.

Ken Rodda was chairman for the occasion. Following a few brief opening remarks the programme commenced with Lois Skelly playing the ever popular "Military Polonaise" by Chopin. This number was enthusiastically applauded by the audience and was followed by "Clare de Lune" by Debussy. During the latter number whereby synthetic moonbeams shed a special lighting effects were used, bright light over the piano keys and silhouetted the player against a white background.

A one act play entitled "Mrs. Murphy isn't home" created much amusement in the audience with George Nippers playing the part of Mrs. Murphy Margaret Foy (daughter Mary) Marguerita Groom (Mrs. Clancy). Marcia Knox and Barbara Fleming sang two delightful duets entitled "Stay in your own back yard" and "A nest, the west and you."

A humorous recitation by Dick Wilson, "The bushwacker goes to a ball game" evoked much laughter from the audience.

Following a short intermission the programme continued playing a pot pourri on the piano accordion. Beverly Stiver then led community singing with Lois Skelly accompanying.

Lily McKay gave an enjoyable recitative entitled "Three Trees". "Opportunity knocks but once" was the title of the next one act play put on by these talented young folk. Beverly Stiver was Claribel, Lenore Chinn — mother, Gwen Nippers — the maid, Barbara Wolno — Mrs. Higginbottom. Once again many humorous incidents caused much amusement in the audience.

Mrs. Biggs, leader of the group, thanked their many patrons for a large attendance, especially on such a cold, stormy night.

The concert closed with the singing of the National Anthem and business meeting followed for members of the A.Y.P.A. and a light lunch was served.

FIRESIDE CLUB MEETS

The Fireside Club of First United Church held their regular monthly meeting in the church hall on Monday, Jan. 20.

Mrs. E. Kembal occupied the chair for her first meeting as president of the club.

Following a business period Rev. W. M. Mustard conducted a short devotional service which was followed by a talk entitled "Crusade".

Mrs. Eric Ormston sang two lovely Scottish songs — "Loch Lomond" and "The Blue Bells of Scotland" which greatly pleased her audience. Mr. H. Trener was accompanist.

A short social period then followed and lunch was served.

MRS. M. J. KELLY PRES. HOSPITAL AUXILIARY

One hundred ladies braved the cold north wind yesterday afternoon, to attend the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Mary's Hospital, held in the Nurses' Auditorium. Busy fingers and whirling sewing-machines made an impressive total of work accomplished, viz: 1009 dozen sponges, 8 dozen large sheets and 6 dozen draw sheets.

At the conclusion of the work period, Mrs. W. J. McCoy, who is retiring from her office as president, addressed the meeting, thanking her executive for their faithful assistance and all the other ladies of the auxiliary for their much appreciated work. She remarked that irrespective of creed, race or language there was always complete harmony among the various groups.

In turn Rev. Sister Superior warmly thanked Mrs. McCoy, as president for her untiring efforts on behalf of the Hospital during the last five years, and all the other ladies as well, for their wonderful co-operation.

The election of officers for the ensuing term was then held, with Mrs. J. E. Sullivan acting as chairman.

The new executive consists of:— Presd. Mrs. M. J. Kelly; 1st Vice, Mrs. C. Desaulniers; 2nd Vice, Mrs. G. Belanger; 3rd Vice, Mrs. Harry Leng; Secy, Mrs. T. Verity; Treas. Mrs. W. P. Bennetts. The new installed officers spoke briefly and received hearty applause of approval. Conveners from the various groups and organizations will be chosen by the executive in the near future.

Early Treatment

"Let your doctor decipher those symptoms" advises the Department of national Health and Welfare, in warning Canadians that slight twinges and aches should not be ignored, as they may indicate something serious, which early diagnosis and treatment can avert.
