Ellen Youlten Is Bride of W. Haystead In One of Season's Loveliest Weddings

Against a chancel banked with tall standards of flowers and fern over which gleamed the soft glow of white tapers, Ellen Youlten, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Youlten, 114 Cherry Street, became the bride of Will's Haystead, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haystead, 35 Waverly avenue in one of the season's loveliest weddings at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The ceremony took place in the First United Church with Dr. W. M. Mustard officiating. Mr. Wallace Findlay, church organist, presided at the console of the organ and Mrs. R. Dunn effectively sang "Until" and "O Lord Most Holy."

Entering the church to the strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March" and escorted to the chancel on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage, the bride was radiant in a striking period gown of petal white chiffon velvet fashioned with picture neckline moulded basque, and long tight fitting sleeves forming lily points over the wrists. The skirt, beautifully moulded featured a large bustle bow at the back and fell in rippling folds into a long circular chapel train. Her veil of French net was three-quarter length, and was appliqued with white chiffon velvet roses in each corner. The headdress was of white chiffon outlined with seed pearls. A cascade of white and red roses entwined with baby ivy formed her bouquet. Caught up in the bouquet and tied with a dainty bow of white velvet was a tiny silver slipper which graced the bouquet of the bride's mother on her nuptial day.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Carrick, Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Len Lumb, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baderski, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gauthier, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Doan, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Hope, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalton, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gauthier, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gauthier, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Charlebois, Mr. and Mrs. Dewar, Broulan Mines, Mr. and Mrs. Keith S. Erling, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. B. Howse, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Hudson.

Miss Shirley Remus, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of sapphire blue chiffon velvet styled with fitted bodice, a low rounded neckline, over which she wore a capelet, a moulded skirt with a tiny peplum falling with sweeping folds at the back which fell from a bustle bow. She wore matching mittens and a laced Dutch cap and carried a muff mounted with a corsage of Pinnocchio roses.

Mr. Tom Neil was groomsman while Bernard Youlten, only brother of the bride, and Charlie Birch ushered.

After the ceremony a dinner party was held in the Rainbow Room where the bride's mother received, wearing a chic afternoon dress of silver purple with grey off the face hat trimmed with silver cording, grey accessories and a corsage of Pinnocchio roses. Mrs. Haystead, who also received, wore a smart afternoon dress of burgundy wine with pill box hat trimmed with black satin black accessories and a corsage of Pinnocchio roses. The dinner will be followed by a reception for several hundred friends this evening.

Later, the bride and groom will leave for Southern Ontario. For travelling the bride will don a suit of rust gabardine trimmed with a double row of buttons, a felt hat of Winter white trimmed with a noseveil and a plume of egret feathers, white accessories and a corsage of white roses. On their return they will take up residence in Timmins.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. T. Ayres of Sudbury, Mrs. S. L. Youlten of Brampton and Miss Elsie Bruce of Kirkland Lake.

The groom's gift to his bride was a handsome set of travelling bags in cream colored leather trimmed with tan colored binding, the bride's gift to the groom was a toilet set in zippered case, the maid of honor received a silver sequin evening bag, the bridesmaid a sterling silver bracelet, the groomsman a gold filled pen knife and the ushers silver key chains.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained at charmingly arranged showers by Miss Shirley Remus, Mrs. Lawrence Lafrantier, Mrs. A. Southcott, Mrs. Jack Drew and Miss Vivian Haystead.

At the reception the bride's table was beautifully appointed with banquet cloth centred with flowers flanked by tall lighted tapers in branch candleabra. The knife used by the newly wedded couple to cut their cake was the one used by the bride's parents at their wedding reception.

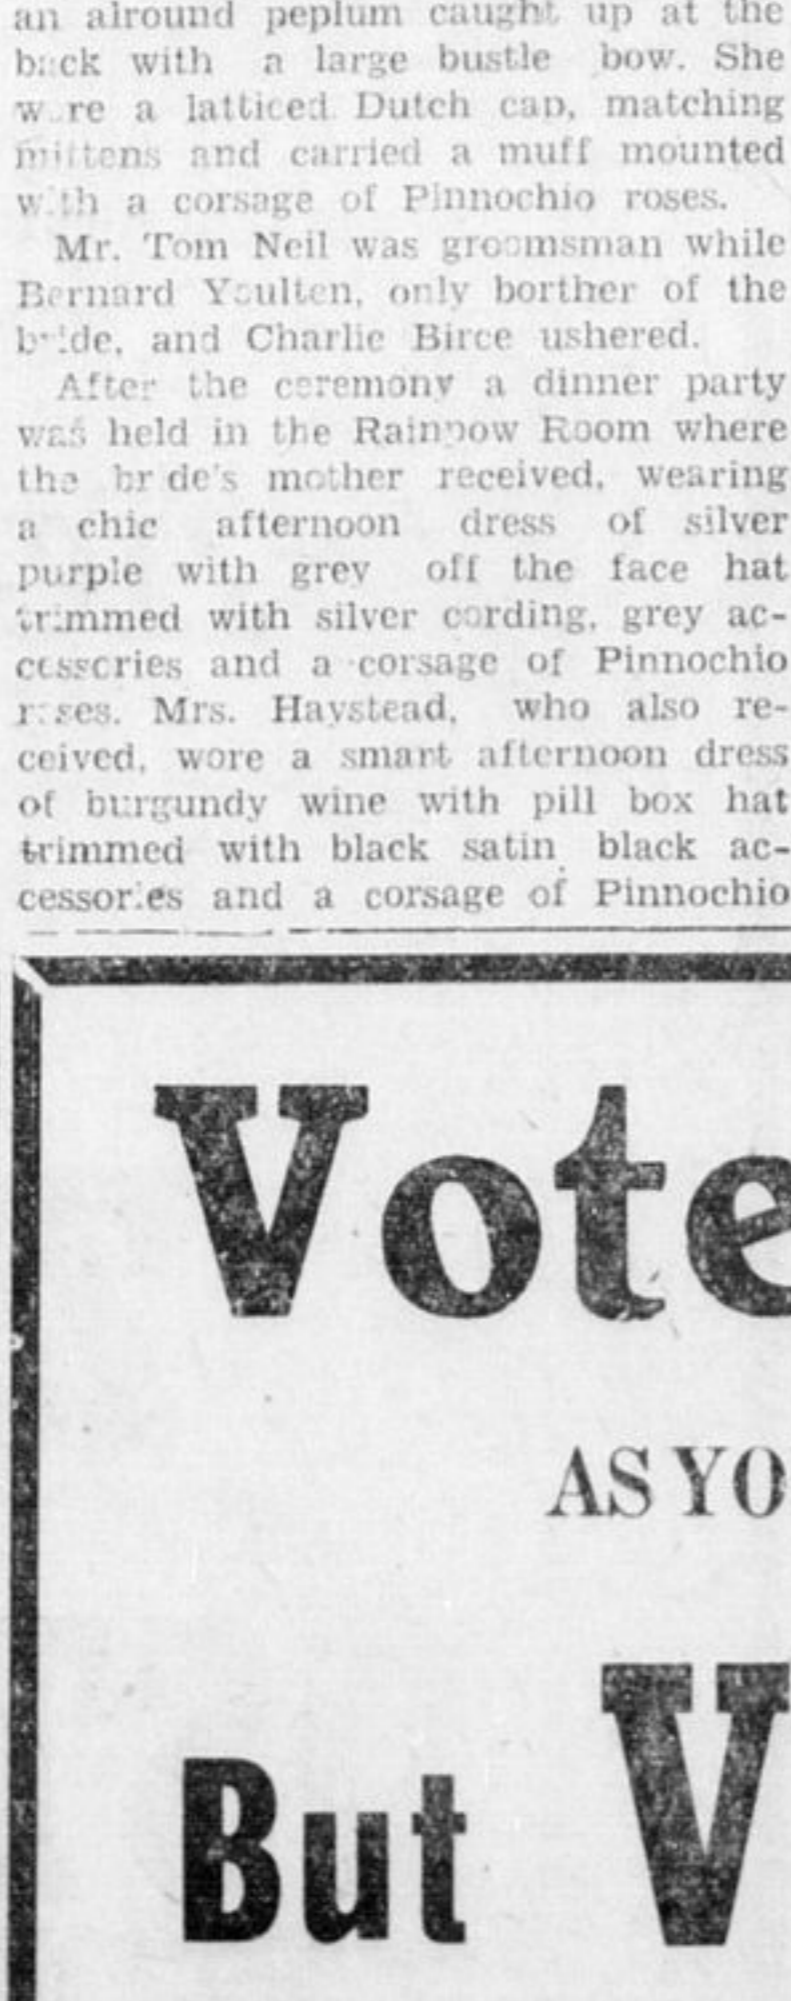

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Lord, Preston East Dome, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shields, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Howlett, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Hembruff, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kaye, Dr. and Mrs. Cliff Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Belanger, Leana Prince, Bruce Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Tallon, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Glynn and many others.

Mr. I. K. Pierce and Miss Vivian Pierce have returned after holidaying with relatives and friends in Toronto.

Father L. Brunette is visiting in Welland.

Father Theriault is visiting relatives and friends in Montreal.

NEW EXTRA EARLY HYBRID SUGAR PRINCE SWEET CORN

Of supreme value in short season districts. Twelve years in course of development. Extensively tested in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, proving superior to all other varieties of sweet corn. Of special interest too for other areas for first picking, either home or market. Can be planted earlier than other corns due to greater hardness and resistance to cold weather. Deliciously tender for table use and holds in fine quality over a longer period for canning. Deep, rich, golden yellow; 12 to 16 rows; about 8 inches long. Remarkably high sugar content, usually 16 1/2% and has been recorded as high as 22%. Rated a heavy cropper for the early class. Supply limited. Order from this advertisement (1/4 lb. 30¢) (1/2 lb. 50¢) (1 lb. 85¢) postpaid. (5 lbs. or more at 70¢ per lb. by Express not prepaid).
