St. Anthony's Cathedral Is Setting For St.-Louis - Brazeau Nuptials on Wednesday

Decorated with Spring flowers, fern and candlelight, St. Anthony's Cathedral was the setting for a lovely wedding on Wednesday morning when Rhea Brazeau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brazeau became the bride of Alphonse Philias St. Louis, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur St. Louis of Mont Laurier, Quebec. The young couple spoke their wedding vows before Father Brunette and the wedding music was played by Miss Clare Vachon. During the nuptial mass Lionel Barrette sang Panis Angelicus and Jeanine Marin sang Ave Marie and other oppropriate hymns.

The bride given in marriage by her father was radiant in a gown of white nylon sheer and Chantilly lace, fashioned with moulded basque of lace, a bateau neckline and leg-o-mutton sleeves. Featuring a rounded tunic banded with lace the skirt fell into a sweeping long train. Her circular veil fell from a coronet of white stepheno'is and she carried a sheaf of Calla lilies. She also wore the gift of the groom a double strand of pearls.

Mrs. M. W. Craig, sister of the bride was matron of honor and wore a gown of cactus pink net and lace styled with lace bodice over which fell a lace bertha and cap sleeves. The skirt was bouffant. She wore a Dutch cap of lace, net mittens and carried a nosegay of roses, blue iris and carnations.

Miss Jacqueline Brazeau as brides maid was frocked in turquoise sheer, fashioned with angelic neckline of net, cap sleeves, a fitted bodice and softly gathered skirt. She wore a ruffled headdress of matching material, net mittens and carried a white leather bound prayer book covered with sweetpeas and white streamers.

Miss Genevieve Brazeau, as a bridesmaid was gowned in jonquil yellow sheer, styled with angelic neckline of net, moulded basque and cap sleeves. The skirt was fully bouffant. She wore a matching ruffled headdress, net mittens and carried a white leather bound prayer book covered with sweetpeas and streamers.

Little Claudette Talbot as flower girl wore a dainty doll like dress of blush pink sheer styled with tiny yoke and a long skirt with graduated tiers, a poke bonnett tied under the chin and carried an ivory colored basket filled with various colored sweetpeas.

Mr. Joseph Barbarie attended the groom and Omer Lortie ushered.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held in the banquet hall of the Algoma Hotel. The bride's mother received wearing, an afternoon dress of black crepe with a white dotted allover pattern, black and white accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses. Pouring tea were Mrs. W. Butler and Mrs. O. Lavigolette.

For the honeymoon trip to Montreal, Quebec and other eastern points the bride donned a suit of mulberry red gabardine, black and white accessories and a corsage of Calla lilies.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. Brazeau, Cochrane.

Gifts to the attendants were earrings to the matron of honor, strands of pearls to the bridesmaids, a prayer beads to the flower girl and wallets to the groomsman and usher.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Mrs. O. Lortie, Mrs. L. Brousseau, Mrs. M. Talbot and Mrs. M. W. Craig at a shower held in the Hollinger Hall at which over 100 guests were present.

Peggy Joyce Strongman Becomes Bride of Joseph E. Atkinson In First United Church

In First United Church with its chancel decorated with red and yellow tulips, narcisus and fern, the marriage took place on May 29, of Peggy Joyce Strongman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Strongman to Joseph Edward Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Atkinson. Dr. W. M. Mustard officiated. Wedding music was played by Miss Sue Meadows and during the signing of the register Miss Meadows played "O Perfect Love."

Entering the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage the bride was attractive in a suit of powder blue gabardine a halo hat of powder blue misted in pink veiling and pink gloves. Her corsage was fashioned of American Beauty roses entwined with orange blossoms nestling on an ostrich plume. She also wore the gift of the groom a double strand of pearls.

She was attended by Miss Dorothy Gibson who chose for the occasion a gray suit of French corded crepe with a gray hat trimmed with turquoise and a corsage of red roses entwined with orange blossoms.

The best man was John Sears.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held in the banquet room of the G. V. Hotel. Later in the evening a reception was held in the Hollinger Hall where the 300 guests were received by the bride's mother, wearing an afternoon dress of black crepe trimmed with white nylon outlined with pearls, black accessories and corsage of pink roses and orange blossoms.

The groom's mother, who also received wore an afternoon dress of navy blue crepe trimmed with silver nailheads, gray accessories and corsage of pink roses and orange blossoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson have taken up residence at 235 Hemlock street.

Out off town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. Brown, Montreal and Mr. and Mrs. Bright of Cleveland, Ohio.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Mrs. J. Sears and Mrs. George Gibson. Many telegrams of congratulations were also received by the young couple from relatives and friends in England.

WHOOPING COUGH

One of the most serious respiratory diseases, particularly in young children, is whooping cough. More infants are taken from us by this ailment than by diptheria, scarlet fever and measles combined!

Members Porcupine Flying Club Hold Meeting

Members of the Porcupine Flying Club met in the Airport Hotel recently to discuss the progress which has been made in the erection of the clubhouse. The report was most satisfactory as the construction of the clubhouse is progressing in a most efficient manner, and plans were made for its completion in the very near future.

Contrary to general belief, the Flying Club will not restrict its activities to flying. It is intended to be of a purely social nature. Members also hope that they will soon be in a position to do some boating on the nearby lake.

Among the members present were president, Ralph Allerston, secretary, Alex Kalyniuk, treasurer, Bob Tomchick, Andrew Maxwell, Elizabeth Romiscon, Bordon Fawcett, Sig Isaacson, Ron Dewar, Morris Woodley, Shirley Remus, Jack Gauthier, Jean McChesney, Bud Monahan, Gordon Gauthier, Gordon Chalmers, Len Lumb, Jack Dalton, Walter Finkleman, Art Harnden, Bill Hocking and Archie Chenier.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Everard announce the engagement of their younger daughter, Mary Margaret, to Harold Godfrey Last, son of Mrs. Last and the late Sylvester Last. The wedding is to take place in Timmins at a future date.
