Sangster — Barrette Nuptials Held At Notre Dame De Lourdes Parish

In Notre Dame de Lourdes Church against a chancel banked with flowers and fern and soft candlelight the marriage of Annette Barrette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Barrette and Angus Sangster, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. Sangster was solemnized this morning. The young couple spoke their wedding vows before Father Perron and soft strains of the organ played by Mrs. P. Piche formed the musical part of the ceremony. During the signing of the register Mrs. Aline Gauthier sang Ave Maria and other hymns.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage and was lovely in a gown of white French lace styled with fitted bodice, a net yoke with a ruffle of lace forming an off the shoulder effect, long sheath-tight sleeves coming to a point over the hand and a graceful skirt falling into a long train. A headdress of ruffled lace and flowers caught the long veil of silk net, beautifully embroidered, and a bouquet of red roses added a rich touch of color.

Mrs. A. Matachski, matron of honor, wore a gown of pale blue taffeta fashioned with sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves trimmed with tiny bows and a softly gathered skirt, with a picture hat of white straw, trimmed with blue streamers. She wore long white gloves and carried a dainty basket of assorted flowers.

Miss Florence Vaillancourt, Miss Edna Sangster and Miss Simone Barrette, bridesmaids wore similarly designed gowns in shades of turquoise, daffodil yellow and blush pink. They had matching hats of tiered ruffles trimmed with sprigs of tiny flowers, matching gloves and carried white baskets of assorted flowers.

Miss Pauline Barrette, as junior bridesmaid wore a gown of powder blue taffeta fashioned with sweetheart neckline cap sleeves with tiny bows and a softly gathered skirt. A matching headdress of tiered ruffles with sprigs of flowers, long gloves and a white basket of assorted flowers completed her ensemble.

Miss Noella Barrette was the brides train-bearer and wore a gown of canary yellow taffeta styled with fitted bodice, cap sleeves and a flounced skirt caught at the front hemline with tiny bows of mauve and yellow. She wore a matching hat of tiered ruffles and long gloves.

Alphonse Matachski and Bill Sangster, brother of the groom were best men and the ushers were Lorne Matachski, Ted Meunier, Aurele Daigle, and Orville Lalapale.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast followed by a reception was held at the McIntosh Hotel, McIntosh Springs, where the bride's mother received wearing a two piece suit of black and white polka dots with a hat of black trimmed with fuschia feathers, fuschia gloves and a corsage of red roses.

The young couple will take up residence at 162 Cedar street N. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ouellette, North Bay and Mrs. L. Menard, Sudbury.

Gifts to the attendants were nylon hoses to the matron of honor and bridesmaids, a gold-filled locket and chain to the train-bearer and ties to the groomsmen and the ushers.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Mrs. Barrette.

McArthur — Pexton Wedding In Church Of The Nativity

Monday morning in the Church of the Nativity, a wedding service took place in a setting of gladioli, Chrysanthemums and candlelight, when Rev. J. R. O'Gorman united in marriage Winnifred Joan Pexton, daughter of Mrs. Anna Pexton and Reginald Dean McArthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. John McArthur. Miss Claire Vachon played the organ and during the signing of the register Leo Barrette and Miss Evelyn Pexton sang Nuptial Wishes.

The bride given in marriage by her godfather, Mr. Albert Kendall, was charming in a street length dress of Alice blue crepe with cowl neckline of French lace, fitted bodice and the skirt featuring a fashionable side drape. She wore a large picture hat of black, black accessories and corsage of roses and angle strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Miss Yvette Caron was bridesmaid and wore a smart afternoon dress of dusty rose trimmed with sequins, a black ribbon hat and accessories, and corsage of pink roses.

The best man was Bert Burwell. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of bride's mother who welcomed the many guests wearing an afternoon dress of navy blue, a navy hat trimmed with feathers of fuschia and corsage of red roses. Pouring tea were Mrs. A. Caron, Mrs. L. Belanger and Miss Marie Belanger.

For the wedding trip to Toronto and other Southern points the bride donned a smart black and white checked suit with grey accessories. On their return they will reside at 82 Cameron street North.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. Caron, Hearst and Mr. Bert Burwell of Noranda.

Gifts to the attendants was a sterling silver glamor pin studded with rhinestones fashioned in the form of a cross to the bridesmaid and a wallet to the groomsmen.

The big question for every young man to answer...

WHAT WILL YOU BE WORTH IN 1977?

Any spirited young man has no fear for the future. He's determined to "get some place" and earn a good income.

That's as it should be. But experience shows that the men who have built up estates on the firmest foundation are those who steadfastly invested part of each year's earnings in life insurance.

For years they and their dependents have enjoyed the peace of mind that comes from financial security. Mortgages have been paid off and children educated. Now these men are taking life easy.

What of yourself? What do you plan to be worth in 1977?

Write for our booklet "Retiring in Comfort". It tells how much you need to invest each year to get the retirement income you desire.
