

Rose Bright Exchanges Nuptial Vows With Alex McCann in Lovely Summer Wedding

St. Matthew's Pro-Cathedral decorated with tall standards of fragrant summer flowers was the setting for the marriage of Rose Bright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bright, 150 Algonquin Blvd. West, to Alex McCann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oswald McCann, 39 Laurier avenue on Wednesday afternoon, June 15.

The young couple exchanged nuptial vows before Canon Cushing and during the ceremony Mrs. Thompson, church organist played traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, rounded yoke of nylon net and long tight fitting sleeves. The skirt front featured graduated tiers of lace and the back fell into a brief train. Her fingertip veil of embroidered net was caught to a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a cascade of red roses and baby's breath.

She was attended by Mrs. R. DeLuca, her sister, as matron of honor, who wore a gown of jonquil yellow embossed, taffeta styled with sweetheart neckline, cap sleeves, moulded basque and a softly gathered skirt with side puffs. She wore a wreath of yellow shoulder, length veil and she carried a nosegay of yellow roses.

Mrs. J. DeVillano, sister of the bride and Mrs. Hilda Harrison were bridesmaids. Mrs. DeVillano wore a gown of powder blue taffeta with square cut neckline, puffed sleeves, and with fitted bodice and corded skirt. She wore a headdress of blue veiling with a wreath of pink rosebuds and carried an old-fashioned nosegay of pink and blue roses nestling in blue satin ribbon and streamers.

Mrs. Harrison wore a gown of blush pink taffeta with a fitted bodice, a shirred neckline of nylon net and a shirred hooped skirt. Her headdress was of pink veiling held with blue roses and a nosegay of pink and blue roses nestling in shirred pink satin ribbon and streamers.

Joe McCann, brother of the groom was best man while Bill Bright, brother of the bride, and Bill Shaw ushered.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The guests were received by the bride's mother, who wore an afternoon dress of black and white print with gray accessories and corsage of pink carnations. She was assisted by Mr. McCann, who wore an afternoon dress of navy crepe with natural colored accessories and corsage of yellow roses. Later in the evening a reception was held in the Hollinger Hall with Ron Purchase and his orchestra providing musical background for the dancing.

For the honeymoon trip to Southern Ontario the bride donned a paddy green linen dress with white accessories and a black and white topper. On their return they will reside at 166 Crescent avenue.

The groom's gift to his bride was a rhinestone bracelet, the bride's gift to the groom was a wallet, the matron of honor and bridesmaids received earrings and the best man and ushers gifts were diamond socks.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained at showers by Mrs. J. Griffin and Mrs. E. Griffen, Mrs. O. Swain and Dinky McCann; Miss Hilda Harrison and Mrs. R. DeLuca; and Mrs. J. Veinotte, Mrs. A. Knott and Mrs. D. Mayhew.

Mr. Bill Arthur has left for his home in Toronto after spending a weeks vacation as the guest of Michael O'Donnell.
