

This Week On Capital Hill

By Fred C. Dillon

Special to The Porcupine Advance

Political listeners in the Capital had something other than the rumblings of discontent in the Progressive-Conservative ranks to tune their ears to this week. It came about when James Sinclair, Liberal member for Vancouver North, was quoted as saying in an interview that "when Mr. King, as is expected, resigns next spring, the emphasis will be on youth when his successor is chosen".

There is no reason to believe that this statement by Mr. Sinclair is anything but just a guess. Mr. King has been silent on his future plans. One thing seems fairly certain, however, and that is that the Prime Minister, now 72 years of age, will remain in office at least until next April at which time he will have surpassed the record now held by Sir Robert Borden, that of a Prime Minister in the Commonwealth with the longest term of office.

Political guessers have run into a blind alley in trying to name the most likely successor to Mr. King if and when he does retire from office. High on the list of possible successors is Finance Minister Abbott who, at 48, has been in parliament for seven years during which time he has held two important portfolios, Minister of National Defence and his present post. Health Minister Martin, Defence Minister Claxton and Agriculture Minister Gardiner are all likely to be interested in the position and each has a good record of accomplishment and experience. It is much easier to name those who will not succeed the Prime Minister than otherwise. In one respect only can the guessers be certain; a new leader of the liberal Party will be chosen only after much discussion and jockeying within the ranks.

When the general assembly of the United Nations opens in New York on September 16 there is good possibility that Canada will be elected to one of three vacancies that will then be available on the Security Council.

There are six non-permanent members on the Security Council and three are elected each year for a two-year term. Australia, Brazil and Poland are the three countries whose membership automatically expires at the end of this fiscal year.

It will be decided by the Dominion Cabinet very soon whether or not Canada will allow a delegate to stand for election. The chief reason why the Cabinet may not choose to run in the election is that there is a dearth of officials of the necessary high calibre for such a position. There is also the fact that, in the event of Canada being elected to a seat on the council, it would mean the two-year absence from the country of the official chosen as our delegate along with the necessary administrative staff.

There is every indication that if Canada chooses to run a candidate for a seat the delegate will receive substantial support from member nations of the U. N. O.

David B. Mansur, head of the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, the agency that has assumed most of the government's responsibility for housing, this week expressed the opinion that Ottawa was already building or backing the building of more than 20,000 homes, had some 40,000 under its wing and had reached the point where its ability to guarantee further priorities in materials had about ended.

This opinion was expressed by Mr. Mansur in view of the many calls upon the government to intervene in an attempt to ease the housing shortage. It is expected that by the fall of this year a good indication of the outlook on the housing front will be given. Already there has been record of refusals to buy at present prices. Either prices must drop to a great degree, the government must assist housing further by building homes for rent or sale on a subsidized basis or a sharp reduction in national income and employment must result if the demand for homes is to be lessened. Our economy is now beginning to level off after the impact of war and post-war periods and very soon we should see the hands pointing in the direction we must inevitably follow.

Experts of the Nation Research Council have perfected a magnetic airborne detector for the location of magnetic minerals. In this there is the possibility of revolutionizing the entire prospecting and mining industry of Canada. Ground surveys, taking years to complete can, under the new system, be completed in hours by air.

A certain amount of manual survey on the ground will have to be done as a follow-up to the air survey to consolidate findings recorded. This latest creation by Canadian science promises to change the complexion of the mining industry of Canada and, above all, expand it beyond all expectations.

Planters New $5,000 Float will be seen during The Associated Canadian Travellers Peanut Tag Day Parade here on Saturday. This will be the first time the Float has been in a Canadian Parade. Prizes will be given for guessing the number of peanuts on the float.

Ansonville-Iroquois Falls Matheson And District

The three towns in this community seem to be almost "ghost towns" these past few days. The current heat wave has made many people move to their summer cottages at nearby lakes and a large number of people are also away on their holidays.

The program of work on the tennis courts in Iroquois Falls is proceeding apace. The top and final layer of fine cinders has been laid and it is expected that the boundary taps will be put down within a couple of days. Much difficulty was experienced in purchasing a suitable net but it is our information that the net is now being manufactured. Tennis enthusiasts are eagerly awaiting the opening day of play.

We were particularly pleased to meet Mr. Andy Sarmiento on the street, Friday. Mr. Sarmiento is recovering from a severe illness which necessitated a stay of the past four weeks in the Anson General Hospital. Mr. "Bill" Bridge, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Spence recently. Mr. Bridge resided in Iroquois Falls in the early days and played hockey on one of the famous Eskimo hockey teams. "Bill", as he is affectionately known, is one of our more noted hockey players as he played many years for the Detroit and New York teams.

At its last regular session on August 5th, Calvert Municipal Council accepted the tender of Tri-City Garage for a model WB - 28 White truck equipped with hoist and steel dump body, subject to Department of Highways approval.

The truck will be subsequently equipped with a snow plow and under carriage hydraulic scraper as decision has been made to keep all streets and lanes clear of snow in Ansonville and Montrock in the future.

Miss Estelle Massicotte left Sunday evening for Toronto where she will spend five days at the Underwood Limited plant taking instructions on the operation of a book-keeping machine recently purchased by the Municipality.

Mr. Armand Proulx was a weekend visitor at Temiskaming, Quebec.

Dick Crumb of St. Catharines is visiting friends in Ansonville and Iroquois Falls. He is a guest of the W. J. Grummetts.

Walter Fortin who has recently been released from the Anson General Hospital after a motor traffic accident, enjoys taking walks after being out of circulation for about a month and a half. Unfortunately, Mrs. Jenny Seguin, wife of William Seguin is still in the hospital but progressing nicely. Mrs. Seguin was victim of the same accident.

Miss Adrienne Racine will be leaving on Thursday August 14th, for Chicago. She will then travel through the States through California and Mexico and stop over in New York on a sight seeing and pleasure tour.

The Canadian Legion held their annual picnic at Child's Beach last Sunday. Ideal weather permitted a large crowd to attend and everyone had a grand time.

LEARNING REFRIGERATION
ONTARIO'S productive capacity is the measure of her future prosperity. To assure this province a prominent place in domestic and foreign trade markets, skilled hands are needed. Increased production of refrigeration units will mean a greater need for skilled servicing. Veterans, basically trained in schools and ON THE JOB, will fill this need as they are absorbed into industry. For those who have mastered skilled occupations, higher wages, job security and better working conditions are within easier reach.
Through plans sponsored by the Department of Veterans Affairs and other agencies, hundreds of young workers are being trained for refrigeration servicing. Graduates of training schools are ready now to take their places in industry. Craftsmen of the future, they will have a share in Ontario's progress—an important part to play in her industrial development.
