

Notre Dame de Lourdes Setting For Perrin-Mallette Wedding Vows Saturday

Notre Dame de Lourdes Church decorated with candlelight shining softly o'er tall standards of chrysanthemums, gladioli and fern was the setting for a pretty wedding on Saturday morning when, Connie Mallette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Mallette exchanged nuptial vows with Arthur Perrin, son of Mrs. R. Perrin and the late Mr. Perrin. Father Gregoire performed the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Paul Piche. During the Mass and the signing of the register Mrs. Agathe Caron effectively sang "Ave Maria", "Panis Angelicus" and other appropriate hymns. Given in marriage by her father the bride was lovely in an afternoon frock of Madonna blue crepe, fashioned with moulded basque with cut work outlining the angelic neckline and three quarter length sleeves. From the long slender torso, fell in soft folds, a bouffant skirt. She wore a hat of matching material trimmed with burgundy colored feathers. Burgundy shoes, mittens, and a corsage of three orchids completed the smart ensemble.

She was attended by Mrs. Ed. Perrin, as matron of honor, who wore an afternoon dress of Chinese Red, styled with an angelic neckline of net, a moulded basque and three quarter length sleeves. The skirt, fashionably moulded in front featured a peated peplum back. She wore a hat of Chinese Red trimmed with a side plume of navy blue, navy accessories and a corsage of Johanna Hill roses.

Mr. Ed. Perrin was groomsmen. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held in the banquet room of the Algoma Hotel for approximately 40 guests. Following a reception was held in the afternoon at the home of the groom's mother, 4 Mountjoy street North. The many guests who attended were received by the bride's mother wearing an afternoon dress of grey crepe with black accessories and corsage of red roses. The groom's mother, who also received, wore a frock of grey crepe trimmed with grey satin, black accessories and corsage of red roses.

Later the bride and groom left for a trip to North Bay, Ottawa, and Montreal. For travelling the bride wore a chic suit of moss green tricotine with green and burgundy colored accessories and orchid corsage. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Perrin will take up residence on Main avenue.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by her co-workers at National Selective Service with Miss Anne Novotny acting as hostess, and by Mrs. R. Perrin and Mrs. Ed. Perrin.
