

Verna J. Watters Weds Edgar J. Montigny In Lovely Ceremony In Church of Nativity

Candlelight illuminated an altar banked with summer flowers in the Church of the Nativity on Monday morning, when Verna Jacqueline Watters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Watters, Mattagami Heights, became the bride of Edgar Joseph Montigny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Treffe Montigny, 87 Fourth avenue, Schumacher. The young couple spoke their wedding vows before Father Callaghan. Wedding music was played by Miss Shirley Thomson and during the nuptial mass Fred Barnes sang Ave Maria.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of petal white slipper satin fashioned with fitted bodice, long tight-fitting sleeves forming lily points over the wrists, an angelic neckline of net with a fichu giving an off the shoulder effect. The beautifully mouled skirt featured a bustle back. Her full length veil fell in graceful folds from a coronet of orange blossoms and seed pearls and she carried a white leather bound prayer book mounted with a corsage of roses and from which fell long satin streamers. She was attended by Miss Bride Ready of Ottawa, her cousin, who wore a gown of blue taffeta with fitted bodice, low neckline, puffed sleeves and bouffant skirt. She wore a satin coronet from which fell a shoulder length veil of blue, long blue mittens and carried a nosegay of white and pink gladioli.

Ronald Montigny, brother of the groom was best man while Roger Todhunter and Eddis DiFant ushered.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the banquet hall of the G. V. Hotel where the many guests were welcomed by the bride's mother wearing a smart afternoon dress of silver grey sheer with pink hat, white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother, who also received wore a chic afternoon dress of rose crepe with white and black accessories and corsage of pink roses.

The bride's table was most attractive with banquet cloth centred with a three-tiered wedding cake, flowers and lighted tapers.

Later, the bride and groom left for a trip to points south. For travelling the bride wore a smart dress of navy blue with red and white accessories. On their return the young couple will take up residence in Schumacher.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. William Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Duncan and Mr. John Duncan of Myndokl, Mr. and Mrs. Olive Olsen, Kirkland Lake, Mr. and Mrs. E. Wallace, Englehart and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller of Hoyle.

Gifts to the attendants were a lovely glamour pin to the bridesmaid and diamond socks to the groomsmen and ushers.

Plans For Future Events Form Nucleus Of Golden Star Women's Institute Meeting

Members of the Golden Star Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting in the Holinger Hall recently with Mrs. R. W. McTaggart occupying the presidential chair. The usual exercises opened the meeting, followed by the reading of the reports of the various committees.

A letter had been received from Glasgow, Scotland, thanking the members for a food parcel sent as roll call at the district annual convention which was held in Matheson in June. It was reported that five pairs of pyjamas have been completed by members for use at the Children's Shelter, August 23 was chosen as the date for the holding of the annual Institute picnic to be held at the McIntyre Park. Members and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

A most interesting talk on current events of local and dominion-wide interest was given by Mrs. H. S. Long. A sample of the ditty bags given out by the Upper Canada Tract and Bible Society to members of the Navy has been received. It was decided to purchase material and complete 12 such bags.

Mrs. W. P. Willson, social welfare convener, took the chair and gave the ladies a brief talk on the subject, "Health in the Home," and distributed literature from the Public Health Department dealing with several common diseases prevalent today. The business portion of the meeting was brought to a close with the reading of the creed by Mrs. Long and the singing of the National Anthem.

The remainder of the evening was spent socially. Mrs. W. Doughty and Mrs. G. Hobbs were hostesses. Two lovely vocal solos were rendered by Adele Gouette, accompanied at the piano by Ruth Willson.

Ken Botwright, of the Canadian Press staff, Toronto, was a visitor to the district over the weekend.
