

Weddings Of Interest

Pitschel — Warren

The First Baptist Church was the setting for a pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon when Viola Catherine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh L. Warren was united in marriage to Ernest Otto Pitschel, son of Mr. Otto Pitschel.

Rev. A. E. J. Brackstone officiated at the ceremony which was performed against a background of Spring flowers, fern and candlelight.

Miss Jean Archer played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Mrs. F. Bauman played a lovely violin solo. She was accompanied by Miss Daisy Bauman.

The bride given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Wm. Lainsbury, was lovely in a gown of white lace and net fashioned with fitted basque of lace, sweetheart neckline and long sheath-tight sleeves featured lace inserts and her long veil of white net was held in place with a Mary Queen of Scots headress with a wreath of orange blossoms falling gracefully at the back, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Betty Tyrrell, as maid of honor wore a gown of daffodil yellow eyelet embroidery featuring sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and very full skirt. Her headress was a matching halo and she carried a bouquet of red tulips.

Miss Irene Merla and Miss Lillian Hirschfeld were bridesmaids and wore identical gowns of coral rose and hyacinth blue eyelet embroidery. They wore matching halos and gloves and carried bouquets of pink and mauve tulips.

Miss Marjorie Eastman and Miss

Marilyn Sutherland were flower girls and were gowned in white flowered taffeta with velvet hair-bands in their hair and they carried old fashioned nosegays of rose-buds.

Mr. Harry Eastman was groomsman and ushers were Mr. Melville Hicks and Mr. Lambert Worth.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of bride's aunt, Mrs. W. Lainsbury, 66 Balsam street S. The bride's mother received, wearing an afternoon dress of turquoise blue crepe, with black accessories and corsage of red roses.

Pouring tea at the reception were Mrs. Wm. Lainsbury and Mrs. J. Archer.

Later the young couple left for a trip to points south. For traveling the bride donned a smart grey striped suit with black accessories. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Pitschel will reside in Timmins until the fall.

Gifts to the attendants included gold plated compacts to maid of honor and bridesmaids, rings to the flower girls and wallets to the groomsman and ushers.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Miss Betty Tyrrell, Miss Irene Merla, Miss Lillian Hirschfeld and the teachers and staff of Birch street Public School.

Legion Ladies Hold Meeting And Enjoy Afternoon Tea

Spring Toppers Feature Fullness

Wide sleeves with buckled cuffs are the fashion interest in a full-backed shortie of hand-woven wool. Tailored to top suits or dresses with equal grace, it has the unseen virtue of a pre-tested rayon lining. Colours are Golden Harvest, Aqua, Harebell Blue, Daffodil, American Beauty Rose, Laurel Pink and white.

WELCOME THE SHOWERS

This department has a crush on this coat, for it seems to have everything... like Gary Cooper, or whoever. It is wool gabardine, in a rosy apricot brandy shade. It is waterproofed, for showers. It has a classic cut which knows no yesterdays of style. It is a good length, has pine pockets, deep sleeve holes... and costs about half what anyone would expect to pay for an all-purpose coat of beautiful color which will last for years.
