ST. PATRICK'S TEA

The Parish hall of the Church of the Nativity was very appropriately decorated for St. Patrick's birthday tea which was held by the Senior C.W.L. on Friday. Mrs. McCoy, president, received guests at the door.

At the head table, pouring tea, were Mrs. A. R. Harkness and Mrs. J. Dalton, Sr., Mrs. J. Carnovale and Mrs. A. Andrews. The table was very effectively laid, with white damask linen cloth, set with silver candlesticks, green lighted candles, pots of shamrocks and silver tea services, and a vase of beautiful tulips in the centre.

Convenor of the tea was Mrs. H. Lee. A table was set up with home baked goods: cakes, cookies, buns and bread, to be sold as fast as they were put up on the table. In charge of this table were the following: Mrs. J. Carnovale, Mrs. Gentile, assisted by Mrs. L. Pare.

The waitresses were: Ann Wolfe, Jean Frapporte, Phyllis Badeski, Anita Clarke, Margaret Dunlop, Terry O'Dacre, Marion McDonald, Margaret McLean, Helen O'Grady and Mrs. P. Larmer. They were attired in white blouses and blue skirts with green and white aprons to represent shamrocks.

The tea tables were attractive with white cloths and light-green candles in the centre.

The kitchen committee was comprised of the following: Mrs. C. Fox, Mrs. J. Fox, Mrs. P. Nolan, Mrs. J. Gavan, Mrs. T. Hagan, Mrs. F. Culhane and Mrs. Killeen. Mrs. P. McAlevey was treasurer. Mrs. J. Kirinan and Mrs. MacDonald were in charge of the birthday cake, a three-tier cake beautifully decorated with white and green icing, donated by Alberts Bakery and set up with shamrocks on either side. Beside it stood a green box, upon which was inscribed, "May Saint Pat smile upon ye forever and a day."

Mrs. H. Lee was in charge of the "Garment Bag," which was raffled, the winner being Mrs. F. Culhane.

Mrs. P. Larmer sang several solos, accompanied by Mrs. Burke at the piano. Mrs. Cyr Kearn also played Irish numbers on the piano.

The winner of the birthday cake was Mrs. J. T. Newton, 4 John Avenue.

Father Martindale was seen mingling with the guests, welcoming them with a cheery word.

The tea proved very successful.

MRS. COULSON SPEAKS AND MRS. BAUMAN PLAYS AT W.M.S.

The W.M.S. of First United Church saw the film "Growing with the Years," at their regular meeting last week. The film bears the same name as the booklet published for the 25th anniversary of the United Church of Canada, to be observed in June, 1950.

The book and film provide a knowledge of the varied backgrounds out of which the United Church grew, as well as a tribute to the faith and foresight of the leaders of the Church. They portray the Church at work in its three-fold ministries of teaching, preaching and healing.

The achievements of the first 25 years augur well for advance in the future, when the church can be an influence in our national life and among the nations.

The president, Mrs. A. Jackson, opened the meeting with a lenten devotional service, and reminded members of the affiliation service with CGIT girls, on March 28, at 7:00 p.m.

Mrs. F. Bauman gave a most pleasing rendition of two violin solos, "The Flower Song," and "Beneath the Cross of Jesus," accompanied by Mrs. J. Wilkins at the piano.

Mrs. T. Coulson, of the C.A.S. spoke on the ever-increasing demands on the Society in every branch of social welfare.

Lunch was served by the members of Mrs. R. Dundas' group.

BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB

Interesting talks by three members of the Business and Professional Women's Club highlighted their meeting last Wednesday evening in the club rooms of the Windsor Hotel.

Joan Murtaugh told the candlelight ceremony and world-travelled guest speakers at the B & P International Night in Sudbury in February. She was introduced by Mary Williams, Peg McLaughlin, who also attended the Sudbury meeting was introduced by Jean McGill.

Noreen Kingsley gave a humorous and detailed resume of her week's visit with the Windsor and Detroit B & P Clubs, where she was a guest speaker at a luncheon. She was introduced by Bernice Kaye.

President Elizabeth Jackson informed members that Club pins were available. Vice-president Norma Routliffe showed the members a large plaque on which the club emblem had been painted by a high school pupil, Verna Jackson. A motion was made to send a letter of thanks and gift to Miss Jackson.

The Ways and Means Committee, under Roma Porter, announced that funds would be raised through an Easter draw to assist with the club project of contributing to the Victorian Order of Nurses.

President Elizabeth Jackson announced that a dinner meeting would be held in the latter part of April, date to be announced, at which Nazla Dane will be guest speaker. Miss Dane is president of one of the Toronto Clubs and is on the speakers' bureau of the B & P.

Marion Fulton, Corresponding Secretary, read several letters from Federation executives. Secretary Helen Korri read the minutes of the last meeting, and Treasurer Murtaugh gave her report.

"Northern Ontario Day" will be held in North Bay on May 28. All the northern clubs expect to have a good representation there.

Present at the meeting were: Elizabeth Jackson, Norma Routliffe, Jean McGill, Helen Korri, Joan Murtaugh, Marion Fulton, Roma Porter, Betty Bortolotti, Noreen Kingsley, Glenis McKenna, Mary Williams, Peg McLaughlin, Anne Armstrong, Helen Albright, Verna Kelly, Gladys Stuart and Bernice Kaye.

Princess Alice Club

Mrs. E. Dobson presided at a meeting of the Princess Alice Club which was held at the home of Mrs. J. Hickey. Plans were made to hold their Spring dance on April 28th at the Riverside Pavilion. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the club or at the Eddy Office Supply Store.

Mrs. C. Pozzetti introduced Col. E. A. Baker who spoke on the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

Attending the meeting were: Mrs. P. Taylor, Mrs. W. Watt, Mrs. D. Farlinger, Mrs. Brill, Mrs. A. Douglas, Mrs. J. Barry, Mrs. R. Eddy, Mrs. M. Lake, Mrs. J. Thomson, Mrs. L. Chapman, Mrs. R. Anderson, Mrs. C. Allen, Mrs. G. Allen, Mrs. J. Hickey, Mrs. F. Bauman, Mrs. O. Carter, Mrs. H. Freeman, Mrs. P. Cruss, Mrs. E. Dobson, Mrs. D. Ashbury.

The Choir of the First United is under the weather, and we are Church is presenting a concert this Friday night, March 24 in the Church. There will be selections from "Gilbert and Sullivan" and "H.M.S. Pinafore," Iolanthe, Patience and Mikado, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Armitage. Commencing at 8 p.m.

We were sorry to hear on Charlton Hospital.

Many Happy Returns of the Day goes to Mrs. E. Charlton on her birthday spent at the week-end.

The friends of Mrs. Louise Stanlick will be anxious to know she is progressing favourably in St. Mary's Hospital.

St. Patrick's Dance

A dance was held in the Legion Memorial Hall in honour of St. Patrick's Birthday on March 17, under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher and Mr. and Mrs. Millar.

The Legion Orchestra provided the music. There was community singing, several solos in good old Irish numbers.

Shamrocks were given at the door and the scene at the hall was one splash of green and shamrocks.

A delicious lunch was served at 12 o'clock.

Among the guests we noticed were: Wilhelma Bahm, attired in a brown fitted suit.

Lola Cotnam, gowned in black taffeta dress trimmed with green.

Mrs. J. Tallon, clad in green taffeta dress, cape, sleeves, sweetheart neckline.

Jean Ross, wearing navy blue taffeta dress.

Vivian Tallon looked very pretty in a black crepe dress trimmed with green sequins and three quarter length sleeves.

Mrs. A. Landers wearing a flowered crepe dress, cape, sleeves, full skirt and low cut neckline.

Guests attending the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. Ken Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Les. Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. Millar, Mr. and Mrs. Justin Tallon, Mr. and Mrs. J. Duffy, Vivian Tallon, Mr. and Mrs. A. Landers.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Keeley, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lenard, Mr. and Mrs. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. P. Pary, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Quine, Miss Wilhelma Bahm, Wallie McCall, Mr. and Mrs. A. Quine.

Lola Cotnam, Marcel Depatie, Jean Ross, Reg. Gallagher, Nellie Jasma, Reryl McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. P. Plattery, Mr. and Mrs. T. Landers, Mr. and Mrs. H. Powell and many others.

Card Party

A whist drive was held at the home of Mrs. O. McCann 39 Laurier Avenue last night, when Mrs. McCann and Mrs. Johnson jointly entertained the members of the Lawn Bowling Club and friends.

The evening was spent playing cards; following a social half hour with community singing. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses.

Winners for the card game were: Mrs. E. McQuarry 1st; Mrs. J. Helson, 2nd; consolation, Mrs. Powell.

Attending were: Mrs. R. Jackson, Mrs. A. Court, Mrs. P. Youlten, Mrs. J. Drew, Mrs. Woolcocks, Mrs. W. Nixon, Mrs. R. Backhouse, Mrs. J. Shaw, Mrs. W. Stewart, Mrs. A. Truscot.

Ski Tales and Trails

By LEANA PRINCE

With the temperature varying between 35 and 40 above zero on Sunday, who could stay in, at least that's the way it appeared judging by the crowds out skiing at Kam. A conservative guess would be at least one hundred and seventy-five people. Many of these were our guests from Kapuskasing, Smooth Rock Falls and Iroquois Falls and Cochrane. At many a turn in the trails a skier could be found sunning himself. The Fire Rangers shack and the Chalet were undoubtedly the most popular in this respect.

The following are a few of the visitors: Margaret Giles, Clara Festorini, Chris Trapperney, Bill McCullum and Jack Kannisto, all from Cochrane. From Smooth Rock Falls, Pres. Laurie Hardman, Sec. Mildred Wagner, Ralph Wagner and Beatrice Wagner, who is at present nurse-in-training in Timmins. Iroquois Falls was well represented: Pres. Ernie Cashmore, Helen Howard, Bill McGrath, Norm Howard, Adrene Nadeau, Bill Eubery, Cliff Eiland; and last-but-not-least, from Kapuskasing was Margaret Montgomery, a lone representative.

The party at the Goldfields Hotel Blue Room was a huge success. We'll not say much, however there were many a tired and weary soul on Sunday, in fact several of the "downhill" fiends didn't even so much as looked down it. The "windup" was Sunday night dinner at the Rainbow Room, which was most enjoyable. Prior to dinner a sing song and piano selection was enjoyed. Thanks to Jens Begtrup who was our able pianist.

Congratulations go to Murray Johnson, Garth Brillinger and Norm Lillie for this very successful weekend.

Do not let anyone tell you that "spring has not sprung," to prove it on March 12th pussy willows were found gracing the trails at Kam, and on March 19th a crow was sighted.

A wise word to the motorist: Please park your cars on the right side of the road only, and get off as far as possible. Present road condition, plus the fact that the road is very narrow makes passing most difficult. Also note: Do Not park your car on the road leading to the Chalet. Hoping all will abide.

The Ski Club suffered a great loss when Dr. M. B. Hill moved to London, Ontario. Dr. Hill was Vice-President of the club and was a most valued member. The club gained much during his term in office. With him go best wishes from the club as well as the Porcupine District.

Ladies Auxiliary

The Ladies Auxiliary to St. Mary's Hospital announce a work meeting will be held in the Auditorium of the Nurses' Residence on Tuesday, March 28th, 1950, from 2 to 4 p.m.

This will be the last work meeting until next fall.

A large attendance is particularly requested.

Please don't forget the Spring Tea being held by the Hospital Auxiliary on April 22nd. Keep this date open.

Laughton—Rudd Wedding

The marriage of Lillian Valerie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laughton, and Norman Carlyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rudd, was solemnized in the manse of Mountjoy Church on Saturday, March 4, Rev. Gilmour Smith officiating.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of pale blue tissue aille with navy accessories, and a pendant and earrings (gift of the groom), and carried a bouquet of pink baby orchids.

Mrs. G. McJanet, as matron of honor, the bride's only attendant, wore a frock of salmon crepe with navy accessories and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

George McJanet, acted as best man for the groom.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 79 Kent avenue.

Mrs. Loughton, the bride's mother, wore a navy blue crepe gown with gray accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Pouring tea were Mrs. C. Daly and Mrs. M. Bain.

Mrs. A. St. Jean, of Cochrane, was an out-of-town guest.

Prior to her marriage the bride was entertained by the girls from the Hollinger office.

The young couple will live in Timmins.
