

Keeley - Clusieau Nuptial Vows Exchanged In Setting of Flowers and Candelabra

Against a background of summer flowers and candelabra in Notre Dame Church the marriage took place of Lucille Clusieau, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clusieau, 48 Windsor avenue, and Keeley C. Cummings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cummings, 8 Maple street north.

Father Charles Theriault performed the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Germaine Piche. Mrs. Piche was also soloist, and sang "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus" as arranged by Allen Caron of Winnipeg.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of heavy white satin fashioned with moulded basque, with sheer yoke, and long tight fitting sleeves forming lily points over the hands. The skirt was caught up in front at the hemline with sprigs of orange blossoms to show a lace petticoat of graduated tiers. Her full length veil fell in graceful folds from a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and bouvardia.

Miss Jacqueline Clusieau, sister of the bride was maid of honor, and wore a gown of blue corded taffeta with a lace bolero and carried a nosegay of white and yellow roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Jeanette Turcotte and Miss Raymonde Clusieau, sister of the bride. Miss Turcotte chose a gown of pale yellow, with a wreath of yellow flowers in her hair, matching mittens, and carried a nosegay of red and pink roses. Miss Clusieau wore a gown of pale green taffeta with matching flowers in her hair, green gloves and she carried a nosegay of pink and red roses.

Robert Cummings, brother of the groom, was best man. Jack Ramberg and Jimmy Adams ushered.

After the ceremony a dinner for relatives and close friends was held in the banquet room of the GV Hotel, followed by a reception from 2 to 6 o'clock. The bride's mother received the guests wearing a silver grey dress, white accessories, and a corsage of white roses. The groom's mother,

Softball at CNE To Aid Teen-Agers

Big league softball under new floodlights in three series—International Canadian and Toronto—will headline this year's program at the National Exhibition from Aug. 26 through Sept. 10, it was announced today by George N. Duthie, CNE sports director.

With the new and improved set-up of the enlarged stadium seating 4,000, the expanded tournament is designed to raise funds to finance the game among the teen-agers in Toronto and throughout the province under the joint sponsorship of the Ontario Amateur Softball Association, the Toronto Amateur Softball Association, the Toronto Beaches Fastball League, The Toronto Telegram and the CNE. In this, the largest softball carnival ever scheduled in Canada, doubleheaders will be played for fourteen nights under the lights plus doubleheaders three Saturday afternoons and Labor Day afternoon.

The three series will be: the best United States "name" cubs against the Toronto Beaches League Clubs, Tip Top, Peoples, Robertsons, Levy's and Sun Valley as the second half of the nightly doubleheaders. These games will be played under the current rules of the Beaches League.

(2)—Canadian series for The Toronto Telegram trophy and Bulova watches for members of the winning team will consist of twelve Ontario and four Toronto teams in a lose-and-out elimination tournament. These games will be the first of each night's doubleheaders and on the three Saturday afternoons.

(3)—The Bulova trophy series on Labor Day for the five teams of the Beaches Fastball League. This tournament for all teams in Canada's No. 1 league has been a feature of the CNE softball schedule for years. Watches will be presented to the members of the winning team by Robert E. Day, president of the Bulova Watch Co.

The net proceeds from these 14 days of softball will be devoted to the development of minor softball as follows: 45 per cent to the Ontario Amateur Softball Association, 45 per cent to the Toronto Amateur Softball Association and 10 per cent to the Beaches Midget Softball League.

Mr. Duthie also announced the appointment of the following committee to handle the series: Thomas Loudon, Toronto, chairman; C. W. James, Toronto, secretary; George Campbell, of Oshawa, president of the OASA; Frank Feaver, of Hamilton, secretary of the OASA; W. L. Alquire, of St. Catharines, treasurer of the OASA; William Braund, president of the TASA; Joe Leake, vice president of the TASA; W. H. A. Patterson, president, and Roy G. Dorsey, secretary-treasurer of the Beaches League; Harry Thornton, life member of the Beaches League; Norman Hardman, TASA past president; Douglas Smith, vice-president of the TASA; A. J. Morgan, of The Telegram; and Mr. Duthie.

The umpire's selection committee is headed by Morgan, with Thornton and Feaver as members.

In Impressive Ceremony 11 Graduate Nurses From St. Mary's School Of Nursing Recieve Their Diplomas And Pins On Sunday Evening

Joyce M. Brightwell Wins Award For Highest Standing In Class

In an impressive ceremony on Sunday evening in the Victory Theatre, eleven graduate nurses were presented with their diplomas and pins. The girls were graduating from St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing.

In their white uniform, with black banded caps on their heads and huge bouquets of red roses in their arms, the 11 who completed the course given by the Sisters of Providence were: Lucille T. Alarie, Joyce M. Brightwell, Eleanor Y. Cyr, Madeline M. Fournier, Margaret C. Lloyd, Helen F. Levert, Margaret T. Mageau, Eileen M. McCarthy, Laura M. Rotondo, Dorcen I. Vitkuske and Priscilla M. White.

First speaker of the evening called upon by chairman Gregory Evans was May: Karl Eyre, M.P., who brought greetings from the town of Timmins. Mr. Eyre mentioned the shortage of nursing personnel and predicted that the 11 St. Mary's graduates would be a decided credit and asset to the town of Timmins, adding, "I wish you every success in your chosen career. Yours is a great responsibility." But he added, you have been well prepared for responsibility by the excellent training you have received.

Guest speaker of the evening was Dr. Marian Powell, a graduate of the University of Toronto School of Medicine. "We are seeing," she said, "the process of students into graduates. You have a new field of endeavour before you, you're looking at the world with new eyes."

Dr. Powell compared conditions the graduates of 1900 had to face compared to conditions of today. She pointed out in particular to the prospect of the elation felt by her class-mates made in the treatment of tuberculosis, diabetes and pneumonia, as well as advances such as the sterilizer and refrigerator which makes blood banks possible.

"Research workers are pushing a head", she said, and told the graduates that they themselves would probably be in a position to watch the onward rush of medical history.

She expressed their sincere gratitude to Sister Superior and to Sister Fidella, superintendent of nurses. On behalf of the second year students in the School of Nursing, Bernice Langman accepted the torch from Miss Rotondo, pledging faith with the graduate.

The Nightingale pledge was led by Father F. B. Murray, who set up two objectives for the nurses to follow. Their first objective, he said, should be the Kingdom of Heaven. After that, they should be so imbued with the sense of principles received in training that they would be ready to face death rather than fail.

Three prizes, for first, second and third highest in the graduating class, were presented.

The St. Mary's Alumnae Scholarship for highest standing was presented to Miss Joyce Brightwell by Mrs. J. Bowker, R.N. The J. J. Evans prize for second standing, was won by Miss Laura M. Rotondo and presented to her by Father Murray. Mrs. M. McCann presented the St. Mary's Hospital Auxiliary prize to Miss Margaret Mageau.

Towards the end of the program the graduates went one by one to receive diplomas from Gregory Evans, at the centre of the stage, and on to the front of the theatre where Sister Superior attached the pins to their uniforms.
