THE CURLER

"Who's that stranger, mother dear—
Look, he knows us, ain't he queer?"
"Hush, my own, don't talk so wild;
That's your father, dearest child;
"That's my father? Not at all;
Father died away last fall."
"Father didn't die, you dub;
Father joined the curling club.
Now the club is closed so he
Has no place to go, you see.
No place left for him to roam,
That's why he's coming home.
Kiss him, he won't bite you, child;
All them curling guys look wild."

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Bruneau, 14 Helen street, entertained a number of their friends prior to their attending the very successful Garage Operators' Association Dance held Friday evening in the McIntyre Community Building. . . . Guests included Mayor Karl Eyre and Mrs. Eyre, Mr. and Mrs. William Doran and Mrs. and Mrs. Wilfred Spooner.

House guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Spooner 44 Toke street, are Mrs. John Richards and son Michael, of Sudbury.

There were many very smart and lovely dresses worn by the ladies at the Garage Operators' Association Dance on Friday evening. . . . particularly noticed, Mrs. Karl Eyre in printed jersey on a black background. . . . and wearing a gorgeous dinner ring featuring a large square cut amethyst. . . . Anne Holjevac in a black Chi-Chi crepe dress with peggop skirt, trimmed with a beautiful embossed gold filled buckle as its effective trim.

Recently the gentlemen of the choir of First United Church undertook to entertain the ladies in a most hilarious and novel manner and in so doing proceeded to gain for themselves a reputation as "entertainers de luxe". First they transformed the basement of the church into a cafe giving it the quaint name of "The Greasy Spoon". They prepared the supper themselves and while serving the ladies they wore white jackets and sported jet black moustaches. During the dinner they entertained their guests by singing several numbers. . . . and as a final gesture brought forth. . . . of all things. . . . a snake charmer. The instigators of the affair included Gerald Doughty, Charles Wicks, Arthur Tobey, Fred Barnes, Chester Jury, Clarence Horlock and Ed. Wilson. Herbert Treener, ably assisted by leading the group in a rousing sing song.

Guests included Mrs. M. Irvin, Mrs. R. Dunn, Mrs. S. Whitehead, Mrs. D. E. Coombes, Miss Rita Magor, Miss Vivian Jordison, Miss Christine McKeracher, Miss Helen Rogers, Miss Betty Webber, Miss Clare Banham, Miss Sarah Getty and Miss Genneth Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Bannings, 211 Maple street South entertained at a delightfully arranged dinner party on Sunday evening in honor of Miss Teresa Belec whose marriage to Cy Copsps will take place on Saturday in Nipigon. The dining table presented a most inviting aspect with lovely cloth centered with a rose bowl of sweetpeas and fern and ivory tapers in branch candelabra. Those present were Rev. J. A. Callaghan, Rev. F. B. Murray, Mrs. A. M. Callaghan, Mrs. D. M. Belec, Mrs. R. W. Copsps, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Banning, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Banning, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shantz, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Copsps, Mrs. A. Van Rassel, Mrs. Claire Chenier, Miss Vivian Pierce and Johnny Belec.

Mrs. Tommy Godin, 279 Tamarack street, entertained at a charmingly arranged miscellaneous shower during the weekend in honor of Miss Teresa Belec, bride-elect of this Saturday. A most enjoyable evening was spent socially and the honoree was presented with a number of very lovely gifts for her new home. . . . Those present were Mrs. A. Van Rassel, Mrs. A. Ouellette, Mrs. Jim . . .

Mother, Son Banquet At Mountjoy United A Delightful Affair

A most enjoyable Mother and Son banquet was held during the weekend at Mountjoy United Church with 58 mothers and sons in attendance. Guest speaker of the evening was Gower Markle, advisor and secretary of the local YMCA who gave a most interesting address on the work, the aims and future plans of the organization.

Highlighting the evening was the entertaining program given by the boys consisting of a piano solo by Billy Aide, a concert solo by John MacLeod, a vocal solo by Lorne Thompson and a violin solo by Robert Hurst. The Trail Ranger boys performed in a skit "Defeating Gravity" in which parts were played to perfection by Bob Howey, Glen Harpell, Kay Dundas, Edgar Brown, Jim Campbell and Lorne and Jim Thompson.

A rousing sing song was led by Mr. Markle accompanied at the piano by Mrs. C. Wilkins. A toast to "Our Mothers," was proposed by Jim Thompson and this was responded to by Mrs. W. Dundas; a toast to "Our Church and Sunday School" was proposed by Glen Harpell to which L. J. Rowland, superintendent of the Sunday School responded. Mr. B. Howey extended a vote of thanks to the mothers and the girls who served the banquet. As the banquet coincided with the birthday of Rev. E. Gilmore Smith, the popular pastor of Mountjoy was greeted with the singing of "The Birthday Song". Kodachromes were shown by Mr. Wilkins and these were much enjoyed also. Following the evening was brought to a close with one and all singing "Auld Lang Syne".

The mothers committee which organized the banquet was composed of Mrs. W. Phillips, Mrs. K. Greatrex, Mrs. A. E. Humphries, Mrs. G. Rutherford, Mrs. H. Freeman and Mrs. S. Edleston. The C. G. I. T. girls who served the tables were Carolee Church, Norma MacInnis, Elva Hayes, Jean Newell and Adele Gouette.

Mother and sons attending were Mrs. Harvey Freeman and Dennis, Mrs. George Young and George Jr., Mrs. William Wallace and Billy, Mrs. Clark Gorrie, Ronald and Douglas, Mrs. Wesley Dundas and Kay, Ronald and Wayne, Mrs. E. M. Drury and Nell, Mrs. Webb and Fred, Mrs. DeMille and Bob and George Howey, Mrs. M. McIntosh and Gordon, Mrs. H. Mc

Miss Phyllis Charron, talented musician daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Charron, 101 Maple street North returned recently from studying at the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto. However, Phyllis isn't holidaying. . . . she is still studying. . . . her one and main ambition is to become a concert pianist and already this brilliant young artist is carving a name for herself in the best musical circles. . . . She has been guest performer in a number of places in Ontario and while here will appear on one of the local radio programs.

It was with much regret that we learned of the death of Mrs. Douglas Jones who died on Tuesday evening in the Barrie Hospital at Barrie, Ontario, after an illness of long duration. . . . The late Mrs. Jones was a well known figure in Cobalt where she and her husband resided from 1907 until 1917. From there she and her family came to the Porcupine and for many years were residents of Schumacher. . . . Survivors are her husband and two daughters, Mrs. Grace Hall, and Mrs. Rita Mackie of Timmins, three grandchildren Douglas and Helen Hall and William Mackie and one great grandchild Peter Hall.

Our very best wishes are extended today to Teresa Belec who leaves this evening for Nipigon where her marriage to Cy Copsps will take place on Saturday. Teresa will be accompanied by her mother and Mrs. R. W. Copsps who will be present at the ceremony.

Princess Alice Club Are Planning Operetta "The Pied Piper"

The April meeting of the Princess Alice Club was held at the home of Mrs. I. T. Brill, 113 Tamarack street. In the absence of Mrs. L. Labow, the president, Mrs. M. B. Hill acted as chairman.

Mrs. R. Eddy read the financial report, the minutes of the previous meeting and the correspondence. Reports were also read from the various conveners and from the committee of the annual Spring dance.

The members had the privilege of seeing two films on cancer which were most interesting and educational, and which stressed the urgency of an early diagnosis and treatment. It was decided to send a cheque to the Canadian Cancer Society.

Mrs. C. R. MacLean was appointed chairman for the musical production "The Pied Piper" which is sponsored and will be presented by members of the club. Other members of the committees are Mrs. W. Alexander, advertising, Mrs. G. Chenier, scenery; Mrs. W. Eccleston, make-up, Mrs. O. R. Kenzie, costumes, Mrs. D. J. Rowe, theatre; Mrs. T. W. Verity, publicity and Mrs. W. A. White, instrumentation.

When the meeting adjourned, Mrs. Brill, the hostess served a dainty lunch of tea, small cookies and cakes.

Those present were Mrs. W. A. White, Mrs. C. Allen, Mrs. H. Ostroszer, Mrs. J. T. Gauthier, Mrs. J. E. Barnard, Mrs. J. Wyatt, Mrs. F. Woodbury, Mrs. H. Freeman, Mrs. J. D. Hope, Mrs. G. B. Lane, Mrs. W. Alexander, Mrs. H. C. Campbell, Mrs. J. H. Stovel, Mrs. E. Baderski, Mrs. F. H. Bowman, Mrs. T. W. Verity, Mrs. J. B. Sutherland, Mrs. W. J. Brissenden, Mrs. T. S. Taylor, Mrs. R. Eddy, Mrs. E. A. Dobson, Mrs. M. B. Hill, Mrs. G. C. Campbell, Mrs. J. W. Thomson, Mrs. C. G. Motherwell, Mrs. W. Eccleston, Mrs. O. R. Kenzie, Mrs. G. C. Gauthier, Mrs. R. E. Anderson and Mrs. D. G. Rowe.

Across the Dominion, even as you read this, thousands of travellers are speeding to their destinations on board trains of the Canadian National. Famous trains, such as The Continental Limited and The Ocean Limited, are spanning the distances from the Pacific and the Prairie Provinces to Eastern Canada and the Atlantic. The International Limited, The Inter-City Limited, The Washingtonian and The Montrealer, are typifying Canadian National's importance as an International carrier. Dependable "locals" are performing the undramatic but essential job of serving the "in between" points, and providing branch line connections with the fast Express trains.

These are the trains, covering more than two million miles each month, that make up the Railway "Blue Book" of Canada — The System Time Tables of the C.N.R. The "Blue Book" is your "passport" to everywhere in Canada, or across the Border be your journey for business or pleasure, for an hour, a day, overnight or longer.
