Pictured above are Mr. and Mrs. Armand Goulet who were married on Monday morning in St. Anthony's Cathedral. Nuptial vows were exchanged before Father Perron. The bride is the former Marcelle Berini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Berini, 6 Hemlock street. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ovilla Goulet, 12 Montgomery avenue.

Marcelle Berini Exchanges Nuptial Vows With Armand Goulet in Pretty Ceremony

Decorated with tall standards of autumn blooms and candlelight St. Anthony's Cathedral was the setting for a lovely wedding on Monday morning when Marcelle Berini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Berini, 6 Hemlock street, became the bride of Armand Goulet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ovilla Goulet, 12 Montgomery street. Nuptial vows were exchanged before Father Perron. The wedding music was played by Miss Estelle Boutin and during the High Mass, Frank Bolvin sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus," and other appropriate hymns.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of embossed white nylon fashioned with moulded basque, net yoke with a wide ruffle giving an off the shoulder effect, long tight fitting sleeves forming points over the wrists and a full skirt falling into a long chapel train. From a corset encrusted with seed pearls her full length veil of white net fell over the skirt in a billowing train. Her bridal bouquet was a sheaf of white gladioli. She was attended by Mrs. A. Robillard as matron of honor, who wore a gown of pink nylon taffeta with ruffled neckline, short sleeves and a bouffant skirt. She wore a white white gloves and a corsage of pink picture hat trimmed with pink long roses and bouquet.

Miss Helen Magnan and Miss Teresa Goulet were bridesmaids and wore gowns of blue and pink taffeta fashioned on similar lines. These featured bateau necklines, short sleeves and softly gathered skirts. They wore matching corsages from which fell shoulder length veils and corsages of red roses.

Little Georgette Gratton was flower girl and wore a dress of yellow with white ruffles on the skirt, a dainty yellow coronet from which fell a matching shoulder length veil and she carried gladioli.

Arnel Robillard, Moise Berini and Clement Berini attended the groom. Jean Charles Berini was ring-bearer carrying a white satin cushion on which reposed the wedding ring.

Following the ceremony, the Rainbow Room of the Goldfields Hotel was the setting for the reception where the many guests were received by the bride's mother, wearing a smart afternoon dress of navy blue with black accessories and a corsage of white gladioli.

Later, the bride and groom left for a trip to Southern Ontario. For travelling the bride wore a dress of grey crepe with a wine colored coat trimmed with grey Persian lamb and matching accessories.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Goulet will reside in Timmins. Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by Miss Helen Magnan.

tidy. . . Don't make demands, requests go farther. . . Don't blow a fuse if supper's late, remember you've been late for supper. . . Your wife is not a slave, appreciate her efforts. . . There, now, we hope that evens the score.
