Whitney H. and S. A. Hear About Scouts

A general meeting of the Whitney Home and School Association was held in Whitney School on Wednesday, November 24th, at 8:00 p.m.

Mrs. R. E. Osborn, president, conducted the business of the evening. Mrs. R. James, secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting and Mrs. W. A. Hall, treasurer, reported on proceeds from the Hallow'en Card Party and the state of the finances of the association.

Mrs. W. D. Miller, principal, advised the parents that the School Staff are planning an operetta for the Christmas season in which approximately 120 children will take part. At the request of Mr. Millar, the Home and School Association have undertaken to make the costumes for this operetta.

Mrs. Osborn advised the meeting that a complete report on the Haemoglobin tests made by the Porcupine Health Unit had been received. This report was very encouraging, it being found that there were only a very few children whose blood had a low haemoglobin content. Dr. G. B. Lane was of the opinion that these cases could be corrected by diet and was preparing advice in this respect.

Mrs. N. H. Atkinson spoke briefly about the newly formed Council for Home and School Associations of the District. She recommended that the council meeting for the month of April, 1949, be held in Whitney School. A motion to this effect was passed unanimously.

Principal speaker of the evening was Mr. T. H. Wilson, Scoutmaster, who gave a very interesting talk on Boy Scouts and Cubs. Mr. Wilson outlined briefly the history of the Scout movement from its origin under Founder Lord Baden-Powell on Brownsea Island, England in 1907 with 24 boys down to the present time. Today there are over 5,000,000 Scouts in fifty countries.

In discussing the value of Scouting, Mr. Wilson showed its usefulness to the boy, the community, the nation and to the world. It develops particularly self-reliance, dependability, discipline, and courtesy, aids in school work, and cuts down on juvenile delinquency.

Mr. Wilson explained in considerable detail the organization and actual training of Scouts and Cubs, and also outlined the history and achievements of the Porcupine Boy Scouts.
