THREADS OF GOLD

Spin cheerfully,
Not tearfully,
Though wearily you plod;
Spin carefully,
Spin prayerfully,
But leave the thread with God.

The shuttle of His purpose move;
To carry out His own design,
Seek not too soon to disapprove
His work; or yet assign
Dark motives, when with silent dread
You view each sombre fold;
For lo! within each darker thread
There twines a thread of gold.

Spin cheerfully,
Not tearfully,
He knows the way you plod;
Spin carefully;
Spin prayerfully,
But leave the thread with God.

"Y's Men Have Evening at Night Hawk". . . The members of the Timmins Y's Men's Club with their ladies were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gladys Ray last Saturday evening at an informal party and weiner roast which was held at Mr. and Mrs. Ray's cottage on Night Hawk Lake. A very enjoyable evening of dancing, singing and games, was enjoyed by those present. Terry O'Connor acted as master of ceremonies.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. B. Howse, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wemyss, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Gower Markle, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Don Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Cochrane Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Dunlop, Mr. and Mrs. Stew Brillinger, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Birkenshaw, Mr. and Ms. Ted Watt, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Langille, Mr. and Mrs. Terry O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Monahan, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hobson, Miss Beth Gardner, Miss Theresa Gagne, Mr. D. Christerson, Mr. C. Sparrow, Mr. Courtney Drew, Mr. Bill Stark, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Gladys Ray.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Larcher have returned home after attending the District Firemen's Convention in Kapuskasing. While there they were the guests of Fire Chief and Mrs. Secord Robinson. . . Jean who played the piano at the various functions was presented with a beautiful Kenwood blanket in a soft green shade. . . in appreciation of her efforts.

We have been hearing a great deal about the excellent progress achieved by persons who are taking part in the musicale "The Pied Piper", which will take place in the Palace Theatre in the near future. . . Everyone appears to be most enthusiastic about the whole thing and every member of the cast is doing their utmost to ensure the success of the affair. . . we also have been hearing about the lovely costumes that will be worn too. . . some are wearing the colorful costumes of sunny Italy and others are wearing those of Croatia. . . one prominent lady has even unearthed her lovely wedding gown which will be worn in the scenes. . . all in all "The Pied Piper" with its scenes, its music and its singing, promises to be a kaleidoscope of color and harmony. The show is under the very capable direction of Mrs. G. C. Armitage and is sponsored by the Princess Alice Club.

On Saturday evening Tommy Godin celebrated his birthday with a small but very pleasant party. . . Guests first gathered at his home 279 Tamarack street, then proceeded to the Riverside Pavilion where they spent the evening dancing. . . later they returned to the house where a tasty lunch was served by Mrs. Godin. . . guests were Dr. Stanley Gibson and Mrs. Gibson Miss Grace Tomchick, Social Editor of the Timmins Daily Press, and Charlie Bourgeois.

Out at the Buffalo Ankerite, a jolly weiner roast was held on Saturday night by members of the Lion's Club, their wives and friends. One and all spent a very pleasant evening socially and in dancing. . . Much credit for the success of the affair was due Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown who saw to it that every one had a lovely time. . . Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Gil Chenier, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. Don Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wyatt.

Hall, Bruce Leek, Mr. and Mrs. Arnel Laprairie, Dr. and Mrs. Allen, John McDonald and others.

Members of the Women's Institute are more than happy over the success of their bake sale held over the weekend. . . speaking with Mrs. R. McTaggart, president of the organization, we learned that the ladies are more than gratified with the results. . . the donations, too, were many and varied. . . and special mention was made of the assortment of home-made candy by Mrs. E. Peterson. . . The affair was held in the I. K. Pierce Furniture Store. . . and the tables were festive with linen cloths decorated with pots of flowers. . . presiding during the afternoon were Mrs. R. McTaggart, Mrs. E. Peterson and Mrs. W. P. Willson. . . Mrs. Willson was also convener of the bake sale.

The Women's Association of the First United Church are busy these days planning for the Fall Festival, which is to be held on the afternoon of October 23, in the church basement. . . Besides holding a tea on that afternoon they plan on having a bake table, an apron booth, also a knitting and novelty booth. . . The Women's Association also hold their meetings the first Thursday of every month and all women of the congregation are cordially invited to attend.

Gauthier - Stanutz Vows Spoken At Notre Dame Church

Candlelight and autumn flowers in tall standards decorated Notre Dame de Lourdes Church recently for the wedding of Doris Stanutz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stanutz, 1 Laurier avenue, and Peter Gauthier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alcide Gauthier, 117 Cody avenue. Nuptial vows were spoken before Father A. Gregoire. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Paul Piche who also sang several appropriate hymns.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of white slipper satin styled with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. The skirt fully bouffant was trimmed on either side of the front panel with a row of guipure lace. A coronet encrusted with bugle beads and seed pearls held her full length veil in place and she carried a bouquet of red roses and gladioli.

Fleurette Robitaille Weds Raymond Letourneau

St. Anthony's Cathedral decorated with a profusion of autumn flowers and candlelight was the setting for a pretty wedding on Saturday when Fleurette Robitaille, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Robitaille, 418 Birch street South, became the bride of Raymond Letourneau, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Blais of Kirkland Lake. The ceremony was performed by Father L. Brunette.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractive in a softly tailored suit of brown gabardine with an off the face hat of brown felt trimmed with veiling. She wore brown accessories, a pale pink blouse and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast and reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where Mrs. Robitaille received the guests in a frock of black moire, black accessories and red rose corsage.

Out of town guests were Roger Robitaille of Kapuskasing and Lucienne Pelchat of Strickland.

The couple are residing in Timmins.
