SOUTH PORCUPINE Major H. A. MacDougall Funeral services for Major Hugh Allan MacDougall were held on Thursday afternoon from South Porcupine United Church with Revd. R. J. Scott officiating. He died in Porcupine General Hospital on March 10th, from injuries resulting from a fall, which caused complications ending in pneumonia. The funeral was attended by many townsfolk particularly those who have known the family through the years. Major MacDougall came to the camp as one of the earliest settlers on a 'vet' claim now known as the McDougall-Porcupine Gold Mines. His family grew up in South Porcupine, and three predeceased him, in addition to his wife. One daughter, Mrs. Bruce Relyea of Cleveland attended the funeral with her husband, and a grandson, James Kelly. His casket, draped in the Union Jack, was carried by six veterans to and from the church, and military honours given by Branch 87 of the Canadian Legion. Members of the Timmins Branch of the Legion were also present. Interment was made in Timmins Cemetery.

SOUTH PORCUPINE St. Patrick's Celebration A large crowd assisted the congregation of St. Joachim's Church to celebrate St. Patrick's Day on Monday evening. The Finnish Hall on Commercial Ave. was crowded to capacity and Father LaSalle acted as Master of ceremonies. Irish songs led by Ambrose McManus with Mrs. G. White at the piano occupied the first part of the evening's programme. Then Euchre, Bridge, and Bingo tables were ready for players. Mrs. Costello was in charge of the euchre games and at the finish prizes were won by Mrs. Wm. Dillon and Mrs. I. O'Shaughnessy. Mrs. M. Bessette took the bridge players under her charge and prizes were won by Mrs. C. Kavanagh (bath towels), Mrs. Lillian Tessier (cup and saucer) and Mrs. Irene Bowes (cake plate). The result of the "draw" saw Mr. Miner (Leighton Ave) owner of the coffee-table; Mr. John Raybould winner of the smoke-s stand; and Mr. the coffee-table; Mr. John Raybould groceries.

All the ladies assisted in serving a very nice lunch. The whole affair was a distinct social and financial success. SOUTH PORCUPINE Early Pioneers Going South Mr. and Mrs. William Bannerman of Golden City, real pioneers of the North and among (if not the first) settlers in the Porcupine Camp are leaving at the end of the month to retire to their old home town of St. Marys Ont. Their son Alvin with his wife and children will accompany them. We hear they are taking up a farm next to the one upon which Mr. Bannerman was raised, and intend to spend the evening of their lives among their early friends and relations. The esteem and respect in which this family are held by neighbours and friends will be a factor in the regret all feel at losing such good citizens and old friends, but all join in wishing them the very best of health and happiness in the years ahead.

Although they are not leaving until March 31st, this announcement is given now to enable many to call and say goodbye to them. SOUTH PORCUPINE Final Mixed Bonspiel Gets Under Way On Thursday Plans for the Mixed Bonspiel which each year finishes the Curling Season, and is sponsored by the Ladies Curling Club of South Porcupine are being hurried up. As the cold weather appears to be staying with us for a time, it has been decided by the committee to commence the 'Spiele' on Thursday evening of this week; and to play as many games as possible on the rinks of S. Porcupine, Dome and Pamour, instead of waiting until the hockey games have all been played and then playing off the games on artificial ice at the arena. This might necessitate the play-offs continuing well into April. To date the number of actual teams entered is 21, but over 40 will no doubt be playing in the 'Spiele'. Thursday (tonight) at 5.30 p.m. the first games will be starting.

SOUTH PORCUPINE Presentation Made By Men's Curling Club Mrs. Wm. Fairhurst was made the recipient of a very nice travelling case last week — a gift from the Men's Curling Club in recognition of the help and assistance given by Mr. Fairhurst during recent years. Mr. and Mrs. Fairhurst have booked passage for a short visit to England this summer and will be leaving in June.

IN MEMORIAM In loving memory of my dear daughter (Betty) Mrs. Jack McCrae, who died in the South Porcupine Hospital, March 23rd, 1927. Also my dear son Bill Black, who died in South Porcupine, February 20th, 1920. Beloved son and daughter of Mrs. E. Watson, Railroad St., Schumacher. "Memories are the lamps; That light the darkest road. To the beautiful hope of re-union. When we meet at the end of the road."

THROUGH THE YEARS THIRTY YEARS AGO BUILDING BY-LAW In view of the growth and progress of the town the proposed amendments to the building by-law were made by councillor Brazeau. When anyone desires to build within the present fire limits a sketch of the proposed new building must be submitted, and a permit obtained from the Building Inspector. Small garages for three autos or less may be built of sheet iron. No tar paper is to be used on the outside of buildings in the fire limit. New Producing Mine There will be another addition to the list of producing mines in the camp in the near future, as the management of the Newray is preparing to start up the old ten stamp mill around the first of May. The Newray property comprises 320 acres in the Hollinger-McIntyre area and has always been regarded by many as one of the most promising of the holdings in the Camp. $33,200 Pledged Patriotic Club The Porcupine Consolidated Patriotic Club has reached $33,200, not far from the goal of $50,000 set. This includes all the patriotic clubs in the district. The Croesus Mine The property which is now the Croesus was staked and restaked but none of the prospectors bothered to take out a patent. Mike Attalah finally staked it and sold it to Robt. Gamey, M.P.P. for $1,000. Mr. Gamey sold it for $3,000. Together with the two Walsh claims beside it the Dominion Reduction Co. paid about $100,000. At present over $500,000 has been taken from the three claims above the 100-foot level. And this is said to be just a beginning. Schools Flooded When Dyke Breaks On Thursday morning the dyke holding the waters of Miller Lake on the Hollinger property broke letting through a flood of water that soon swamped the road and ran over into the old buildings now used as schools while the new public school building is under construction. A couple small houses were also drowned out on the lower stores while the store not yet completed on the corner of Fourth Avenue was also swamped. The Hollinger Company at once sent men to attempt to stop the flow of water through the break and repair the damage. Hollinger Purchases Dyer Claims The Hollinger interests, who purchased the Dyer claims adjoining the famous Croesus property on three sides, made the final payment yesterday to Mr. Neil Faulkenham, who purchased the claims from Mr. Herb Dyer, who staked them. Staked 87 Claims In Four Months M. J. Jones, prospecting for a syndicate of men from Toronto interested in mining has staked 87 claims in the Porcupine in four months. Most of these are in Deloro township. Good Program At Choir Concert The grand concert given by the Byrnes Presbyterian church choir in the new church was better than the audience expected. Among the selections by the choir were solos by Miss O'Leary, Mr. Reg. Jones, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Ralph Robbins, Mr. Jackson, Miss Bird and Mr. J. Geils; duet, by Miss Lefferty and Mr. J. Geils; quartettes, by Miss Muirhead, Miss Lagerty, Mr. Jones and J. Geils. Readings by Mr. Wm. Lansberry and Mrs. A.S. Fuller; and a piano duet by Mrs. J.W. Faithful and Mrs. Sims. British Widows More than 187,000 widows are now on the British pension list which will now involve a capital charge of nearly $2,000,000,000. TWENTY YEARS AGO A party of fifteen or twenty of the officers and members of the Toronto Board of Trade and the Northern Development Committee of that body made their annual official visit to the North Land this week, with the purpose of keeping in touch with the people and progress of this country. The Hon. Mr. Finlayson has advocated a plan for the north and south to become better acquainted. Peg O' My Heart There was a good audience last night for the first presentation by Mrs. Rosalind Barrett and the Columbian Players of the comedy of youth "Peg O' My Heart." Taking part were: Miss Katherine Lambertus, Douglas Carriere, Mrs. Anna Loney, Hugo Shaw, Arthur Shaw, Charles Roberts, Miss Marguerite Hanlon and Mr. J.A. McDonald. No Dog Race This Year The annual dog race will not take place this year. The weather and the roads left no other action than to cancel the event which was to take place on March 16th. The V.O.N. Tag which was scheduled for the same day will also be cancelled. Caledonian Society Executive The Caledonian Society has added the following to their executive: treasurer, Mr. L. McClure; Mrs. M. Shaw, Mrs. J. Goodman, and Mrs. Matheson to the executive committee. Mercantile Bowlers Win Mercantiles sprung a surprise by taking 3 points from the town team. Arnot, with 608, was high for the town team. Town: Feldman, 512; McAlpin, 475; Arnot, 608; Barron, 259; Nottingham, 217. Mercantile: Welt, 585; McGarry, 606; Campbell, 554; Starr, 663; Ellis, 264; Bonnell, 225. Children's Shelter The district of Cochrane Children's Aid Society held a general meeting in the Clinic room, Timmins for the purpose of considering the matter of a Children's Shelter for the district. The work of the C.A.S. is handicapped badly by the need of a shelter and the necessity for sending children to outside shelters and other places until homes can be found for them is both inconvenient and expensive.
