During the weekend Tommy who is ye Sports Editor on the local daily gave Lucie a beautiful ring with a large pearl in the raised setting, on either side are two diamonds. The popular couple plan to go centre-aisling on August 21.

Entertaining at the traditional cocktail hour prior to attending the Princess Alice Club dance at Riverside Pavilion were Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Mott. Guests who spent an enjoyable hour or two were Mr. and Mrs. Mason Truman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McLay, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. A. Campbell.

At their home in Schumacher Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Abrams, entertained a number of their friends prior to attending the Plantation Dance sponsored by the Princess Alice Club. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Labow, Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Rosner and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cohen.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Rowe were among the many who entertained prior to attending the Princess Alice Club dance held during the weekend. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Stewart, Miss Mary Adams, Yerke Williamson, Miss Marie Rogers and Gordon Godfrey.

Before attending the highly successful dance sponsored by the Princess Alice Club on Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. J. Laurie entertained Mr. and Mrs. M. Webb and Mr. and Mrs. G. Haylock at a delightful cocktail party.

Fire Chief William Stanley and Mrs. Stanley entertained at their home 43 Toke street on Friday evening. Following an enjoyable hour the party proceeded to the Riverside Pavilion where all attended the Plantation Dance. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Surman and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scully.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Millette and Mr. and Mrs. Vince Gauthier were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cousineau who entertained at the traditional cocktail hour before attending the dance on Friday evening at Riverside Pavilion.

Particularly noticed at the Princess Alice Club dance, Mrs. Allerston in a gown of gold colored crepe lavishly trimmed around the neckline and cap sleeves with bronze sequins and a gorgeous pair of gold filled earrings. Mrs. Haylock in a printed mauve and green on white jersey background with accordion pleated skirt and blue gloves. Shirley McDivitt in bluish pink nylon, the off the shoulder bodice trimmed with gold braid and an orchid corsage at the waistline, bluish pink gloves and a necklace of pearls and matching bracelet. Mrs. Harvey Freeman in turquoise colored crepe banded with silver sequins and Chinese red gloves.

Mrs. Ray Eddy in a gown of turquoise and black shot taffeta with double bustle at back and a corsage of red carnations. Mrs. Frances Dickson in white silk jersey with clips of brilliants at the neckline, matching bracelet and red poppies in her hair. Mrs. Frank McCullough in pink over mauve nylon with mauve velvet ribbon around the slim midriff and a dainty matching muff trimmed with sprigs of pink roses and pink and mauve feathers. Theresa Lalonde in a fuchsia colored skirt of sheer with jacket of black velvet trimmed with gold sequins and a dashing cummerbund.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Barkwell entertained at a delightfully arranged party over the weekend, in honor of the former Jacqueline Canie, who became the bride of Alphonse Blaine in a pretty ceremony on Tuesday. During the evening she was presented with a handsome tri-light floor lamp by the staff of the Timmins Stationery and Office Supply Company of which she was a valued member and several attractive personal gifts from Mr. and Mrs. Barkwell.

Following a most pleasant evening the hostess served a delicious lunch. Mrs. Cliff Lafrancier pouring tea from a table graced with tallisman roses and pink candles. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wemyss, Mr. and Mrs. Clie Lafrancier, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Barkwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Larivee, Gwen Mustato, W. Sandilands, Bruce Armstrong, Marion Vaillancourt, Laura Canie and Mrs. F. Canie, mother of the bride-elect.

Miss Barbara Barry, R.N. was hostess at a charmingly arranged tea on Friday afternoon, held at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. James Barry Mattagami boulevard. Guests were former school associates. During the afternoon tea was poured by Miss Sarah Feldman from a table most attractive with Spring flowers from Mrs. Barry's garden. Guests included Norma Routliffe, Mary Tripp, Nora Sharp, Eleanor Richardson, Mary Adams, Jean McChesney, Sarah Feldman, Jean Carson and Margaret Hooker.

Two new little residents have come to Timmins. They are Francis Ann and Elizabeth Wendy Robinson. They are the darling twin daughters of that well-known and popular couple Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Robinson. The baby girls arrived on Sunday, May 2, in St. Mary's Hospital. Frances Ann weighed 6 pounds 9 1/2 ounces. Elizabeth Wendy weighed 5 pounds, 7 1/2 ounces.

And another newcomer to the district is little baby Armstrong, dimpled son of one of the town's most highly esteemed and popular couples, Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong. The baby arrived on Thursday morning, May 6th in St. Mary's Hospital. We cannot tell you what he will be called because his parents haven't decided upon a name as yet.

We met a most entertaining personality on Monday evening when members of the local National Employment Bureau held a gala banquet in the Lounge Room of the McIntyre Community Building. She was Miss Margaret McIrvine of Toronto.

A capacity crowd gathered at Riverside Pavilion on Friday evening. The occasion was the gala Plantation Dance held by the Princess Alice Club. Musical background was provided by Henry Kelneck and his orchestra who were housed in an old negro shack shaded by an oak tree covered with Spanish moss and a field of cotton on either side. Sitting out a dance and discussing the highlights of the very successful affair are Mr. and Mrs. Barney Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jackson. Standing are John O'Donnell Jr. and Teresa Lalonde. interesting aspects of life in the civil service. Miss McIrvine wore a smart dress of black crepe with tiers of peplums on the back of the skirt and a row of buttons down one side of the dress, with it she wore a lovely pink necklace and matching earrings. We also noticed Mrs. George Charron in a printed silk crepe featuring a leaf pattern of grey and beige on a deep blue background with a choker of rhinestones and earrings. Mrs. Beatrice Cran in a dress of cactus pink crepe with printed design in black. Mrs. William Shields in navy blue crepe with ruffled peplum of grosgrain ribbon caught up with matching buttons. Marge Nelson in soft muted crepe with a sunburst of rhinestones on the rippling siders and wearing a pair of handsome grey snakeskin sling pumps. Sophie Donyl in pearl grey crepe with an all round peplum caught with a bow in the back and a gold-filled choker. Mrs. Tom Glaister in black crepe with collar and cuffs of shot taffeta and a gold-filled locket. Lillian Del Monte in Schiapparelli rose crepe with a printed design featuring pussy-willows and water lilies.

The members of the Princess Alice Club wish it to be known that they are very grateful to everyone who helped in any way to make their Plantation Dance the highly successful affair that it was. We also learned in speaking with Mrs. Larry Labow, president of the club that the money raised at the dance and at other affairs is used for local charities only. The Childrens Aid benefits largely, also the Porcupine Health Unit. These two members consider their major works. The Festival of Music and the Salvation Army also benefit, and it is all due to the wonderful response we get for a most co-operative public, she said.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Wurm and Mrs. H. Sherwood were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Len McKerrow on Friday evening prior to their attending the Plantation Dance.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Woodbury was the setting of a delightfully arranged party on Friday evening. Later hosts and guests attended the Princess Alice Plantation Dance. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gardner, South Porcupine, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Stock, Mrs. E. Carside of Hamilton and Bill Jamieson.
