

Lovely Ceremony As Carmen Dupuis Becomes Bride of Stanley Robson

Woman's Auxiliary Bazaar, Tea, Highly Successful

The Women Association of Trinity United Church held their annual Christmas tea and home baking bazaar at the basement of the church Wednesday afternoon and evening.

The hall, attractively decorated with Christmas decorations, a large Christmas tree with tinsel and coloured lights was in the center of the hall. Mrs. James MacKenzie received the guests at the door.

The large tea table was very attractive. The centre piece was a miniature Christmas tree decorated while around the base of the tree were painted pine cones in bright colors. There were red candles in silver holders.

Pouring tea were Mrs. Calverley and Mrs. Bert Waite, Mrs. S. Kitchen was tea convener and serving the tea tables were Mrs. Tom MacKenzie, Mrs. George Leck, Mrs. Fred Davidson, Mrs. Harvey Laine and Mrs. Stan Shippam.

The bake table had a large selection of delicious home baking and did brisk business. Serving the bake table were Mrs. George Shippam, Mrs. James Strrat and Mrs. Ed Chernesky.

The work table was under convener-ship of Mrs. McCarthy. It had a lovely selection of knitted and embroidered work for sale. Convening tables were Mrs. Byron, Mrs. Stuart Urquhart, Mrs. Walter Craik, Mrs. Tom Moore, Sr., Mrs. Dave Killens.

The fish pond was a big attraction with Miss Jessie MacKenzie in charge. The kitchen conveners were Mrs. Jack Mathew, Mrs. Alex Stirling, Mrs. Peace and Mrs. Sandy Fulton.

In the evening from 7 to 9 p.m. The Women's Association served pie and coffee. The ladies express their thanks to all who donated and helped to make the event such a success.

Regular Weekly Meeting Held by Y.P.U. First United

The regular weekly meeting of the First United Young Peoples Union was held Wednesday, November 26 in the church basement. The meeting opened with a rousing sing-song of old favourites, led by Sarah Getty with Mr. H. Trener at the piano.

The business portion of the evening opened with the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting by Betty Webber, secretary. Announcement was made of the program annual, a young peoples' handbook, and it was decided to buy an extra copy for the additional use of the conveners. Members were reminded of the United Church calendars, which were distributed a few weeks ago to be sold.

The worship service was led by Genneth Miller and Neil Welton.

The main event of the evening was a discussion on the four books of the Bible, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, with Reita Magor, Helen Rogers, Percy Eade and Vernon Smith as the four men, respectively. The leader of the discussion was Genneth Miller.

The vestry of St. Alphonsus Roman Catholic Church was the setting for a lovely wedding on Tuesday afternoon when Carmen, daughter of Mrs. J. Dupuis was united in marriage to Stanley Robson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Robson.

Father Hugh Martindale officiated.

The bride was radiant in a gown of traditional white satin and nylon fashioned with a moulded bodice of satin trimmed around the neckline with satin flowers of cut work and seed pearls. The skirt was softly gathered and was fashioned of nylon. Her veil of net was beautifully embroidered and fell in graceful folds from a sculptured coronet of net trimmed with bugle beads and she carried a cascade of red roses and white chrysanthemums in miniature. She also wore the gift of the groom, a single strand of pearls.

She was attended by Miss Mollie Robson, sister of the groom, as maid of honor who wore a gown of mist blue tulle featuring a sweetheart neckline, moulded bodice and pannered skirt trimmed with bows of blue velvet. She wore a small blue tulle hat with shoulder length veil and carried a shower bouquet of yellow mums.

Miss Mildred Mirkovich was bridesmaid and chose a gown of turquoise green crepe styled with fitted bodice, a V-shaped neckline and draped skirt. She wore a braided headdress from which fell a shoulder length veil and carried a shower bouquet of pink mums.

The groom was attended by Tommy Scullion and Gill Dupuis. Following the ceremony a dinner was held for members of the immediate family. The bride's table was festive with large bouquets of multi-colored flowers, lighted candles and a large three tiered wedding cake.

In the evening a reception was held for their many friends and guests were welcomed by the bride's mother, wearing an afternoon dress of turquoise colored crepe with brown accessories and corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother, who also received, wore an afternoon dress of black with a yoke of turquoise blue embossed with silver, a black hat trimmed with turquoise feathers and a corsage of white mums.

Out of town guests were Mrs. J. Dupuis and Mr. Gill Dupuis of Cochrane. Gifts to the attendants were compact to the maid of honor and bridesmaid and gold filled key chains to the groomsmen.

The young couple has taken up residence on First avenue.
