Play Successful

A four act humorous play was put on in the Oddfellows Hall, Thursday afternoon and evening by residents of Carr Township, entitled "Here Comes Charlie". It was a stormy evening and it had not been advertised locally, despite that, it was well attended. To the players on the cast great credit is due as they lived so far apart they had only practiced three times together but it went on without a noticeable flaw. Perhaps the part of Uncle Alex, swigs taken by Mrs. Dupont of Matheson and Charlie Hobbs, by Miss A. Wilson deserve honourable mention as the most humorous, but they all put on a good performance. Mrs. Farnham played by Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. Smith Kersey — Miss Jane Scott; Maid Nora — Mary Jane Barber, Miss Vivian — Isabel Barber, Larry Elliott — Ed. Layton, Ted Hartley — Hamilton Wilson, Mortimer by Lawrence Alarie, Policeman — Carlisle Wilson. Director, Mrs. E. Wilson, Teacher of Carr School. Proceeds for the school equipment.

Joint Lodges Hold Party

The party sponsored by the Rebecca and Oddfellows Lodges of Matheson in the I.O.O.F. Hall, Monday March 29th, was a great success, about one hundred and fifty children were present. The younger children came at 7 p.m. and played games etc. until 8:30 p.m. when the Teen-Agers took over. The Teen-Agers danced to the music of a Victrola. Lunch was served soon after eleven o'clock for the older group the younger ones also had a lunch consisting of sandwiches, cake and biscuits, chocolate or plain milk or tea. Master Kenneth Hewitt gave a brief address thanking those responsible for the good time and calling for three cheers. At the close of the Dance, God Save the King was played.

Mr. Fedor Doucette of Richmond Hill spent a week in Matheson with his parents returning Sunday last.

The condition of Mr. F. Prince has improved sufficiently for him to return to his farm home a few miles out of Matheson.

While carrying a pail of water, Mr. George Jacobs of Wembley Farms, Shillington, fell, striking his elbow on the ice and dislocating his shoulder, tearing the ligaments and hurting his head. He was taken to Matheson for medical aid where at Rosedale Memorial Hospital an x-ray revealed the extent of his injury later he was removed to Timmins for further treatment.

One of Matheson's grand young couples Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Smith celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary at their home here. They were at home to receive their many friends who came to extend congratulations and best wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Smith came to Matheson in the early days living first in Matheson.

Iroquois Falls-Ansonville And Montrock

The Iroquois Falls-Ansonville Kinsmen Club held Charter Night for the local Kinnette Club on Saturday, April 3rd.

Festivities got under way in the K.C. Hall with a banquet served by the Catholic Women's League. The President of the Kinsmen Club, Roy Carroll, acted as master of ceremonies and rendered the official club welcome to the visitors and guests.

Immediately following the banquet the ceremony of inducting the Charter members was begun. Each Kinnette Officer was installed in her respective office by a Kinsman and advantage was taken of the occasion to exact all types of promises from the ladies. Kinnette President, Lillian Collingwood, was installed by Ivan Collingwood, who was the Charter President of the Kinsmen Club when it was formed in 1945.

Kinnette Vice-President Alice Carroll was installed by Past President Cliff Olliver. The treasurer's Catherine Brandreth received her badge of office from Jack Brandreth. Kinnette Secretary Phyllis Hurley was sworn in by Jack Hurley. The Club Registrar Erin Grills received her "instructions" from Monty Stevens. The Kinnette Publicity Officer was posted to her office by Elmo Lefebvre and the Social Convenor, Jessie Mitchell, was read into office by Mike Mitchell. Bill Grills officiated at the induction of the remaining members into the Kinnette Club.

This initiation of charter proceedings set a precedent in the annals of Kinsmanship because the Kinnette Association is not actually a unit organization and thus no charter, in the true sense of the word, is bestowed on a Kinnette Club. The many Kinnette Clubs in Canada are not considered as Auxiliaries of Kin Clubs rather they are formed to assist the Kinsmen in their programs of community welfare.

During the banquet and the Charter ceremony a few short speeches were given by Mrs. Rhea Thompkins, Mrs. Corinne Evans, Mrs. Ted Kitts and Mrs. Estelle Harrison. The general trend of these speeches was one of congratulations, best wishes and welcome to the new Kinnette Club.

The Governor of District No. 8, Russ Thompkins also spoke briefly. He expressed his pleasure at being present and gave a humorous message to the Kinnettes.

Following the official part of the evening, entertainment and dancing were enjoyed by all until late evening. The entire party was handled by a committee under the chairmanship of Bill Grills.

Among those attending were: From Kirkland Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Russ Thompkins, Mr. and Mrs. Mort Soanes, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Evans, Mr. and Mrs. George Black, From Timmins: Mr. and Mrs. Ellet Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harrison. Among the members of the local club were Mr. and Mrs.
