The Boss Demonstrates

Claude Desaulniers, part-owner of Goldfields hotel, stood outside the window with a long-handled brush in his hands on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Desaulniers dipped the brush in a bucket of soapy water, and applied it to the window, every inch, subsequently replacing the brush with a rubber wiper, which he applied with similar thoroughness.

A bell boy, hands in pockets, stood nearby, watching.

Easy Does It

A REFRESHINGLY DIFFERENT salad consists of grated cabbage and carrot with sliced, pimiento-stuffed green olives folded into slightly thickened lemon-flavored gelatin. Serve this with soured cream dressing.

An easy luncheon salad uses small halves of cantaloupe filled with creamy cottage cheese and glistening pieces of canned fruit cocktail. Serve this with a thin slightly sweetened French dressing to which is added a few chopped mint leaves.

Make a salad base of cream cheese folded into whipped cream and add to this a combination of fresh or can-nulated firm. Serve as salad or dessert almonds. Chill in refrigerator trays until firm. Serve as salad or dessert.
Cooked cauliflower pieces molded in herb flavored tomato aspic make such a pretty salad that you'll have to be ready for seconds.

Arrange peach halves hollow side up in refrigerator tray. Pour over the following ingredients blended together: one cup cream cheese, with the same amount of mayonnaise, whipped cream and chopped pecans.
Freeze for three to four hours and serve on crisp lettuce.

Leftover roast chicken makes a salad fit for royalty when combined with seeded green grapes, pineapple pieces and toasted almonds. Use mayonnaise into which has been folded whipped cream as dressing.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK Chesapeake Shrimp Pie (Serves 6)

1 cup cooked shrimp 1 cup corn kernels, cooked 2 eggs ½ cup evaporated milk 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten 2 tablespoons minced parsley 1 tablespoon melted butter Salt and cayenne to taste Cut the shrimps in thirds. Beat the two eggs until fluffy and add milk, parsley, butter and seasonings. Add to shrimp and corn. Fold in the beaten egg whites and pour into a greased baking dish. Set in a pan of hot water. Bake for one hour in a moderate (350°) oven, or until a knife inserted comes out clean.

Ansonville and Iroquois Falls Board of Trade Notify Prime Minister And Leaders, of Resolution of Branch 70 Can. Legion in Dealing With Indians

The Ansonville Board of Trade held its regular December meeting in the Town Hall, Ansonville, Thursday evening, December 8th. While the attendance was small the executive members were nearly all present.

The president, S. E. Lefebvre, and the secretary, Mrs. W. J. Grummett, reported on the result of the Board of Trade's appeal to the Fire Underwriters' Association for a reduction in rates. This report showed that Anson-ville and Montrock had both been re-classified and practically all sections of both villages placed in a more preferred class with greatly reduced insurance rates accruing to the residents of both villages. These reductions mean a saving of from $2.50 to $5.00 per thousand insurance, depending on the section or area covered.
In some cases this means a saving of $200.00, or more, per year for some of the merchants. The Board members are very pleased with the result and congratulated the executive for having so successfully carried this matter through.

A resolution originating in Branch No. 70 of The Canadian Legion, Iroquois Falls, dealing with the status and plight of the Indians of Northern Ontario was presented to the meeting.
The members commended Branch No. 70 of The Canadian Legion for bringing forward this problem and the secretary was instructed to notify the Prime Minister of Canada, the Leader of the Official Opposition and the leaders of minority groups in the House of Commons, as well as the Premier of Ontario, the Leader of the Official Opposition in Ontario and leaders of minority groups that our Board of Trade endorsed the resolution wholeheartedly.

W. J. Grummett, K.C., M.L.A., was present and pointed out that the time had surely come when our Indian population could be given full citizenship status. In time of war, Mr.
Grummett stated, they have answered the call of their country and in many other ways given distinguished service and they should now be given full citizenship rights, especially since they have shown they are prepared to assume full citizenship responsibilities. Mr. Grummett also commended Police Magistrate E. R.
Tucker for his long and faithful efforts on behalf of the Indian. It was Magistrate Tucker's address at the annual Armistice Day banquet at the Canadian Legion which inspired Branch No. 70 to first take up the cause of the Indians.

In accordance with arrangements made at the last regular meeting of the Northern Ontario Associated Chambers of Commerce S. E. Lefebvre, President of The Ansonville Board of Trade, was named as our representative on the Northern Ontario body.

J. P. Gelinas was appointed chairman of a committee to arrange for a presentation to the first baby born in 1950 to parents residing within the Municipal Corporation of Calvert. Mr.
Gelinas was given power to select his own committee and make all necessary arrangements to the form of the presentation.

In conformity with the general practice throughout Northern Ontario he members authorized the secretary to take the necessary steps to have the organization's name changed to The Ansonville Chamber of Commerce, and the necessary seal, stamps and stationery to be purchased.

The members again discussed the question of establishing a Police Court in Ansonville and the secretary was instructed to take up with the Municipal Council of the Township of Calvert the question of making the necessary arrangements as recommended by Magistrate Tucker when he was interviewed in this connection some few months ago. The Board of Trade felt this would be a decided advantage and saving on the part of those who have to attend Police Court.

Funeral Services For Mrs. M. Moreau

Funeral services were held at St.
Anne's Roman Catholic Church, Iroquois Falls, for Mrs. Magloire Moreau, of Montrock who died on November 29th at the residence of her daughter,

GOOD CITIZENSHIP is a lot of little things

SHARE YOUR JOY THIS CHRISTMAS

Christmas is a festive, friendly season, Beneath all its gaiety and warmth, its greetings and sparkling decorations, Christmas means the joy of sharing. To most of us it is a wonderful season, but for those who are less fortunate Christmas can be a real heartache. An invitation to dinner to someone who is lonesome, a toy for some needy youngster, food and clothing for a family that has met misfortune—such little things as these give life to the Christmas spirit... and to the spirit of "Good Citizenship".
