Pretty Ceremony As Anne Kociscak Wed Recently To George Vasko

First United Church decorated with Autumn flowers and fern was the setting for one of the season's loveliest weddings recently when Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kociscak was united in marriage to George Vasko, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Vasko of St. Catherines.

The young couple spoke their wedding vows before Rev. Brondos and Clifford Jucksch, the organist, played traditional wedding music. During the signing of the register Miss Yvonne Essa sang O Perfect Love.

The lovely bride escorted down the aisle on the arm of her father wore a gown of white satin fashioned with fitted bodice, long tight fitting sleeves coming to points over the wrist and a nylon net yoke trimmed with a ruffle of lace forming an off the shoulder effect. The softly moulded skirt fell into a brief chapel train. Her veil of white net, beautifully embroidered and edged with lace billowed into a train and fell from a high flowered crown and she carried a cascade of white and red roses caught with white satin streamers.

She was attended by Miss Anne Novotny as maid of honor and was gowned in pale green nylon styled with low V-neckline, puffed sleeves and a full bouffant skirt. She wore a heart-shaped headdress, matching mittens and carried a bouquet of yellow roess circled with baby chrysanthemums.

Miss Anne Kovach, bridesmaid, was frocked in a gown of mauve nylon featuring a fitted bodice, short puffed sleeves and softly gathered skirt. She wore matching mittens, a heart shaped headdress and carried a bouquet of yellow mums and roses.

Miss Mary Madzo of St. Catharines as bridesmaid chose for the occasion a gown of blue brocaded nylon fashioned with sweetheart neckline, full puffed sleeves and bouffant skirt. Matching gloves and a heart shaped headdress and a bouquet of pink roses and mums completed the ensemble.

Miss Sue Gotch, bridesmaid, was frocked in daffodil yellow taffeta styled with fitted bodice, an off the shoulder neckline with ruffle and very full skirt. She wore a heart shaped headdress of matching material, matching mittens and carried a bouquet of mauve mums.

Miss Betty Cunik, bridesmaid, wore a gown of pink net over taffeta featuring a square cut neckline, with a gathered ruffle forming an off the shoulder effect and softly gathered skirt. Matching mittens, a heart shaped headdress and a bouquet of pink baby mums and roses completed the ensemble.

Miss Mary Kociscak, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and was gowned for the occasion in forget-me-not blue taffeta, fashioned with moulded basque and a frill forming an off the shoulder effect and bouffant skirt tied at the back with a large bow. She wore a wreath of pink roses in her hair and carried an old fashioned nosegay of pink roses.

Little Margaret Kociscak, young sister of the bride was ring bearer and wore a frock of all white taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, puffed sleeves and bouffant skirt with ruffled hemline. She wore a crown of white flowers in her hair and carried a heart shaped cushion of satin on which reposed the wedding ring.

Assistant ring bearer was Andy Kovach, who wore white flannel trousers, a jacket of navy blue and white carnation boutonniere.

The groomsman was John Vasko and ushers were Alex Zakorchak, St. Catharines, Alex Ristich, Toronto, John Hitar, St. Catharines, Steve Getler, St. Cathairnes and John Kovach.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Romanian Hall where the many guests were welcomed by the bride's mother wearing a fashionable afternoon dress of black crepe with sequin trim, black accessories and corsage of American Beauty roses. The groom's mother, who also received, wore a smart afternoon dress of Parma Violet with black accessories and red rose corsage.

Pouring tea were Mrs. Chlebus, Mrs. Koretz and Mrs. Poliak.

Later, the bride and groom left for a trip to Niagara Falls, Toronto and other Southern points. For travelling the bride donned a suit of brown gabardine with brown accessories and corsage of red roses.

On their return they will take up residence in St. Catharines.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Vasko, Mr. and Mrs. Valko, Mr. and Mrs. Benedicti and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Getler, Mr. and Mrs. Nemchko, Alex Zakorchak, John Hitar, Steve Getler and Miss Mary Madzo all of St. Catharines and Alex Restich of Toronto.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained at a miscellaneous shower by her bridal attendants at the home of Miss Anne Novotny, 65 Toke street.

Recent Ceremony Marks Hornell — Niddery Vows

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized recently in the manse of First United Church, when Dorothy Niddery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Niddery, 84 Balsam street South, became the bride of James Hornell, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hornell, Corner of Kirby and Balsam street South.

Rev. Wm. Mustard officiated.

The bride was charming in an afternoon dress of pale blue, the yoke trimmed with sequins. She wore long black gloves, an off the face hat of black felt and a corsage of red roses.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Betty Niddery, who chose an afternoon dress of rose crepe with black accessories and corsage of white carnations.

Leon McFarlane was groomsman.

Following the ceremony the home of the bride's parents was the setting of the reception. The bride's mother received wearing an aftrnoon dress of pink and black printed crepe with black accessories and corsage of pink roses.

The young couple have taken up residence at 118 Balsam street S.

Floraine Jenkins Becomes Bride of Robert Fletcher

Midst a setting of Autumn flowers and candlelight Floraine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jenkins, 202 Elm street N., was united in marriage on Tuesday to Robert Fletcher, son of Mrs. Robert James Fletcher and the late Mr. Fletcher.

The ceremony was performed in the First United Church and wedding vows were spoken by the young couple before Rev. Wm. Mustard. Mr. Herbert Treneer, the organist, played traditional wedding music.

Entering the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage, the bride was lovely in a gown of white bengaline styled with nylon bodice featuring an angelic neckline, long tight fitting sleeves coming to points over the hand and a bouffant skirt. Her three quarter length veil fell in graceful folds from a Queen Anne headdress and she carried a bouquet of red roses, and wore the gift of the groom, a double strand of pearls with matching earrings.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Betty Jenkins of Toronto, who wore a gown of coral nylon fashioned with low decolletage, fitted bodice and full skirt. Her headdress was a wreath of pink flowers from which fell a matching shoulder length veil and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The best man was Mr. Don Howe.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the bride's mother received the guests, wearing an afternoon dress of lime green crepe with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother, who also received, wore an afternoon dress of grey crepe with black accessories and red rose corsage.

Pouring tea were Mrs. E. Gignac and Mrs. Arnold Payette.

The young couple will take up residence at the Delnite Mines Property.

Gifts to the attendants were a locket and earrings to the bridesmaid and to the groomsman a sterling silver cigaret case.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Mrs. Jack Howe and Mrs. Don Gillespie.

Mr. Norwood Packart of Iroquois Falls spent the weekend with friends in town.

Anita Vezina is Bride Of Raymond Maisonneuve

The marriage took place on Tuesday morning in the Church of Notre Dame de Lourdes, of Anita, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vezina, 1 Way Ave., to Raymond Maisonneuve, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Maisonneuve, Sturgeon Falls.

The altars of the church were beautifully decorated with lighted candles shining softly over standards of Autumn flowers and fern and wedding vows were spoken before Father Perron. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Paul Piche and during the signing of the register Miss Agathe Chartrand sang Ave Maria and Panis Angelicus.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was radiant in a gown of white satin and French lace styled with satin bodice, long sheath-tight sleeves coming to points over the wrists and a lace yoke with band of satin forming an off the shoulder effect.

The front of the yoke also featured a large rose and petals of white satin. The skirt was bouffant. Her three quarter length veil of white net fell gracefully from a crown of lace and satin and she carried a colonial bouquet of salmon colored roses caught with long streamers of tulle covered with rosebuds.

She was attended by Mrs. Rene Vezina as matron of honor, who wore a frock of pink sheer with moulded basque, Bishop sleeves and sweetheart neckline. The skirt was softly gathered. She wore a Mary Queen of Scots headdress and carried an arm bouquet of pink and blue roses.

Miss Georgette Vezina, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, chose for the occasion a gown of blue sheer, fashioned with fitted bodice long sleeves and full skirt. She wore a Mary Queen of Scots headdress and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations.

Canada's Finest IN THE SERVICE OF THE PUBLIC

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Nov. 11th—On this day we pause to honour the memory of those who made the supreme sacrifice. Let us honour, too, the great contribution the Veteran has made to our civilization, our country, and our very lives.

Men like this, Canada's finest, have served the world.
