OLD MARINER

On deep purple nights the mournful fog horn's cry Will pierce his sleep far easier than the mist, To waken again his aching for the sky Dark browed and starless with a wind to twist And whine among his gray ships moaning spars And--the sleepless nights will mean far more than sleep To one whose sea torn heart still yearns for scars To mark some hard earned battle with the foaming deep. -- But dawn will com e and peace, the battered ship will lie Quietly upon a windless sea.

While through the stillness a lone gulls cry Mocks the storms terrible intensity. Only one place will harbor the nights unrest The longing in the land bound mariners breast. Lillian O'Donnell.

On Saturday afternoon the home of Miss Jean McChesney. 20 Hart street was the scene of a charmingly arranged tea and presentation in honor of Miss Gerry Turcotte. Co-hostess was Miss Hilda Stephenson. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent and later tea was served from a table attractively centred with a large African violet flanked by daffodil yellow candles in branch candleabra. Miss Mary Adams poured tea.

Following the serving of tea the girls presented Gerry with a handsome silver meat fork and an English bone china cream pitcher.

Guests were Mrs. Jack Scott, Mrs. Graham Dunlop, Miss Marge Nelson, Miss Rosemarie Martin, Miss Mary Adams, Miss Ruth Osborn, Miss Ethel Marshall and Miss Lee Murray. • * * *

The home of Mrs. G. Morris, 210 Spruce street N., was the setting for a delightfully arranged tea. Among the guests who spent a most enjoyable afternoon were, Mrs. E. Montgomery Mrs. J. Pelletier, Mrs. R. Moore, Mrs. J. Morrow, Miss Jean Cowan, Mrs. D. Ellis, Mrs. W. Hitch and Mrs. A. Dunbabin.

Among the many who are entertaining at a series of vanishing teas for the local Girl Guide Association was Mrs. C. Wurm, 264 Spruce street N. Guests who spent a delightful afternoon were Mrs. Len McKerrow, Mrs. Gordon Beacock, Mrs. Arthur Bates, Mrs. Walter Blair and Miss Jean Blair.

SUNDAY IS MOTHER'S DAY... and always her thoughts are for others; their comfort, their welfare and, above all, their happiness. She never considers her own pleasure first; she delights in doing the little things that make life run smoothly; she's never too tired nor busy to listen to her children.

SHE IS MOTHER. . . a name without equal anywhere, in any language. Because sons and daughters know they should say more than "thank you" occasionally, they have chosen a special day to show their love and appreciation in a tangible form, as well as constantly in their hearts. Therefore -- Sunday, May 9 is "Mother's Day".

It was Anna Jarvis of Philidelphia who started the idea, and the first observation was in 1910. The first national proclamation was in 1914 with the late Fresident Woodrow Wilson designating the second Sunday in May as "Mother's Day". spreading the same year to Canada, South America, Africa, China, Japan, Mexico and European countries. A day that has shown it has heart and living interest for all classes, races, creeds, native and foreign-born, high and low, rich and poor, churchman and scoffer, man, woman and child is "Mother's Day". The common possession of the living world is a Mother. Everyone has. . . or has had. . . a Mother.

So on Sunday Mother's all over the continent will receive homage of their sons and daughters. Gifts will be surrounded by a wealth of love and devotion. For whose mother's are still with them, the red carnation is the accepted flower to wear; and for the others a white blossom. Many people never have known their own mother's but still have all the joy of mother love, for they have lived and grown in the warmth and devotion of those selfless women "fostermothers".

So Sunday for those whose mother's are still with them it is a joyous occasion, and one of thanksgiving and the counting of blessings; for those whose mothers have passed on it is time for remembrance and thankfulness of having had the love and care she so lavishly showered upon them in her years among her children. Therefore Sunday she receives tribute and remembrance.

Popular Gerry Turcotte who left over the weekend for her nome town of Sturgeon Falls was entertained at a delightfully arranged farewell dinner at the McIntyre Community Building prior to her departure. Following the dinner a presentation was made to the honoree carrying with it a wealth of good wishes from her friends. Those present included Mrs. Graham Dunlop, Mrs. Dave Wemyss, Mrs. A. DelGuidice, Mrs. Irene Dunn, Mrs. Bob Hobson, Mrs. Dave Wylie, Miss Mary Tripp, Miss Marg Book, Miss Joy Whitney, Miss Ruth Arnold, Miss Marie Rochefort, Miss Lee Murray, Miss Mary Adams, Miss Elizabeth Romiscon.

Unabel to attend but contributing to the gift were Miss Helen Milne, Miss Leana Prince, Mrs. Len McNeil and Miss Mary Vrbanac.

One of the season's highlights was the sumptuous banquet held Tuesday evening in the banquet hall of the G. V. Hotel by members of the Porcupine Hydro Club. The delightful and entertaining affair was held in honor of Robert Hood Saunders, chairman of the Ontario Hydro Commission. A number of officials of the Hydro Commission and many local persons also attended. Following the addresses of the distinguished guests an evening of dacning to the music of Ron Jones and his orchestra was enjoyed. During the evening a program of French and English songs were rendered by Frank Boivin, Dr. Paul Clermont, Lionel Barrette and Rene Barrette accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Jean Larcher. During the dinner hour musical background was provided by Jimmie Ormston.

Head table guests included R. H. Saunders, Chairman of the Hydro Electric Power Commission of Ontario, Toronto, A. W. Mamby, Assistant General Manager Administration, Toronto, Reeve Anne Shipley, Kirkland Lake, Karl Eyre, Mayor of Timmins, Mrs. Epre, W. Ollen-Bittle, Personnel Manager, North-Eastern Region, Toronto, A. Connor, Fresident, Porcupine Hydro Club, Mrs. A. Connor, C. C. Cunningham, vicepresident of Porcupine Hydro Club, Mrs. C. C. Cunningham, C. H. Webb, secretary-treasurer of Porcupine Hydro Club, Mrs. C. H. Webb, R. H. Douglas, Supervisor of Promotion, Northern Ontario, New Liskeard, Mrs. R. H. Douglas and J. P. Burke, Area Manager.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs T Fenwick, Mr. and
