News From Ansonville And Iroquois Falls

IROQUOIS FALLS

About one hundred and thirty members of Branch No. 70 the Canadian Legion BESL attended a dinner on Armistice Day at the Parish Hall, Iroquois Falls. The Ladies Guild of St. Mark's Anglican Church catered to the gathering.

Magistrate Tucker, guest speaker was introduced to the comrades by W. J. Grummett, K.C., past District Commander of District K. Magistrate Tucker advised all veterans to be ready to uphold Canada's order place as a full fledged nation of the world and warned them that Canada should be ready for anything that might happen in the present crisis and pointed out that the mere fact of being ready for an emergency was not suggesting in any way that such an event might happen.

Chairman Doug Lowe and Comrade P. J. Redmond, mayor of Iroquois Falls extended a cordial welcome to all present. Comrade Doug Cuthell, past president of Branch No. 70 thanked Comrade Tucker for his well chosen address. Z o n e Commander George Whiting reminded the Comrades of the aims and objects of the Canadian Legion and urged them to give their officers their whole hearted support.

Entertainment for the evening was supplied by Comrade Via Eisenback who played the violin accompanied by Mr. McQueen. Comrade Ken Swartz rendered several solos which were enjoyed by all.

A vote of thanks was extended to St. Mark's Guild for the excellent dinner served by its members.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to Mrs. Delbert

St. John Ambulance Seeking $600,000

TORONTO — Approximately 600 persons injured in motor mishaps on Ontario's highways last year were the result of the St. John Ambulance first-aid system, it was announced today as the organization's current appeal for $600,000 gained momentum.

This program of highway first aid was first instituted in 1927 by the Deputy Minister of Health, Dr. W. J. Bell, now provincial surgeon for the St. John Ambulance. First aid boxes were set up at strategic points on the highways and in important tourist camps.

These first aid posts are now jointly maintained by the St. John Ambulance, the Canadian Red Cross Society and the Ontario Motor League. The St. John Ambulance also maintains ambulance patrols on Ontario's highways, manned by trained and equipped first-aiders.

In addition to this highway first aid system the St. John Ambulance carries on an extensive program of other worthwhile activities. These include training and service in first aid and home nursing, blood grouping, maternal and child hygiene, public duty and sponsorship of the St. John Cadets.

All of the services are given voluntarily and without remuneration. The St. John Ambulance Appeal, which was launched on November 1 and which will continue through until November 20, has a national objective of $600,000. It will be used to further and expand the work of the organization. Ontario's quota has been set at $225,000.

The Ontario campaign chairman is Col. J. G. K. Strath, Toronto, while Henry E. Langford, Toronto, is the Ontario campaign treasurer. Lady Eaton and Air Vice Marshal Adelaar Raymond are the honorary national campaign co-chairmen while the Honourable Ray Lawson, Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, is the honorary provincial campaign chairman.

In Timmins, George A. Gibson is acting as chairman of a committee which is organizing and conducting the appeal locally.

Salvation Army Band Aided by Bandsmen

TORONTO — The renowned Doverscourt Citadel Band of The Salvation Army which generally spends its time and effort helping others, is itself going to get some musical and financial help from fellow members of the Toronto band fraternity. A unique tri-band festival will be held in Massey Hall, Toronto, on Saturday evening, November 27, and proceeds from this interesting event will go to secure much-needed new instruments.

To help in the worthy project, the band of the Royal Canadian Air Force (Toronto) under the direction of Warrant Officer Cliff. Hunt, will participate by kind permission of Air Vice-Marshal E. E. Middleton, air officer commanding Central Air Command.

This talented band will join hands musically with the competent Metropolitan Silver Band, also of Toronto, led by Alfred Pearce, which for several years won first place in Canadian National Exhibition contests.

The whole program will be under the title, "A Symphony in Brass." Feature items will be, "Labour and Love," a Crystal Palace contest number, played by Metropolitan Band; "Finale, Tschakowsky's 4th Symphony, by the R.C.A.F. Band; and the tone poem, "When They Crucified My Lord," presented by Doverscourt Bandsmen Pan. Watkin, A.T.C.M., and Stan DeAth, A.T.C.M., both Salvationist — musicians will perform as a piano duo.

Little Man's Loans Now Big Business

Since 1939, the year when all Canadian provinces completed their legislation enabling credit unions to incorporate, the number of these people's banks tripled, membership has increased fivefold and assets tenfold. By last year, there were 2,546 credit unions in Canada with 775,129 members and $220.5 millions in assets, according to a Dominion Department of Agriculture publication, entitled "Credit Unions in Canada, 1947."

J. E. O'Meara, author of this report, says that the increase in these three items was remarkably steady even during the war when credit

Matheson And District News

By Mrs. G. R. Weir

Munro Burton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Burton of Matheson, a member of the 1948 Graduating Class of the Iroquois Falls High School, was among the scholarship winners recently announced by the University of Toronto. He was awarded the Students Administrative Council Scholarship, valued at $300. The award is tenable for two years, providing the winner makes satisfactory standing at the end of his first year. Munro is now in attendance at the Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering, University of Toronto.

Other scholarships won by Munro this year were, the Iroquois Falls High School Literary Society Scholarship, valued at $200, and the Robert Simpson Company Ltd., Scholarship valued at $160. Congratulations both to Munro and his parents. Matheson residents should be very proud of their native son who has undoubtedly worked hard in his studies to accomplish such splendid awards and may be equally successful in his further studies.

Hunters Cook Food And Stories Too!

With the hunting season already open in most parts of the province, over-seers of the Department of Lands and Forests are "hot stoving" it these cool nights on their favorite topic of cooking.

Some of the boys can cook too! And, just in case you need it, here's their combined effort on pot roasts: Any thick, coarse piece of meat, whether it be venison, moose or bear, is suitable for pot roast. Select the piece of meat, place it in a frying pan which has been liberally greased with pork or other frying grease. Place over a moderate fire. When it is brown on one side, turn it until the surface is completely brown.

Place in a heavy pot and cover with water to which has been added the rising from the pan in which you browned the meat. Cover and place over the fire. When it boils, thicken with flour and water to make a light gravy. Boil slowly until meat is tender. The addition, if available, of a cupful of canned tomatoes or an onion and carrot very much improves the dish.

NO SHAVING BEFORE NINE — A

Toronto barber was fined $25 the other day because he shaved a man before the legal hour of 9 a.m. One wonders, remarks The Financial Post, what our grandfathers would have thought of a law which forbids barbers to open for business until half the morning is gone. If man hasn't got rid of his accumulation of whiskers by nine o'clock, he might about as well leave them on for the rest of the day.

Undoubtedly many retail sales hours were unnecessarily long in the old days, but certainly it is possible to err just as seriously in the other direction. To the man who must be at his office desk at nine, the barber shop that does not open before that, is not much use.

And barber shop hours are not the only ones being restricted. Motor service stations are closed early and tightly in many communities as tourists, Sunday or late evening drivers have discovered to their annoyance. Even the corner drugstore, where one used to be able to buy almost anything on a Sunday, has not escaped.

One thorn of experience is worth a wilderness of warning.
James Russell Lowell.

union expansion in other countries declined. Since war's end, Canadian progress and growth in this form of co-operative saving and lending has continued slowly but steadily.

Tucked away in these people's banks are $34,812,341 in shares and additional savings on deposit of $174,055,932. From these assets credit union members collectively loaned one another $99,210,032 last year.

Yet this tremendous business is made up of small groups averaging only 323 members whose savings invested in this form of co-operative average $269.46.

need your support, send your subscription either to the Imperial Bank, Matheson or any member of the Matheson Branch who will be pleased to deposit the money for you.

Miss Pauline Lacombe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lacombe of Matheson, spent Armistice Day at her home here, returning to Halleybury to school the following day.

Tot's Birthday Party

A most successful birthday party was held at Matheson, Saturday afternoon, November 13th, for wee Terry Morin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. H. Morin of Matheson.

During the afternoon the children played games such as, hunt for peanuts, pin the tail on the donkey, etc. The highlight of the party was when the wee tot's joined hands and held a square dance. The room was beautifully decorated with balloons and streamers and the refreshments served included a pretty birthday cake, ice cream, and soft drinks. At the conclusion the children were given a bag of candy and balloon to take home. Those attending were Ivan, John, Fred, Opily and Sylvia Dambrowitz, Gail Brotherton, Diana Draves, Marilyn Kitts and Lynn Johnson, Claudette Lacombe, Marion Van Rassel, Jean and Esther Miles, Mabelle and Lucille Chavet of Matheson and Robert and Sylvio Mainville of Timmins. Those unable to attend but sent gifts were, Kenneth and Louis Lourheed and Lorraine Lacombe.

The party was arranged by Misses Lillian Dupont (Terry's Aunt) and Myrtle Miles.

The Armistice Day parade was held at Matheson by the Legion who paraded from the Legion Hall to the School grounds, led by S. P. Cook. The address was given by the Rev. K. I. Cleator, who also read "In Flanders Fields." Two minutes silence was observed. The flag was lowered by Merlyn Leslie while Barry Miller sounded the Last Post. Wreaths were laid on the Cenotaph. The singing included "O Canada," "Oh God Our Help in Ages Past" and concluded with "The National Anthem." Rev. K. I. Cleator was thanked on behalf of the Legionnaires by Mr. Cook.

Another fire in the Matheson district completely destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Patton Wednesday, Nov. 10th, who a few months ago took up residence on the North Road a few miles from town. While lighting a Quebec heater with what he later presumed must have been gasoline soaked chips, the heater exploded. It all happened so fast that Mr. Patton and his daughter Catherine received minor burns trying to get out of the house. They were both treated in Rosedale Memorial Hospital for burns for a few days. Men from Matheson rushed out to assist the fire had got such a hold that it was impossible to save anything. However, in Matheson when help is needed and the cause found to be legitimate, there is a wonderful spirit of co-operation unequalled anywhere. A kitchen stove was donated by a merchant, a building donated, which will have to be moved, the local Red Cross assisted, a collection taken up Saturday night by a friend, and a meeting called where two members from every club or organization of Matheson will meet to discuss what needs could be met by each group. This to prevent duplication.

At the time of the fire, Mrs. Patton is very ill in St. Mary's Hospital, Timmins, where she has been a patient for a few weeks.

Prior to moving to Matheson, Mr. Patton lived at Montith where at one time he was a member of the Veterans' Guard.
