Fiddler — Feltmate

Lighted candles and a background of Spring flowers formed the setting for the wedding Friday of Mary Catheline Feltmate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Feltmate when she became the bride of Robert Albert Fiddler, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fiddler of Kirkland Lake.

His Grace R. J. Renison officiated at the ceremony and wedding music was played by Miss Lois Skelly.

The bride, given in marriage by her father was radiantly lovely in a gown of white nylon fashioned with sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and a softly gathered peplum draping the bouffant skirt. Red rose-buds held her long veil of white net in place and she carried a cascade of red roses and wore the gift of the groom, a heart-shaped locket of yellow gold.

Miss Betty Feltmate, sister of the bride was maid of honor and chose for the occasion a gown of white net and lace over taffeta with satin bows down the front of the dress and short sleeves with ruffles. Her shoulder length veil of white net was gathered to a wreath of flowers and she carried an old fashioned nosegay of deep pink carnations.

Miss Laura Fiddler, sister of the groom as bridesmaid was frocked in a gown of white silk jersey with net skirt, her shoulder length veil was of pink net caught with frills at the crown and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Miss Priscilla Ayers, as second bridesmaid, wore a gown of white silk moire fashioned with fitted basque and softly gathered skirt. A pink veil gathered at the crown and a nosegay of pink carnations completed the ensemble.

Miss Louise Wilson was flower girl and was charming in her gown of white net over taffeta featuring a flounced hemline and a headdress of blue net. She wore short white gloves and carried and old fashioned nosegay of colorful sweetpeas.

Mr. K. Jones was groomsmen and the ushers were Ernest, Hefferman and Donald Desormeau.

After the ceremony a wedding supper and reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the bride's mother received wearing an afternoon dress of flowered silk jersey with black accessories and corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother who also received wore an afternoon dress of royal blue jersey with figured bodice and plain skirt. Black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations completed the ensemble.

Gifts to the attendants was a striking silver cross and chain to the maid of honor, silver brooches to the bridesmaids, a gold locket and matching bracelet to the flower girl, a pocket watch to the groomsmen and gold filled tie clips to the ushers.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Miss Priscilla Ayers, Miss Marie Cox and Miss Betty Feltmate.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fiddler, Miss Laura Widler, Mr. Billy Fiddler of Kirkland Lake, Mr. and Mrs. R. Fiddler, Halleybury and Mr. and Mrs. J. Feltmate, Porquus Junction.

Kelman — Geils

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday afternoon in the manse of First United Church when Margaret Ellen Geils, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Geils was united in marriage to John Alexander Kelman, son of Mr. William Kelman and the late Mrs. Kelman of Paris, Ontario.

Rev. William Mustard performed the ceremony.

The attractive bride wore a navy two-piece suit with white accessories and corsage of red roses and fern.

As matron of honor, Mrs. D. E. Howard chose a suit of powder blue wool with brown accessories and corsage of tea roses.

Mr. D. E. Howard was groomsmen.

The bridal couple left on a wedding trip to Toronto, Hamilton, Buffalo and Detroit.

On their return they will reside in Timmins.

Wylie — Wylie

St. Matthew's Anglican Church was the setting on Saturday afternoon for a lovely wedding when Iris Alberta Wylie, daughter of Mrs. Emma Wylie became the bride of David Marshall Wylie, son of Mrs. J. Wylie and the late Mr. Wylie of Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Rev. A. R. Chidwick officiated at the ceremony which was performed against a background of flowers and candlelight.

The attractive bride wore a smart turquoise blue afternoon dress with matching hat garlanded with matching flowers, yellow gloves and corsage of yellow roses.

Gordon Moon was groomsmen.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Lounge Room of the McIntyre Community Building where the bride's mother received, wearing a navy crepe dress, black and white accessories and corsage of red roses.

Miss Mary Tripp and Mrs. Graham Dunlap assisted in serving at the reception.

Later the young couple left for a trip to Toronto and the United States. For travelling the bride donned a two-piece suit of grey with black topper and black and white accessories.

Upon their return they will reside at 218 Balsam street S.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Miss Pauline Mullin and Mrs. R. Hamburgh.
