AN OLD SCOTTISH Tradition was carried out at the Garland-MacMillan wedding on Friday. As the couple left the church and paused briefly, six year old Susan Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Graham presented the happy couple with a lucky horse-shoe mounted with sprigs of white heather and satin ribbon. This was sent from Scotland to Elizabeth Peat by Mrs. James Stirrat, who for many years was a well-known Schumacher resident, but who left over a year ago for her native Scotland.

At the wedding reception following the Garland-MacMillan nuptials on Friday, the toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. R. J. Ennis, president and manager of the McIntyre Porcupine Mines. The bridegroom replied fittingly to the toast.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Skavelem entertained the bridal party following the wedding rehearsal for the Garland-MacMillan wedding on Thursday evening. Others invited were Mrs. N. Garland, Mrs. T. Nevin, Mrs. Haganaes, Mrs. J. W. R. Byers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ekene, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Campbell, Miss Patricia Campbell, Miss Caulyne Byers, Mrs. D. Briden and Mrs. and Mrs. Angus Sinclair MacMillan.

Mrs. Angus Campbell and Mrs. H. G. Skavelem entertained at a charmingly arranged luncheon in honor of the bridal party and out of town guests attending the Garland-MacMillan wedding. The affair was held at the Golf Club.

Word has been received that a gift of a museum piece of china, rare and beautiful, is now on the way here from England, for Mrs. George David Garland, the former Elizabeth Peat MacMillan. The gift is from Lady Elizabeth Cook.

Mrs. Claude Desaulniers and Mrs. Karl Eyre were hostesses on Saturday evening at a charmingly arranged shower in honor of Miss Mary Everard, bride-elect of June 23. The affair was held in the lounge room of the Goldfields Hotel. During the evening Miss Everard was presented with many lovely pieces of sterling silver to add to her already fine collection. Guests spent a most pleasant time playing bridge and attractive prizes were won by Mrs. V. Bonhomme, Mrs. G. Peacock and Mrs. D. Ostrosser. Bringing a delightful evening to a close was the serving of a tasty lunch.

Invited to attend were Mrs. D. Ostrosser, Mrs. P. Theriault, Miss Lyla Pirak, Miss N. Kingsley, Mrs. Ed Pritchard, Mrs. Fred Evans, Mrs. H. Ostrosser, Miss Marg Book, Mrs. J. J. McKay, Miss Mary Adams, Mrs. E. Baderski, Mrs. J. Suave, Mrs. H. Egan, Mrs. J. Bacon, Miss Marjorie Bacon, Mrs. J. Pon, Mrs. H. Charlebois, Mrs. D. Clarke, Mrs. A. Hilt, Mrs. D. Rogers, Mrs. T. Blackman Mrs. J. Fenn, Mrs. F. Last, Mrs. Joe Everard.

And, Miss Angela Burke, Mrs. F. M. Burke, Miss Jean McChesney, Miss Mary Morin, Miss B. Gowan, Miss Vivian Pierce, Mrs. Gregory Evans, Mrs. J. J. Evans, Mrs. C. Pozetti, Miss Lois Kelly, Mrs. Lou Cameron, Mrs. Mamie Shaheen, Mrs. A. Brennan, Mrs. Harold Gauthier, Mrs. A. P. Dooley, Mrs. John Dalton Jr., Mrs. I. K. Pierce, Mrs. C. Boutin, Mrs. E. Fleming, Mrs. J. Kearns, Mrs. A. Cousineau, Mrs. B. Bonhomme, Mrs. Plouffe, Mrs. M. McHugh, Mrs. Glen White, Mrs. S. McCoy, Mrs. Ron Moyle and Mrs. W. Ecclestone.

The home of Mrs. H. Friedman, 117 Toke street, will be the setting for an afternoon tea and sale of home baking. The affair will be held under the auspices of the Hadassah Chapter Ladies Aid and will take place on Wednesday, June 22, from 3 until 6 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

And this Saturday afternoon the Junior Auxiliary of St. Matthew's Pro-Cathedral will hold an afternoon tea and sale. The Auxiliary is comprised of young girls ranging in years from eight to twelve. They are receiving much well deserved praise from the various organizations of St. Matthew's for their contributions and hard work. Mrs. Florence DeGruchy is in charge of this group. We hear that many lovely things will be for sale made by the girls themselves. So let's give these enterprising youngsters a bit of encouragement by attending their first function.

The home of Mrs. F. Wilkinson, Maple street North, was the scene of a charmingly arranged surprise party recently. Guest of honor was Miss Sylvia Myllymaa who left on Friday by train for New York City from which she will travel by plane to Finland where she will spend some time holidaying with relatives and friends. Games were enjoyed during the evening and winners of attractive prizes were Miss Isobel Piche, Miss Maira Harjunpaa and Mrs. M. Viitasari. Prior to the serving of a delicious lunch served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. M. Viitasari and Mrs. T. Petersen, the honoree was presented with a gift of money carrying with it the best of wishes for a "happy journey".

Invited to attend were Mrs. S. Mannila, R. Mannila, Mrs. S. Slack, Mrs. M. Viitasari, Mrs. T. Petersen, Mrs. T. Paakkola, Miss Maira Harjunpaa, Jean Schroeder, Saara Rauka, Iona Pihlaja, V. Makela, Alde Niinimaki, Helvi Uehito, Isobel Piche, Mrs. A. Jarju, Mrs. V. Taskinen and Miss O. Stevenson.

Of interest to their friends in Timmins. When the grand concert of the Eleventh Annual Drama and Music Festival was held recently at Peace River it was highlighted by the awarding of a number of trophies to festival winners and among them were none other than talented Dolores Fisher and her younger sister Marjorie. Not only were they declared winners in the solo class but the duet, and piano competitions, both solo and duet. The adjudicators were all agreed that the quality of work was of exceptionally fine standard. They also predicted that Marjorie would be singing in "Stars of Tomorrow" program in a few short years. In the open duet-piano with Mrs. H. O. Hongisto, Marjorie secured $5 marks. Rev. H. O. Hongisto also won top honours in the mixed quartette. By the way Mrs. Hongisto is the wife of the new United Church Minister for Matheson. Rev. Hongisto is a graduate of Timmins High and Vocational School. He takes over his new duties in Matheson early in August. Dolores and Marjorie are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Fisher, well known former residents of Timmins. Mr. Fisher while here was in the insurance business with The London Life Company.
