

Make This A Safe Christmas

Your Christmas Tree and the decorations on it are fire hazards which you will want to watch most carefully this year. Each year at this time a large number of fires are reported, many of these fires are the result of circumstances which exist only during the holiday season; the result of carelessness which would not be tolerated at any other time. In a great many homes the gayest hours of the year have served as scenes of tragedy. The tree is the cause of an appalling number of fires every year and hundreds of others are caused by defective tree decorations. Discarded wrappings increase the number of rubbish fires. Keep the base of your tree immersed in water, remember that when you bring a tree into your house it is going to dry up. Check the lights for defects or frayed wires and dispose of gift wrappings as soon as possible. Make this a safe Christmas.

Decolleté Santa

A LOVELY SANTA brings yuletide greetings in the person of M-G-M's ingenuous cinderella girl, Janet Leigh. Aside from playing Santa with a spaniel, Janet is currently to be seen in "Hills of Home." Miss Leigh has just received an exciting Xmas gift herself—an important role in "The Forsyte Saga."

Near Bethlehem did shepherds keep Their flocks of lambs and feeding sheep; Two whom God's angels did appear, Which put the shepherds in great fear. "Prepare and go, the angels said, "To Bethlehem, be not afraid; For there you'll find this happy morn, A princely babe, sweet Jesus born."

This custom originated with the Dutch. They used their wooden shoes instead of stockings. When the Dutch came to New Amsterdam, this custom came with them—the wooden shoes gradually being replaced by stockings made for the occasion out of net-like materials. As nearly every home had a fireplace the usual place to hang the stockings was over the fireplace.

Legend has it that when Christ was born and Satan died, the bells in the churches were rung. At exactly midnight the tolling changed to a joyful peal, announcing the birth of the Christ.

In the dark chambers high above the turmoil and strife of human life, dwelt the Apostles of Peace, whose salutations were never so welcome as at the time of the great Winter feasts of Christmas, so William Auld tells in his tradition.

The poinsettia has no Christmas legend and its adoption as a symbol or decoration for Christmas is of recent origin. In Spain it is known as the flor de noche-buena, and is connected with the sentiment of Christmas.

Its beautiful flaming star is one of the favorite flowers of the Christmas season, and its use as an indoor decoration is universal.

Wishing all my friends and clients much joy at this happy season
