

Nurses Graduation Dance Highlights Social Season, Held at Pavilion

Highlighting the social season was the gala dance sponsored by the Alumnae Association of St. Mary's Hospital in honor of the eleven graduates of 1949 from St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing. Henry Kelneck and his orchestra provided the musical background and in addition to playing many modern tunes, played music for a Paul Jones and various other dances. Winners of the spot dance prizes were Ray Gosselin and Dolores Lepenski. By means of an elimination dance, graduates of the classes of 1929 to 1949 were eliminated until finally there were only this year's graduates and their escorts on the floor.

Many beautiful frocks in glowing pastel shades added a colorful note. This year's graduates were all gowned in smart white frocks and wore corsages of red roses.

Patrons of the dance were Dr. J. R. Gardiner, Karl Eyre M. P. and Mayor of Timmins and Mrs. Eyre, and Dr. and Mrs. Dobson. The decorating committee was comprised of Miss Sheila Beauchamp.

Miss Evelyn McKey, Miss Blanche Currie and Mr. Jack Bowke. The invitations committee was formed by the above nurses and Miss Jean Prest.

Wonderful Support Given Canadian Cancer Society

In reply to a letter sent out by Mrs. J. R. Fitcher, President of the Women's Institute of Ontario, Institutes throughout the Province have given wonderful support to the work of the Canadian Cancer Society in the Province.

From all parts of Ontario members Institutes are sending in used linens and donations of money to carry on the voluntary welfare work of the Society. The welfare department in Ontario distributes free cancer dressings to needy sufferers, and during the past year over half a million of these dressings have been sent out. Volunteer drivers are on hand daily to drive those suffering from cancer to their homes. In many cases patients depend entirely on this welfare service for their dressings and transportation.

Lawn Bowling Tournament Now In Progress

Two lawn bowling tournaments are in progress at the present time. A ladies tournament is being run for all those who can play in the afternoons. Those who are unable to play in the afternoons are playing off their matches in the evenings.

The men's tournament is being run in the evenings as Monday night's rain caused a postponement of the first nights play but matches were resumed on Tuesday.

Mr. Horlock, tournament committee chairman reports that a large entry list in both events has been received.

"Y" Starts Second Softball League

Four teams have already entered the second section of the YMCA Softball League, which will run during July and August. The teams which have already started to play are: Maple Aces, Schumacher Ball Club, Gillies Horseshoes, and the Red Devils. All games, with the exception of the Schumacher Home Games, will be played on Diamond no. 4 at Hollinger Park. Each team will play two games each week.

Figure Skaters Present Exhibition At McIntyre Tonight

The Porcupine Figure Skating School will present another of its series of Thursday evening exhibitions of solos and dancing by pupils of the summer skating school.

The show opens at 8.45 p. m. and musical background for the exhibition is provided by the McIntyre Concert Band under the direction of Joe Slobodjan, and a recorder for the various interesting solos by outstanding skaters.

Appearing on the program tonight are Molly Kenner of South Porcupine, Louise Curley Joyce of New York, Treat Haggerty of New York, Patsy Honsberger, Danny Silk, Joby Moore, Sheila Muldowney and Betty Hiscock.

Tiny Tots Ground Fencing Complete

The Kinsmen at their last regular meeting gave their approval to the chairman of the Tiny Tots Playground for the construction of a Kin Cabin within the playgrounds. The cabin is for the use of the playground supervisors as well as a rest hut and first aid station for the park.

Jack Sullivan, chairman of the playgrounds informed the club, that the fencing had been completed and some of the playground equipment such as teeter totters, slides, hobby horses and sand boxes had been installed and the remainder would be erected as soon as it was available.

Graceful Figures, Beautiful Costumes Features at Figure Skating Exhibit

Beautiful costumes and graceful figures presented a highly pleasing panorama for the large audience gathered at McIntyre Arena recently for the first requisite weekly solo and dance skating show of the season. The affair was held under the auspices of the Porcupine Figure Skating Club.

Following a fox trot and an American waltz, Diane Williams, of Webster Grves, St. Louis, Md., presented the first solo number of the evening. Rose Sabagh of Whitestone, N.Y., appeared next and delighted the audience with a pleasing exhibition.

Kitty Hill, Northern Ontario dance champion gave a most impressive display on her silver blades as she whirled with airy gracefulness over the glittering ice. She was recalled for several encores.

Tommy Moore of Seattle, Pacific coast junior champion for 1949 and Ellie Sonneman eastern juvenile champion for 1949 both received hearty plaudits from the crowd, the latter climaxed a fine display with a "Can't-leave."

Gloria Howlie of Englewood, N.J., was next on the program and gave a fine exhibition with her splendid jumps, spirals and intricate steps, while the last solo on the interesting program was delivered by Maureen Senior, Canadian junior champion of 1949. Miss Senior gave a display of the finesse on blades that won her the junior crown, for this, she was highly acclaimed by the audience.

The McIntyre Concert Band under the baton of Joe Slobodjan provided the music for the dance session, while solo numbers were performed to recorded music.

Included in the dance numbers were a quickstep, tango, Paul Jones, swing waltz, formation step, Dutch waltz, remainder would be erected as soon as it was available.
