DOWN OUR STREET

Red, brown, and yellow, the dry leaves hiss;
The sunshine glitters, the air is crisp.
Down our street, yours, and over all —
There is no lovelier time than Fall.

When each vein tingles
And pulses lift
And leaf-smoke mingles
With scents that drift
From grapevine arbor
And orchard lane
And bins that harbor
The golden grain.

So take your rake as you join your neighbor
In friendly talk and in zestful labor,
For Summer's over and Autumn's mood
Is work that's hardy — and he-man fond,
When the days are tonic — and nights require
The chummy warmth of an open fire.
The year is aging, yet, after all,
There is no lovelier time than Fall.

Congratulations to Miss Anne Madepa and Clare Connelly who were awarded the scholarships given by the Women's Institute for students at the Timmins High and Vocational School who excel in sewing and woodwork during the year. Miss Skelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Skelly, 34 Sixth Avenue is well known in musical circles and has been the organist at St. Matthew's for a number of years. A graduate of the Toronto Conservatory of Music Miss Leach holds an A.T.C.M. degree. The young musician is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Leach, 43 Cambrai Avenue. She also plans to teach piano, theory and voice.

Miss Mary Zudel, another highly talented musician has left for the Royal Conservatory of Music where she will take piano lessons with Miss Margaret Miller Brown, internationally famous musician. Miss Zudel has passed her grade ten piano examinations with first class honours. Until recently she was a brilliant pupil of Lyell Gustin in Saskatoon. While in that city Mary also studied voice under Mrs. Morrison, in this, she also obtained first class honours and passed her grade ten examinations.

A distinguished visitor to the Porcupine is Mrs. R. Webb, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Ontario who is making her official visit to the district lodges. Mrs. Webb will be accompanied by Mrs. Joe Miller of South Porcupine, district deputy. They will attend the regular Lodge session this evening. A delightfully arranged social evening and program has been planned following the business session.

So much has been said, written and sung about sunsets that one is apt to cast them aside as trite, forgetting that regardless of eulogies and effusions a sunset is a present glorious actuality. One thinks perhaps of twilight in terms of color. The change and interchange of reds and golds and purples. One may recall a sunset painting its image on some northern lake, when the woods lay dark and still and only a loon had the temerity to laugh; Or one may think of its blending with the ocean in exquisite loveliness; or making fiery background for church domes and college spires, or, as a great bird spanning the prairie with glory in its wings.

But sunset is more than color. As one watches twilight deepens to amber radiance fading into tints of rose and opal to lose itself among the evening stars, one is conscious of a deep sense of peace. It were as though the Giver of day left His benediction in the quiet skies, and with it sweet promise of renewal.
