Vartenuik — Boghean

Against a background of mixed Spring flowers which decorated the altars of St. Mary's Orthodox Church, Jean Boghean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Boghean of Saskatchewan spoke her wedding vows with George Vartenuik, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Vartenuik, Timmins, on Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Teofil Maxim officiated at the lovely ceremony during which the church choir sang appropriate hymns.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. R. Jonescu, the bride was charming in her gown of heavy white slipper satin styled with round neckline and long sleeves forming points over the wrists. The nylon yoke featured a band of white satin softly gathered in the centre to form an off the shoulder effect. Her skirt was on long slender princess lines with a peplum which fell into a long train. Her veil of white net was heavily embroidered and was held in place by a coronet of white rosebuds. She wore nylon net gloves and carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis. She also wore the gift of the groom a beautiful gold filled pin set with pearls.

Mrs. G. Bacon and Mrs. G. Taylor were matrons of honor. Mrs. Bacon chose for the occasion a gown of teal blue French crepe trimmed with sequin pink hat and pink accessories with a corsage of roses and ferns. Mrs. Taylor was becomingly frocked in a gown of white printed silk jersey with white hat, matching accessories and corsage of red roses.

Bridesmaid, Miss Antoinette Stefano wore a gown of blue brocaded nylon marquisette fashioned with sweet heart neckline, shirred bodice, short puffed sleeves and full bouffant skirt while Miss Bunny Cerenzia also a bridesmaid wore a similar gown in daffodil yellow. Her hats were of matching nylon with clusters of red roses. They wore matching gloves and carried bouquets of red roses and white carnations.

The little flower girls were Margaret Moluchi and Jeannette Cojocar, who wore similar gowns of nylon marquisette, one in pink and the other in blue. Their headresses were of matching nylon softly gathered over the head and held in place with a gardenia on either side. They wore white gloves and carried dainty baskets of roses and carnations. Donald Jonescu as page boy, wore a cape of black velvet and page boy hat of matching material.

Groomsmen were Mr. G. Bacon and Mr. G. Taylor and the ushers were Messrs. Eddie Blahay and Bill Curik.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the hall of St. Mary's Church. The bride's sister, Mrs. R. Jonescu, received wearing a gown of heaven blue nylon featuring a smart bustle effect. Her hat was of blue nylon garlanded with a wreath of blue flowers and she wore a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother who also received, was chic in a gown of blue sheer, styled with a side drape. She wore a hat of blue straw garlanded with pink flowers and a corsage of red roses.

Pouring tea were Mrs. G. Cojocar and Mrs. G. Popescu assisted by Mrs. J. Mally, Mrs. J. Jenkins, Mrs. M. Malloq, Miss Bunny Cerenzia and Miss A. Stefano.

Later the couple left for a trip to Windsor, Montreal and Temagami. For travelling the bride wore a suit of blue with fish tail back, a hat of grey straw with pink flower trim and matching accessories.

On their return they will reside in Kirkland Lake.

Gifts to the attendants included chatelaine pins crusted with rhinestones to the matrons of honor and the bridesmaids and brush sets to the groomsmen and ushers.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained at showers by Mrs. R. Jonescu and Mrs. G. Vartenuik.

Miss Mary Lou Lanreville, under study to star Anne Robinson of Ice Capades arrived Sunday evening to spend the next month holidaying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Landreville, 110 Third avenue, Schumacher.

John O'Donnell, under study to Ice Capade star Eldon Adair arrived home Sunday evening to spend the next month with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Donnell, 34 Fourth avenue, Schumacher.

Chartrand — Dubien

Notre Dame de Lourdes Church decorated with Spring flowers and lighted candles was the setting for a lovely wedding on Wednesday morning when Fleurette Dubien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Dubien became the bride of Romuald Chartrand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chartrand.

The young couple spoke their wedding vows before Rev. Emile Gaboury and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Piche who also sang "Ave Marie" during the signing of the register.

The bride given in marriage by her father was lovely in a gown of white brocaded nylon marquisette fashioned with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves coming to points over the wrists, moulded basque and bouffant skirt. Her veil of silk net was beautifully embroidered and was held in place by a crown of matching material trimmed with hand made lace. She carried a bouquet of red roses and wore a lovely pendant which her mother had worn on her wedding day.

She was attended by Mrs. Rene Dubien as matron of honor, who wore a gown of blush pink sheer styled with fitted bodice, short puffed sleeves and a shirred jacket. The skirt was softly gathered and fell in graceful folds from the moulded bodice. Her headress was a crown of net from which fell a waist length veil, matching gloves and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses and fern. Miss Jacquemere Chartrand was bridesmaid and chose a gown of heaven blue taffeta fashioned with a shirred bodice, short puffed sleeves and a three tiered skirt trimmed with a single band of pink taffeta ribbon. A crown of net from which fell a shoulder length veil of blue net, matching gloves and a bouquet of pink roses and fern completed the ensemble.

Little Denise St. Onge and Suzanne Dubien were flower girls. Denise was frocked in a floor length gown of mauve net and taffeta styled with round neckline, fitted bodice and long tight sleeves. A band of gathered material formed an off the shoulder effect and the skirt was fully bouffant. Her headress was a band of matching material full shirred and was caught at the back with a bow. She carried a nosegay of sweet peas. Suzanne was frocked in yellow net over dotted muslin fashioned with short puffed sleeves, fitted bodice and softly gathered skirt with a crown of white gardenias in her hair, white gloves and an old fashioned nosegay of mixed sweet peas completed the ensemble.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, the bride's mother received, wearing an afternoon dress of dove grey trimmed with American beauty, matching accessories and a corsage of red roses and fern.

Later, the bride and groom left for a trip to Ottawa and Buckingham. For travelling the bride wore a suit of grey with a topper of American beauty, black accessories and corsage of red roses.

On their return they will reside in Timmins.

Gifts to the attendants were earrings to the matron of honor, gold filled lockets to the flower girls and fox and ties to the groomsmen. The groom's gift to his bride was a pearl necklace with matching earrings.

Miss Marjorie McChesney of the American professional ice show, "Ice Capades" arrived Sunday evening to spend the next month holidaying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maitland McChesney, 20 Hart street.

Miss Julie Popovich of the American professional ice show "Ice Capades", has arrived to spend the next month visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Michael Popovich, Schumacher.

Weddings Of Interest

Priamo — Bozzer

The Church of the Sacred Heart was the setting on Saturday morning for one of the season's loveliest weddings when Olga Bozzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bozzer was united in marriage in a double ring ceremony to Peter Priamo, son of Mr. Domenico Priamo and the late Mrs. Priamo of Fort William.

Against a chancel banked with roses, carnations, fern and tall lighted tapers the young couple spoke their wedding vows before Father Louis Fontano. Wedding music was played by Miss Alice Giovannelli and during the signing of the register Mrs. F. Cecconi sang "Ave Marie" and "Dolce Nome" was sung by Mrs. H. Giallonardo.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was radiantly lovely in her gown of traditional white satin fashioned with angelic neckline of nylon net moulded basque buttoned down the back, long sheath tight sleeves forming points over the wrists and a softly gathered skirt which fell into a full graceful chapel train. The net yoke featured leaves of silk braiding encrusted with pearls and a panel styled with the same leaves graced the front of the gown. Her veil of tulle d'illusion was caught with a crown of satin and pearls and she carried a white leather bound prayer book covered with two large gardenias from which fell white satin streamers entwined with dainty rosebuds and lily of the valley.

She was attended by Mrs. C. Barazzuol as matron of honor, who wore a gown of blue brocaded nylon marquisette styled with rounded neckline, short puffed sleeves with ruffles, long fitted torso and softly gathered skirt, a picture hat of matching nylon, long mittens with ruffles and she carried a colonial of roses and sweet peas encased in an ostrich plume of blue.

Miss Nellie Bozzer, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid was gowned in sea foam green brocaded nylon marquisette featuring a draw string neckline, puffed sleeves with ruffles, fitted bodice and softly gathered skirt, a sea foam nylon picture hat, matching mittens and an ostrich plume of green in which nestled roses and sweet peas completed the ensemble.

Miss Enes Bozzer another sister of the bride as bridesmaid chose a gown of orchid brocaded nylon marquisette, fashioned with rounded neckline with ruffles, short puffed sleeves and long fitted torso from which fell a full bouffant skirt. She wore a picture hat of orchid, matching mittens and carried a colonial of roses and sweet peas encased in an orchid ostrich plume.

Bridesmaid, Miss Sally Frapporti was frocked in daffodil yellow brocaded nylon marquisette featuring draw string neckline, puffed sleeves, fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Her picture hat was of yellow nylon marquisette, with long mittens and she carried a colonial of roses and sweet peas nestled in an ostrich plume of yellow.

Little Donna Adamo was flower girl and was gowned in white nylon net studded with silver polka dots and fashioned on the same modish lines as the bride's dress. A tiny crown of matching material and a little basket of sweet peas and roses completed the ensemble.

Mr. Custer Barazzuol was groomsmen and the ushers included Rino Bozzer, cousin of the bride, Tony Priamo, cousin of the groom, and Literale Marcon.

After the ceremony a dinner was held in the banquet room of the Grand Hotel and in the evening a reception was held in the Auditorium of the McIntyre Arena.

The bride's mother received, wearing an afternoon dress of black crepe trimmed with turquoise, matching accessories and corsage of red carnations. The groom's aunt, who also received, wore a two piece suit of brown with matching accessories and corsage of yellow roses.

Later, the bride and groom left for a trip to Toronto, Guelph, Buffalo and other southern points. For travelling the bride donned a tailored suit of grey gabardine with grey and American beauty colored accessories and a corsage of red roses. On their return they will reside in Sudbury.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. Domenico Priamo, Fort William, Pete Bozzer, Buffalo N.Y., Miss Mary Zanussi, London, Ont., Miss Victoria Kolaski, Toronto, Ont., Mr. Tony Priamo, Guelph, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. C. Barazzuol, Literale Marcon, "Teedy" Scogretti, Major Zuliani all of Sudbury and Miss Eleanor Mesinger, Hollywood, Calif.

Gifts to the attendants were a bracelet to the matron of honor, and earrings, glamor pin, and bracelets to the bridesmaids and pearls to the flower girl. The best man and the ushers received tie pins and collar pin sets of gold.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Mrs. J. Adamo, at a crystal shower, by the Choir of the Church of the Sacred Heart at a tea and presentation and at a miscellaneous shower by Mrs. M. Ruddick and Mrs. V. Salvador.

Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Quesnel have left for North Bay where they will attend the Dominion Conference of the Associated Canadian Travellers as special delegates representing the local branch of the A. C. T.

Mrs. Grace Sinclair has left to spend the next several weeks holidaying with relatives and friends in Gravenhurst and Toronto.

WHEN YOUTH MEETS YOUTH
Confederation Life representatives have a youthful outlook. Many are young veterans who have been trained to call upon other young men to explain the immediate protection—as well as the long term benefits—obtainable through Confederation Life policies.
They know the peace of mind that comes from having financial security for themselves and their families.
Nothing but life insurance assures so much immediate and future financial protection for so little. The great thing is to make a start with one policy; then build up additional security as your earning powers and responsibilities increase.
The Confederation Life representative will help you to plan a practical program for immediate and future requirements.
