SOUTH PORCUPINE Mrs. A. Ewing Honored By Friends With Party And Presentation

Mrs. A. Ewing was guest of honour in her own home on Friday evening at a genuine "surprise" party.

A number of the members of the Ladies' Curling Club called upon her in a body, bringing with them all the requisites of a party lunch.

They presented her with a lovely travelling bag, with a suitable address, presented by the President Mrs. Frank Walsh — to show their appreciation of the work entailed during the six years when she held office as secretary of the Club. Mrs. Ewing having recently resigned from office.

Mrs. Ewing graciously thanked the ladies for the handsome gift.

Cards and a social evening with lunch followed.

All the members of the Club contributed to the gift, but some were not able to be present.

Included among the members at the party were Mrs. Frank Walsh, Mrs. J. Raybould, Mrs. E. E. Cooper, Mrs. R. P. Smith, Mrs. Lou Cameron, Miss Pearl Kennedy, Mrs. M. Young, Mrs. E. Grant, Mrs. R. Adamson, Mrs. Don Miller, Mrs. Gigg, Mrs. McChesney, Mrs. Emerson Smith, Mrs. Darwin, Mrs. Rosebrough, Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, Mrs. Rayner, Mrs. Sutherland Mrs. Wm. Farren, Mrs. A. McPhate, Mrs. H. Hall, Mrs. M. Shaw, Mrs. J. Moore, Mrs. T. Wilson and Mrs. Ewing.

MONDOR — To Mr. and Mrs. R. Mondor at 2 Carlin avenue, on March 10, a daughter, Marie Rita Chislaine.

BERTRAND — To Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bertrand of Martin St. Golden City, on May 5th, a daughter.

DUGWAY — To Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dugway, at 75 Windsor ave., on March 11, a daughter, Marlet, Thelma.

THE LEGION COLUMN

Was a pleasure to see the turn out for the third social and dance in the Club rooms on Friday evening, quite an improvement on the last one, a little over fifty people danced to the music of Ron Jones and his Northern Airs, all had the same opinion, it was a very enjoyable evening, another fifty invitations will be sent out for the next get together, May 16th, so if you find yourself engaged for that night, send back your card saying you are unable to attend that particular evening. I advertised for the holder of the ticket for the Little Lady, well the winner was our old comrade Jenkins, he saw her home alright, he tells me it coincided with his unteenth birthday, so it was a happy meeting, and we congratulate Arthur on his birthday and his luck.

A very pleasant evening was had in the Clubrooms on Saturday, something new, not the Orpheus Choir this time, they took a back seat for once on a Saturday. With Comrade John Tesse at the piano and comrade George Sutherland and his banjo we had quite a recital of old time music, every one in the house really enjoyed this impromptu concert, it went over big with the boys, music hath charms as I said before, and it is a little encouragement to the members that they can drop in and have this little diversion from their daily toils.

Even the Legion Column has come under the notice of the Legion Public Relations Department in Ottawa saying that this effort is bound to have effect upon Legion membership and other potential members, and I hope it is the case.

It has been my custom each week in reporting the sick, but I was told, I had forgotten to report the progress of our sick clock, who had been sick for some weeks owing to a run down condition, now I am glad to report it is back to work, and did Ted receive an ovation when he brought it home from the hospital or Ted's workshop, the cheer leader was Paddy Williamson who missed the clock more than anyone and went home to ask the time any more, and incidentally, he bought the Ticker (cheap) that took the place of the clock in its absence.

Last respects were paid to our late comrade James Lawrence on Friday afternoon the funeral was from Walker's Parlor, many of his comrades were in attendance. We now regret the passing of another old comrade, Fred Snell, who died suddenly on Sunday morning in St. Mary's hospital, Fred was a veteran of the first great war.

Just for remembrance, for those of both wars, They shall not grow old As we that are left grow old Age shall not weary them Nor the years condemn At the going down of the Sun and in the morning We shall remember them.

We welcome back from Kingston Sanatorium, comrade A. Sinclair, and we wish him the best. To our other sick comrades in Christie St. Hospital comrades G. Morris and Art Loder we would like to welcome them back too, but we send them our best wishes, and hope soon to tender that welcome.

Our sick at home and in St. Mary's Hospital we also send our best wishes for a speedy recovery and hope to see them around soon.

To our comrades still serving overseas and those ex-members of Branch '88' over there we send our best regards and salutations, I will include comrade Jack Fortin who left Timmins last Wednesday to embark for England, with comrades J. Law, Fred Curtis, K. Hulme, Bill Aston and Jock Fairnie of Dundee, as the little postman calls it, the Jam town.

At the Zone meeting held in the Legion Hall on Sunday afternoon with Zone Commander Austin Neame in the chair, elected comrade G. Whitman as Zone Commander for the ensuing term, he is from Iroquois Falls.

The District commander was also present, comrade W. Grummet, Provincial member of the House.

Remember boys, we have another Smoker this Saturday, and if the entertainment committee (and they have done a good job) can repeat the status of the last one, it will be worth the time attending, so be there, there may be a "Little Lady" in attendance, looking for a guy to take her home, you may be the lucky guy.

In the cribbage Skunk Trophy tournament comrade Charlie Wheeler has got a nice lead, I gave him one myself and that is something.

A little reminder to the public and to the ex-service man, the drive is still on, a little here and a little there helps a lot, "remember what he has done for you, what he is still doing for you" and the Canadian Legion on a whole.

Don't let them down now, it is something for the future, a living remembrance, surely they are worth it.

I believe comrade Tom Glalster skunked Bob Brand in a game of darts, that goes down on record.

Remember your radio licences are due and you can have them from an ex-service man at your door.

Get your names down, if you want to join the party for Kirkland Lake on the 31st so that I can make arrangements, cribbage players and dart players or anyone who would like to go, I would like this to be the first of many this is a chance to create a friendship of comradeship between our brother Branches in the north.

Till next week: J. GORDON mele Teenagers! It will soon be Mother's Day — an occasion when we want to be particularly nice to Mom. And there is such a thrill in doing something for her on Sunday that we have written this column to you. Of the many things you can do, mother will appreciate you preparing the meals most because this is her job day in and day out. It will be a wonderful diversion for you and Mother.

SPECIAL LUNCHEON PLATE

- Season 2 cups medium white sauce with 1/2 tsp. salt and 1/4 tsp. pepper; add 2 tps. vinegar and 1 tsp. Worcester-shire sauce.
- Add 2 cups cooked cubed ham, 1 cup drained peas and 1 slice of onion.
- Serve between and on top of split tea biscuits.
- Decorate with a sprig of water-cress.

TEA BISCUITS

- 2 cups flour, 4 tps. baking powder, 1 tsp. salt, 2 tps. shortening, 3/4 cup liquid (all milk or half milk and half water).
- Mix dry ingredients and sift twice. Work in shortening with tips of the fingers, or cut in with two knives. Add the liquid gradually, mixing with a knife to a soft dough. Owing to differences in flours, it is not always possible to determine the exact amount of liquid. Toss on a floured board, pat and roll lightly to one-half inch in thickness. Shape with a biscuit cutter. Bake in hot electric oven (450 degs.) 12 to 15 min.

ORANGE UPSIDE DOWN CAKE

- 1 cup shortening, 1/2 cup gran. sugar, 1/2 cup boiling water, 1/2 cup orange juice, 2 tps. grated rind, 1 tsp. shortening, 3/4 cup granulated sugar, 1 cup sifted pastry flour, 1 tsp. baking powder, 1/2 cup milk.
- Blend first 5 ingredients together and pour into a greased cake pan or individual glass baking dishes.
- Cream 1 tsp. shortening and add 1/2 cup sugar gradually. (3) Mix and sift dry ingredients twice and add alternately with milk to creamed mixture. (4) Drop in spoonfuls on top of orange mixture. (5) Bake in a preheated electric oven of 400 degs. for 5 min. then reduce heat to moderate (350 degs.) and bake for about 35 min. Yield: Six servings.

DISCUSSIONS WITH TEENAGERS

Question: How should I serve a cup of tea to Mother's friend when she comes on Sunday afternoon?

Answer: Take the cup and saucer with serviette under it in your right hand, making sure that the handle is towards your left hand. Present it to her without seeming awkward. She should take it in her left hand then she is ready to lift the handle with her right or unfold the serviette.

Question: Should I pass cream and sugar on a tray or put them in each cup at the serving tray?

Answer: If you are entertaining a small group of 8 to 12 people it is more hospitable to ask whether they would like cream or sugar in their tea and then tell the hostess who is pouring tea.

Question: Should I put a spoon on the saucer if the guest does not take sugar?

Answer: It is not necessary to do so and often it is inconvenient.

Question: Should I serve pickles and radishes on the sandwich tray or in a relish dish.

Answer: Radishes, celery and sweet pickles make the sandwich board attractive but pickled onions, dills and strong flavoured extras should be served separately.

Question: Which do I pass first, small cakes or tarts?

Answer: Small cakes.

Question: When evening refreshments of chocolate cake, nut bread, ice cream and tea are planned, how do I serve them in the living room?

Answer: Serve cups of tea on a tray with serviettes, pass cream and sugar. Offer a tray of buttered nut bread; then remove tea cups and pass a serving of chocolate cake and ice cream on individual plates with a fork on the side.

Question: Is it correct to place a table bouquet on a tea wagon when tea is served?

Answer: Yes, if the bouquet is low it will make an attractive table.

Question: Should I always serve the eldest in the group first even if the person is a gentleman?

Answer: No, the eldest lady first unless there is only one elderly gentleman among a young group.
