Monteleone Homers to Lengthen Combines Lead

The Porcupine Combines last night took a much firmer hold on the top rung of the T.B.L. ladder as they caked out an 8-6 win over the second place Hollinger crew. Although the game saw the Combines come from behind a 4-1 count in the seventh inning, and score 5 runs it was generally dull throughout and didn't have too much crowd appeal. Fleet Sammy Monteleone was the hero of the Combine's victory as he parked the apple out of the yard in the seventh inning uprising with a resounding four-bagger over the right-field wall, scoring Gunnar Telkinen ahead of him and setting the stage for the payoff punches which followed later in the inning which K.O.'d Cliff Varin the Holly starter and snatched the victory for the back-rodgers. Monteleone's mighty slam was the second round-tripper of the season, Johnny Brandreth of the Bombers banging out the first one a couple of weeks ago.

The Bombers started out as though they were going to waltz away with the contest as they bagged no fewer than four runs before the side was retired in the initial inning. Roy McKay lit the fireworks as he drew a walk from the Combine hurler, Busiere and went all the way to third as Ray Hannigan hit a screamer down the first base line. Tony Delmonte then drew a walk, filling the bases. Gus Gustavson promptly scored two runners with his infield hit and Delmonte crossed the platter with the third run as he and Gustavson pulled off a double steal. Gustavson went to third on an infield out and scored as Larmer dropped a bunt for a successful squeeze play. Those four runs looked as big as a mountain until the fatal seventh when the sky fell in on Cliff Varin.

Here's what happened when back-rodgers' bats exploded. Telkinen beat out an infield tap. Monteleone homered, McLellan singled, Everett lashed out a single to centre, and Bill Tennant gave the Combines their first taste of the lead as he singled scoring McLellan and Everett with the tying and winning marker. That wasn't all though as Pete Bahand got into the show by slugging out a mammoth triple to right, scoring Tennant. After that outburst, it looked to be in the bag but the Bomber wouldn't stay beaten and struck back for two more in the ninth to make the final count 8-6. A walk to Ray Hannigan and hit by Tony Delmonte and Gustavson were good for two but not enough to make the big difference.

The fielding gem of the night was flashed by Gunnar Telkinen in the Combines outgarden as he took on off his boot-tops to rob the Bombers of a sure hit. To-morrow night's Hollinger booster night with the Bombers meeting the Macmen at six bells Be sure and be there for plenty of action.

Soil Conservation Heads Kiwanis Farm Week

The District Representatives of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, L. H. Hanlan, of Matheson, for Cochrane South, and W. Montcalm, of Cochrane, for Cochrane North, were the guest speakers at the weekly meeting of Timmins Kiwanis Club at the Empire Hotel on Monday, the special occasion being the observance of Kiwanis International Farm Safety week. Another special guest for the day was L. Millette, president of the Mat'eson Agricultural Society. These three guests were introduced by Frank Feldman, chairman of the agricultural and conservation committee of the club. Other special guests for the day were Kiwanian J. A. Lambertus, of North Bay, introduced by Past Lieutenant - Governor W. O. Langdon, and H. Roberts, of Toronto, introduced by Major Majury.

Both the guest speakers emphasized the need for conservation and stressed methods for the more economical conduct of Northern farms.

Mr. Montcalm pointed out practical ways for soil conservation. He noted that the dairy cow not only was a food producer but also had much value in conserving soil. He advocated the improvement of the breeds of cattle on local farms. Touching on the serious depletion of soils in Southern Ontario, this speaker showed that similar conditions would arrive here if pastures were neglected. He advised farmers to improve their pastures as a valued guard against soil depletion. The advantages of the use of ensilage were also stressed. One farmer in North Cochrane was cited as having successfully and economically wintered 150 head of cattle on ensilage alone. Emphasis was further given to the desirability of early cutting of hay in this country. Another point touched on was the danger of over-equipping the farm with mechanical devices, when it would be more economical to use manual methods in many cases.

With an apt story, L. H. Hanlan, endorsed the reference to the previous speaker to the early cutting of hay, and other points. Mr. Hanlan referred to the assistance in farm matters given by the Timmins Kiwanis Club, through sponsoring potato clubs, grain clubs, distributing fertilizers, etc. He invited all the Kiwanians, and all others interested, to attend the field day at Matheson on Aug. 3rd, and he solicited the co-operation of the Club in connection with the visit to Matheson on Aug. 23rd of the Ontario Legislature committee to study all aspects of conservation. It was planned to present a brief to this select committee, and the Kiwanis Club was asked to co-operate in the preparing of this brief. Mr. Hanlan explained that the matters to be specially considered by the select committee would include: soil depletion, drainage, flood control, reforestation, local demonstration farms, and soil

Municipalities Want to Tax Gas and Amusements

A meeting of the Northern Mining Municipalities was held Tuesday in Kirkland Lake in the Park Lane Hotel.

All members of the Timmins Council, Mayor and the Town Clerk were present at the meeting. Representatives were also present from the Township of Matachewan, Township of Teck, Township of Whitney, Township of Tisdale, Town of Cobalt, Township of Larder Lake, and the Town of Timmins.

The president, Reeve Victor Evans, was chairman of the meeting.

Amendments to the Mining Act were proposed by the Association and they were left with the municipalities for further consideration as certain points had to be checked with the solicitors of the municipalities as to their legality.

Due to frequent complaints from merchants in the Town of Timmins about the mobile refreshment vehicles, chip wagons, a resolution was proposed by Leo Del Villano and seconded by Urban Aubry, petitioning the Provincial Government to pass legislation for the municipal licensing, regulating and controlling of mobile refreshment vehicles operating on the public streets of the municipality. This received the full approval of the Association.

A resolution proposed by J. P. Bartelman and seconded by Leo Del Villano to petition the provincial government to enact legislation to authorize municipalities to levy taxes on amusements, gasoline, alcoholic beverages and other luxuries.

The reason for submitting this resolution was that the Timmins Council felt that the taxing powers of a municipality are so limited and that an unbearable onus is placed on real estates and especially where municipalities receive the bulk of their revenue from residential properties through the lack of industries. This received the approval of the meeting.

A resolution was also passed which received the approval of the members for the periodic checking by the police of the weights of coal delivered by local merchants.
