Aro-Ostrowsky Wedding Vows Spoken On Sunday in First United Church

First United Church with its chancel banked with flowers and fern was the setting on Sunday afternoon for the wedding of Anne Ostrowsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ostrowsky, 179 Birch street N., and Leo Aro, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Aro, Percupine. Dr. W. M. Mustard performed the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Herbert Treener. During the signing of the register Mrs. J. Denisavitch sang because.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was radiantly lovely in her gown of pale white slipper satin fashioned with puffs over the hips, accentuating the long moulded lines of the bodice, a sweetheart neckline and long tight fitting sleeves coming to lily points over the wrist. The skirt softly gathered fell into a sweeping long train. Her veil of embroidered net fell full length over the train and was held in place by a headdress of net, petal-shaped and outlined with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of red roses and white baby's breath.

Mrs. M. Bicovich as matron of honor wore a gown of pink nylon net and lace styled with moulded basque of lace, sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves and flounced skirt. A shoulder length veil fell from a crown of pleated taffeta caught at the sides with flowers, and matching pink mittens. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of pink carnations bordered with mauve shading into purple sweetpeas.

Mrs. Sylvia Koski as bridesmaid wore for the occasion a gown of sentimental blue taffeta featuring a fitted bodice with net veche and a rolled bertha of taffeta giving an off the shoulder effect and puff skirt matching mittens of blue and a shoulder length veil which was held in place with a wreath of blue roses. Her old fashioned nosegay was of pink carnations with a border of pink sweetpeas.

Miss Hilka Ditch, as bridesmaid, wore a gown of soft peach satin styled with argelle neckline of nylon net, cap sleeves, fitted bodice and a skirt fashioned with a rippling fishtail train caught at the back with a bustle. Her matching shoulder length veil was caught to her head with peach roses and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations and mauve sweetpeas.

George Aro was groomsmen and the ushers were Mike Bicovich and Willo Nenonen.

After the ceremony a dinner was held at the home of the bride's parents. Following dinner a reception was held at the Ukrainian Hall, Mountjoy street. The many guests were received by the bride's mother wearing a frock of black crepe trimmed with a spray of white flowers embroidered with white sequins and pearls, black accessories and a corsage of Poincetto roses. The groom's mother, who also received.

Miss Mary Francis Burke who has been studying at the University of Western Ontario, London, arrived home Saturday evening to spend the Summer months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Burke, 77 Hemlock St.

Mrs. James Huxley has left for Toronto and Guelph where she will spend the next three weeks. While in the latter city she will attend the graduation of her son Jack at the College of Agriculture.

wore a two-piece suit of forest green wool, black accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses.

For the honeymoon trip to Southern point, the bride donned a suit of black gabardine with black topper, matching accessories and corsage of red roses. On their return the young couple will reside at 32 Ida street, Percupine.

Gifts to the attendants were gold-filled combs to the matron of honor and bridesmaids and white dress pins to the best man and ushers.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Mrs. Ostrowsky, Mrs. M. Bicovich and Mrs. J. Koski.
