SOUTH PORCUPINE LOCALS

Once more we hear on all sides appreciation of the way our roads and sidewalks are being kept open for traffic and pedestrians in spite of the heavy snowfall we have had this winter. Even yet scores of interested folk and especially children stand fascinated by the "snow-remover" and its endless belt transferring the piles of snow pushed up by the snowplough, to the trucks and then being taken to the side of the creek and dumped. Even with the excessive snow we need fear no floods this spring which in former years not so far distant were a constant menace to property, and especially cellars all over town.

When spring comes the snow water goes directly into the mouth of the creek and into Porcupine Lake.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Russel of Connaught was baptised on Sunday after the morning service, in St. Paul's Anglican Church by Revd. J. Morris, and was given the names of Marilyn Irene. Mrs. B. H. Harper was godmother to the child.
